WAC 192-12-141 Registration, reports and claims for unemployment compensation and related benefits.

(1) Interstate claimants. Individuals who file interstate claims for benefits against this state through the local office of any agent state shall not be subject to this regulation. (See WAC 192-12-130.)

(2) Application for initial determination. Except for good cause shown an application for initial determination shall be filed in person at a Washington state employment security office on forms provided by the department. Such application may be made at any time.

(3) Registration for work. As a condition of eligibility for waiting period credit or benefits, an individual shall register for work at an office of the Washington state employment security department on forms provided and shall thereafter renew his or her registration as directed during the total period [in] which he or she maintains active claim status except as provided in WAC 192-12-150, covering the requirements for payment of benefits to partially unemployed individuals and standby workers.

(4) Perfecting a claim for waiting period credit.

(a) Except for good cause shown, to perfect a claim for waiting period credit, a claimant shall report in person at an employment security department office during the week for which he or she intends to claim waiting period credit.

(b) The claim for waiting period credit shall be made in writing on forms provided by the department. It shall be filed at the office during the calendar week immediately following the last day of the week being claimed except for good cause shown.

(5) Claim for benefits. A claim for waiting period credit or benefits shall be filed in writing with a Washington state employment security office, as prescribed by the department. The department shall determine the method and time sequence by which each individual shall file a claim for benefits.

(a) To be accepted as a claim for waiting period credit or benefits, the claim form shall:

(i) Include a correct week ending date which is the Saturday date of the week being claimed, and

(ii) Be filed after the week ending date of the week claimed, and

(iii) Include the answer to at least one question, and

(iv) Include the claimant's signature, and

(v) Be filed against an established benefit year ending date, whether monetarily eligible or ineligible, and

(vi) Include certification as to the amount of remuneration, if any, including a pension, holiday pay, vacation pay, or earnings for the week or weeks claimed, and a certification of the number of hours during each week claimed unless the certification of remuneration removes the claimant from the status of an unemployed individual as defined in RCW 50.04.310.

(b) The method for filing claims shall be one of the following:

(i) In-person method, whereby the claimant shall file the claim in person except for good cause shown;

(ii) Mail method, whereby the claimant shall file the claim by mail or in a Washington state employment security office except for good cause shown. Claims submitted by mail shall be deemed filed with the department on the postmarked date.

(iii) The commissioner may authorize other methods for the purpose of study, in response to state or national emergencies, or where unusual circumstances, not within the control of the claimant, make in-person or mail filing difficult.

(c) The time sequence for filing claims shall be one of the following:

(i) Weekly sequence, whereby claims shall be filed during the calendar week immediately following the week being claimed except for good cause shown;

(ii) Biweekly sequence, whereby a claim for a two-consecutive-week period shall be filed during the calendar week immediately following such period except for good cause shown.

(iii) The commissioner may authorize another sequence for the purpose of study, in response to state or national emergency, or where unusual circumstances, not within the control of the claimant, make another sequence more appropriate.

(6) Certain exceptions pertaining to filing claims in person.

(a) A claimant who is directed to file a claim for waiting period credit or benefits in person and because of returning to work is unable to do so must be permitted to file the claim by mail. The claimant must file the claim or claims within the same period as the claimant was directed to file in person except for good cause shown, provided that claims submitted by mail shall be deemed filed with the department on the postmarked date.

(b) In the event that a claimant is scheduled to file a claim (or claims) in person on the last business day of the week and the claimant fails to file as scheduled, the claimant shall be allowed the next business day to file such claim (or claims) in person.

(7) Reporting responsibility. Irrespective of time sequences for filing claims for waiting period credit or benefits, the department may require a claimant to report to a local office in person for any reason deemed appropriate. Failure to report, as and when directed, shall result in the denial of benefits for the week during which such failure occurs, except for good cause shown.

