In the event any employee group or college organization is not in agreement with the recommendations of the president, they may present their opinions and recommendations to the president for his consideration. Nothing in this section shall preclude the administration from implementing this RIF policy if the need for the RIF has not been established as provided for in this section.

(2) If the number of academic employees is to be reduced, the president, with advice from the dean of instruction, division chairmen, and instructional council, shall recommend what course offerings and/or other services are most necessary to maintain quality education at Peninsula College. The president shall consider, but not be limited to, the following factors:

(c) Information concerning faculty vacancies occurring through retirement, resignation, sabbaticals, and leaves of absence.

(3) The academic employee members of the instructional council shall review these recommendations and make their conclusions available to the review committee, if requested.

[Order 3, § 132A-128-030, filed 12/8/76.]

WAC 132A-128-035 Seniority. (1) Seniority shall be determined by establishing the date of the signing of the first full-time contract for the most recent period of continuous full-time professional service for Peninsula College which shall include leaves of absence, sabbatical leaves, and periods of layoffs. The recall shall be in reversed seniority, the most senior first. Full-time tenured academic employees who have been laid off will retain their accrued benefits, such as sick leave and seniority. The right of recall shall extend two years from the date of layoff. Upon recall they shall be placed at least at the next higher increment on the salary schedule than at the time of layoff and will retain their tenured status.

[Order 3, § 132A-128-045, filed 12/8/76.]

WAC 132A-128-060 Procedure for layoff or dismissal. (1) When the president receives or initiates a formal written recommendation about an academic employee which may warrant dismissal or layoff, he shall inform that academic employee. Within ten days after having been so informed, the academic employee will be afforded an opportunity to meet with the president or his designee and the chairman of the division. At this preliminary meeting, which shall be an information gathering session, an adjustment may be mutually agreed upon. If the matter is not settled or adjusted to the satisfaction of the college president, he shall recommend that the academic employee be dismissed or laid off.

WAC 132A-128-070 Hearing. (1) After notification of the president's recommendation for layoff or dismissal, the affected academic employee may within the following ten days request a hearing. If the president does not receive this request within the ten days, the academic employee's right to a hearing will be deemed waived.

If the president receives a request for a hearing, he shall immediately call into action the review committee and deliver the aforesaid statement to the members of the review committee. He shall also notify the board of trustees of the request for a hearing. The board of trustees shall then appoint a hearing examiner whose responsibilities shall be to establish a date for a hearing and to inform, in writing, the employee, the president, and the review committee of the time, date, and place of such hearing. The hearing examiner shall not be a community college board member, community college employee, member of the state board for community college education staff, or a Washington state attorney general employee. Furthermore, this scheduled hearing shall not be held prior to the twenty-first day following notification of the president that the employee requested a hearing.

(2) In the presence of the review committee, the hearing examiner shall:

(a) Preside over the dismissal hearing;

(b) Conduct the hearing with all due speed until the hearing is terminated;

(c) Hear testimony from all individuals called by the president, the employee, the dismissal review committee, or the hearing examiner, and receive any evidence offered by the same;

(d) Afford the employee whose case is being heard the right of cross-examination, the opportunity to defend himself, and to be accompanied by legal counsel;

(e) Allow the college administration to be represented by an assistant attorney general;

(f) Make all rulings regarding the evidentiary and procedural issues presented during the course of the dismissal review committee hearings;

(g) Meet and confer with the members of the review committee and advise them in regard to procedural and evidentiary issues considered during the course of the committee's deliberations;

(i) Prepare proposed findings of fact and conclusions for review by the appointing authority and a record which shall include:

(i) All pleadings, motions, and rulings;

(ii) All evidence received or considered;

(iii) A statement of any matters officially noticed;

(iv) All questions and offers of proof, objections and rulings thereon;

(v) Proposed findings and exceptions;

(vi) A copy of the recommendations of the dismissal review committee.

(4) In the event of a reduction in force, the hearing examiner shall consolidate all matters into a single hearing.

(5) Peninsula College shall provide a transcript of the above materials upon request by the employee. The college shall pay costs, not to exceed $50, of the expense of providing these transcripts. Additional costs, if any, must be met by the employee.

(6) The hearing shall be closed unless the hearing examiner determines otherwise.

(7) Following the presentation of testimony and evidence, the hearing examiner shall afford the employee or his counsel(s) and the assistant attorney general representing the college administration the opportunity to present oral arguments. The hearing examiner may request written briefs to be submitted within five days.

