WAC 223-08-085 Commencing an appeal--Types and time limits. Every proceeding before the appeals board or its chairman shall be commenced by filing with the appeals board a notice substantially in compliance with one of the forms numbered one through nine in WAC 223-08-080. Each such original notice shall be accompanied by four copies except that failure to file said copies shall not alone impair commencement of the proceeding.

There shall be the following types of proceedings before the appeals board or its chairman, and they shall be commenced within the following periods of time:

(1) The department of ecology may petition the chairman of the appeals board for an order directing the department to immediately issue a stop-work order or notice to comply or to impose a penalty. This petition shall be filed at the principal office of the appeals board and the appeals board shall notify both departments of the time and place of a hearing upon the petition.

After opportunity for hearing, the chairman shall grant or deny the petition within forty-eight hours from the time of filing with the appeals board or the service of a copy of the petition upon the department, whichever is later. Such action by the chairman shall be based solely on the hearing record and argument and shall be embodied in a written order setting out the conclusions upon which it is based. The order shall be filed at the principal office of the appeals board and copies shall be served upon the parties. (See RCW 76.09.100)

(2) The county may appeal within thirty days any department approval of an application with respect to any lands within its jurisdiction. The applicant shall be a party to all county appeals of department approvals. (See RCW 76.09.050(8))

(3) An operator, timber owner or forest land owner subject to a stop work order (RCW 76.09.080) may commence an appeal to the appeals board within fifteen days after service upon the operator. (See RCW 76.09.080 (2)(d))

(4) An operator, timber owner or forest landowner subject to a notice to comply (RCW 76.09.090) shall first request, within fifteen days after the date of service of such notice, a hearing thereon before the department. The final order of the department issued after such hearing may then be appealed to the appeals board within thirty days after such final order takes effect. (See RCW 76.09.090)

(5) All persons subject to a penalty under RCW 76.09.170 may appeal such penalty to the appeals board within thirty days of receipt of notice imposing any penalty, unless an application for remission or mitigation is made to the department. When such an application is made, such appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice from the department setting forth the disposition of the application. (See RCW 76.09.170)

(6) The department may appeal county objections to the appeals board within thirty days of notice to the department of such objections. The applicant shall be a party to all department appeals of county objections. (See RCW 76.09.050(7))

(7) Any person aggrieved by the approval or disapproval of an application to conduct a forest practice may seek review from the appeals board by filing a request for the same within thirty days of the approval or disapproval. The applicant shall be a party to this proceeding. (See RCW 76.09.220 (8))

(8) See WAC 223-08-270.

(9) See WAC 223-08-275.

(10) Any aggrieved landowners, agencies, tribes, and other persons are entitled to appeal a final hazard reduction plan to the appeals board if, within thirty days of the issuance of the final plan, the party transmits a notice of appeal to the appeals board and to the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 76.09.230(4), 90-23-093, § 223-08-085, filed 11/21/90, effective 12/22/90; 82-09-024 (Order 82-1, Resolution No. 82-1), § 223-08-085, filed 4/13/82; Order 004, § 223-08-085, filed 11/10/75.]

WAC 223-08-087 Commencing an appeal--Temporary suspension or discontinuance. Any county appealing under RCW 76.09.050(8) or any person aggrieved appealing under RCW 76.09.220(8) may seek a temporary suspension of the department's approval, in whole or in part, pending such appeal. Any operator, timber owner, or forest land owner appealing under RCW 76.09.080 may seek temporary discontinuance of the stop work order, in whole or in part, pending such appeal. The following procedure shall apply:

(1) The appellant shall file with the appeals board a motion, supported by affidavit setting forth specific facts supporting a temporary suspension or discontinuance. Such motion may be filed with the notice commencing the appeal or at any time thereafter prior to the final decision of the appeal by the appeals board.

(2) Upon receipt of said motion, the presiding officer shall schedule a hearing and serve notice of such hearing on all parties to the appeal. Before or after the commencement of said hearing the presiding officer may order the hearing of the merits to be consolidated with said hearing.

(3) After hearing, the presiding officer shall temporarily suspend the department's approval, or temporarily discontinue the stop work order in whole or in part, or shall decline to suspend or discontinue. Such action shall be based solely on the record and hearing argument, and shall be embodied in a written order. Orders issued under this subsection shall remain effective until the final decision of the appeals board unless sooner dissolved for good cause shown.

(4) In emergency situations, a temporary suspension or discontinuance in whole or in part may be granted by the presiding officer without a hearing, only if it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the moving party before any adverse party can be heard in opposition. A temporary suspension or discontinuance granted without a hearing shall be embodied in a written order and shall expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed fourteen days, as provided therein unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for a like period or unless the party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended for a longer period. The reasons for the extension shall be entered of record. On two days' notice to the party who obtained the temporary suspension or discontinuance without notice or on such shorter notice to that party as the presiding officer may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification and in that event the presiding officer shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

(5) Every order temporarily suspending the department's approval of an application, or temporarily discontinuing a stop work order, whether issued before or after hearing, shall set forth the reasons for its issuance and shall describe in reasonable detail the scope of suspension or discontinuance and shall be filed at the principal office of the appeals board and shall be binding upon all parties to the appeal, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys and upon those persons in active concert of participation with them who receive actual notice of the order.

