WAC 246-975-240 Emergency medical technician--Reciprocity and challenges. (1) Reciprocity as a Washington state EMT may be granted to a currently certified EMT from another state or territory if the applicant has proof of completion of the United States Department of Transportation, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's course.

(2) An individual certified by the National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians may be considered for reciprocity only under the following conditions:

(a) The applicant must have completed the United States Department of Transportation, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's EMT course (equivalent training for certification is not acceptable);

(b) The category of the national certification must be "EMT-Ambulance";

(c) The candidate must be fully certified - provisional certification is not acceptable;

(d) The former state of the individual must accept the national registry certification or must require both state and national certification.

(3) Certification by reciprocity shall be based on need and shall be for the duration of the former state's certification but in no case will exceed two year's duration.

(4) An individual who wishes to challenge the EMT examination must meet the following conditions of eligibility:

(a) There must be proof of need for certification as specified by WAC 246-975-210;

(b) The candidate must show the testing agency proof of equivalent training and/or experience, including the ten-hour required experience required for initial certification.

(5) Reinstatements are recertifications for individuals who have let their certifications lapse before applying for such recertification. Reinstatements may be accomplished in the following manner:

(a) An individual whose expiration of certification is less than one year old may, at the option of the approved EMS medical program director, be allowed to credit prior continuing education and take the practical and written recertification examinations;

(b) An individual whose expiration of certification is more than one year old at the time of application, must retake the basic minimum course as described in WAC 246-975-220.