(8) Itinerant offices. In cases where a representative of the employment security department shall establish a location apart from the usual place of reporting for the purpose of taking registrations, initial applications or claims for waiting period credit or benefits, all individuals registering or filing an application or claims at such location shall be deemed to have registered or filed at an Employment Security office.

(9) Provisions for processing late claims.

If a claim form is filed with the intent to claim benefits for more than one week and one or more of the weeks is late filed;

(a) The week or weeks that are not late filed shall be promptly processed and paid if all other eligibility requirements are met, and

(b) The week or weeks that are late filed shall be promptly processed and conditionally paid unless the claimant shows good cause for late filing.

(10) Provisions for handling incomplete claims.

(a) In the event that a claim form does not conform to the definition of a claim for waiting period credit [or] [for] benefits, the form may be returned to the claimant for correction or completion. Any such returned form will be accompanied by a written explanation [of] [or] the reason for return, and the correction or completion of omitted entries required.

(b) If a claim form is submitted with the intent to claim benefits for more than one week, and one or more of the weeks do not conform to the definition of a claim for benefits, the week or weeks that do meet the definition shall be promptly processed.

(11) Reopening of claims. A claimant shall report in person at an employment security department office during the first week for which benefits are claimed after a break or interruption of one or more weeks in a series of consecutive weekly claims, except for good cause shown. The department may waive or modify this requirement, when authorized by the commissioner, for administrative reasons or to reduce hardship to the public.

(1) No training shall be considered for approval by the commissioner or his or her authorized representative unless:

An application to take such training is made in writing and submitted to the commissioner at any local office of the Washington employment security department, or in the case of an individual in another state, to the local office of such state through which the individual is filing his or her claim for unemployment compensation against the state of Washington.

(2) In the approval of any training, the commissioner shall assess, among other factors, the following:

(a) The applicant's plan for completion of the training, and

(b) The nature of the facility and the quality of the training, and

(c) Whether the training relates to an occupation or skill for which there are, or are expected to be, reasonable employment opportunities in the labor markets in which the individual intends to seek work, and

(d) Whether an oversupply of qualified workers exists, and

(e) Whether the individual has the qualifications and aptitudes to successfully complete such training; and further

(f) Whether employment opportunities for which the individual is fitted by past training and experience do not exist or have substantially diminished in the labor market due to business or economic conditions in the area, or because of conditions peculiar to the individual such as health, physical stature, criminal background, or other circumstances of a similar nature, to the extent that in the judgment of the commissioner the individual will experience an extended period of unemployment and dependence upon the unemployment compensation program.

(3) Any training required within an occupation shall be approved by the commissioner: Provided, That:

(a) The training is a condition of continued employment, and

(b) The scheduling of the training is determined by a work related entity, and not by the claimant, and

(c) The training meets the requirements of subsections (2)(a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this section.

(4) An academic training course may be approved if the conditions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section are met, and the training meets specific requirements for certification, licensing, or specific skills necessary for the occupation.

(5) In the case of individuals with physical or sensory handicaps or other unusual individual circumstances, a written decision of the commissioner may waive any of the requirements of this section on an individual basis.

WAC 192-12-184 Training—Unemployment benefits while pursuing training. The commissioner prescribes the following requisites:

(1) Training shall be full-time and the training facility will determine whether the claimant is enrolled in training on a full-time basis and whether he or she is making satisfactory progress.

(2) The claimant shall notify the department if he or she discontinues or suspends the training, or reduces enrollment to less than full-time.

(3) If enrollment drops below full-time or satisfactory progress is not being made, the claimant may be required to show that he or she is meeting the availability for work and active search for work requirements of RCW 50.20.010(3) and the provisions of RCW 50.20.080 relating to failure to apply for, or refusal to accept suitable work.

(4) For the purposes of RCW 50.20.050(3), participation in training previously approved by the commissioner works and unreasonable hardship on the individual when he or she would be required to continue in employment beyond the start or resumption date of the training.