(6) Except as otherwise provided by statute, no temporary suspension or discontinuance shall issue except upon the giving of security by the moving party, in such sum as the presiding officer deems proper, for payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have wrongfully obtained the suspension or discontinuance. No such security shall be required of the United States or of an officer or agency thereof. Pursuant to RCW 4.92.080 no security shall be required of the state of Washington, municipal corporations, or political subdivisions of the state of Washington.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 76.09.230(4). 90-23-093, § 223-08-087, filed 11/21/90, effective 12/22/90.]

WAC 223-08-090 Commencing an appeal—Jurisdiction. Any party may challenge the jurisdiction of the appeals board to hear an appeal on jurisdictional grounds, and the appeals board may, on its own motion, raise the jurisdictional issue. The appeals board may, when satisfied that it does not have jurisdiction, dismiss an appeal.

[Order 004, § 223-08-090, filed 11/10/75.]

WAC 223-08-095 Commencing an appeal—Amendment of notice. Prior to or during the prehearing conference, the party appealing may amend the notice commencing a proceeding at any time; thereafter, such amendment may be made on such terms as the presiding officer may prescribe, in accordance with the prehearing order.

(1990 Ed.)

[Statutory Authority: RCW 76.09.230(4). 90-23-093, § 223-08-095, filed 11/21/90, effective 12/22/90; 82-09-024 (Order 82-1, Resolution No. 82-1), § 223-08-095, filed 4/13/82; Order 004, § 223-08-095, filed 11/10/75.]

WAC 223-08-097 Intervention. (1) The presiding officer may grant a petition for intervention at any time, upon determining that the petitioner qualifies as an intervenor pursuant to Civil Rule 24.

(2) If a petitioner qualifies for intervention, the presiding officer may impose conditions upon the intervenor's participation in the proceedings, either at the time that intervention is granted or at any subsequent time.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 76.09.230(4). 90-23-093, § 223-08-097, filed 11/21/90, effective 12/22/90.]

WAC 223-08-100 Prehearing conferences. (1) The purpose of a prehearing conference shall be:

(a) To determine the feasibility of a settlement of the appeal or, failing settlement;

(b) To prepare the case for hearing by identification of issues, witnesses, exhibits, stipulations, admissions, and scheduling for incorporation in a prehearing order.

(2) The presiding officer may convene a prehearing conference in each appeal upon seven days' notice mailed to each party.

(3) Any agreement concerning final disposition of the appeal reached at a prehearing conference shall be noted by the presiding officer. Counsel shall then present an agreed order implementing the agreement. If the agreement is in accordance with law, the appeals board shall enter the agreed order disposing of the appeal.

(4) If any party fails to appear at a prehearing conference, the presiding officer may suspend setting a hearing or may continue or deny continuance of a hearing already set or may otherwise restrict the time or location of hearing.

(5) At the conclusion of a prehearing conference which has not resulted in settlement, the presiding officer shall enter a prehearing order. This shall include a statement of issues and lists of witnesses and exhibits or provision for filing such lists and any other matters which may bear on the preparation for hearing. The issues stated in the prehearing order shall control the subsequent course of the proceedings, unless modified for good cause by subsequent order.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 76.09.230(4). 90-23-093, § 223-08-100, filed 11/21/90, effective 12/22/90; Order 004, § 223-08-100, filed 11/10/75.]

WAC 223-08-107 Prehearing procedures—Telephone. Any conference or motion hearing, or any part thereof, may be conducted by telephone conference call. Upon a timely request, or on its own motion, the board or its presiding officer may schedule such conference or hearing if it appears to promote the fair, speedy, and economical processing of a matter compatible with this procedure.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 76.09.230(4). 90-23-093, § 223-08-107, filed 11/21/90, effective 12/22/90.]

[Title 223 WAC—p 11]

WAC 223-08-150 Hearing--Types of hearings. The statute creating the appeals board contemplates two kinds of hearings, informal and formal, without any indication as to what the distinction should be, but with different provisions for the judicial review of the final decision of the appeals board. The procedure in conducting these two types of hearings shall be the same. The final decision of the appeals board entered after an informal hearing shall be no less binding upon the parties than a final decision entered after a formal hearing.

Judicial review of an appeals board's final decision entered after a formal hearing shall be pursuant to RCW 34.05.510 through 34.05.598.

Judicial review of an appeals board's final decision entered after an informal hearing shall be de novo.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 76.09.230(4), 90-23-093, § 223-08-150, filed 11/21/90, effective 12/22/90; 82-09-024 (Order 82-1, Resolution No. 82-1), § 223-08-150, filed 4/13/82; Order 004, § 223-08-150, filed 11/10/75.]

(5) Exceptions to rulings on admissibility of evidence. If an exception is taken to a ruling or rulings of a presiding officer sustaining an objection to admissibility of evidence, or denying a continuance for the presentation of further evidence, and the appeals board determines that said ruling or rulings were erroneous, the appeals board may:
