WAC 130-14-010 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

Capital improvements means improvements to real property or improvements or acquisition of personal property which is depreciable under the Federal Tax Code.

Existing child care facility means that facility which holds a current license for a child care facility from the department of social and health services (DSHS) at the time of application to the child care facility fund.

New child care facility means that facility that does not hold a current license for a child care facility from the department of social and health services (DSHS) at the time of application to the child care facility fund.

Applicant means either:

(1) One or more businesses seeking to establish or cause to be established a child care facility primarily for use of the children of its employees; or