(8) Within fifteen days of the conclusion of all hearing testimony, evidence, oral arguments, and written briefs, the review committee and the hearing examiner shall make their written recommendations to the board of trustees. A copy of such recommendations shall also be given at the same time to the employee and to the president.

WAC 132A-128-080 Recommendations. (1) The decision to dismiss shall rest, with respect to both facts and decision, with the board of trustees after giving reasonable consideration to the recommendations of the president, the dismissal review committee, and the hearing examiner. These recommendations shall be advisory only and in no respect binding in fact or law upon the board of trustees.

(2) The board of trustees shall meet within a reasonable time subsequent to its receipt of the recommendations to consider those recommendations. The board of trustees shall afford the parties the right to oral and written argument with respect to whether they will dismiss the faculty member involved. The board of trustees may hold such other proceedings as they deem advisable before reaching their decision. A record of the proceedings at the board level shall be made and the final decision shall be based only upon the record made before the board and at the dismissal hearing, including the briefs and oral arguments. The board of trustees shall, within fifteen days following the conclusion of their review, notify the charged academic employee in writing of its final decision.

(3) Suspension of the academic employee by the president during the administrative dismissal proceedings involving him (prior to the final decision of the board of trustees) is justified if immediate harm to himself or others is threatened by his continuance. Any such suspension shall be without pay if dismissal is upheld.

(4) If the president of Peninsula College initiates a formal written recommendation that an academic employee be dismissed and the board of trustees decides to retain the employee, or if the trustees' decision to dismiss an employee is reversed by a court, all evidence concerning the dismissal will be removed from the employee's permanent personnel file if the reason for the denial of the recommendation was the president's failure to establish the facts which were the basis for the dismissal recommendation. If the facts which were the basis for the dismissal recommendation were shown to the satisfaction of the trustees and the courts but the dismissal recommendation was not followed because the trustees or the courts decided that the facts were not sufficient to warrant dismissal, the facts which were shown would be retained in the employee's permanent personnel file along with a record of the outcome of the dismissal proceedings. If the facts are to be retained in the employee's permanent personnel file, the employee will be given an opportunity to review the facts and to write an explanation which will be retained along with the findings of fact.

WAC 132A-128-090 Waiver of rights. Nothing in this reduction in force and dismissal policy shall be determined as an abrogation of or as a waiver of rights or procedures set forth under the Professional Negotiations Act or other applicable Washington state statutes or federal regulations.

WAC 132A-128-100 Evaluation policy. (1) The purpose of evaluation shall be to improve instruction and administrative services and to provide a basis for judgment regarding tenure.

[Title 132A WAC—page 8]

(2) Every faculty member and administrator shall be evaluated by an evaluation committee periodically as follows:

(b) Fall quarter of his second and/or third year;

(c) At five-year intervals thereafter, or earlier if requested by the person desiring evaluation.

(3) A review committee shall be elected each fall quarter and shall consist of the dean of instruction, two students selected by the board of control of Peninsula College, and two members from each of the academic divisions. The review committee from each area shall be nominated by the faculty in their respective area. Additional nominations for any area will be accepted from the faculty-at-large in an open meeting. The review committee shall then be elected by the entire faculty. The election shall be conducted during the fall quarter and members shall serve through the academic year.

(4) The review committee shall consider the recommendations of the evaluation committees and make recommendations regarding tenure to the president and to the board of trustees.

(5) The evaluation committee shall consist of one member selected by the evaluatee from the review committee; one member selected by the review committee; and the dean of instruction or his representative who shall serve as secretary of the committee.

(6) The evaluatee shall furnish the evaluation committee a written statement of the objectives of each course and a general outline of the methods used to achieve them, including but not limited to texts, outside readings, number and type of assignments, etc., a compilation of student questionnaire results, any other information deemed pertinent such as the results of standardized tests, etc.

(7) The evaluation committee shall consider additional information as the results of alumni questionnaires regarding their preparation here (the current visitation program would have to be supplemented by written questionnaires mailed periodically); in the case of vocational-technical students, questionnaires obtained from their employers; and any other information the committee deems pertinent.

(8) In the event the evaluatee is not a member of the teaching faculty, the committee shall review that person's area of responsibility and apply as many of the criteria as are appropriate.

(9) If a majority of the committee and the instructor both agree to the desirability, the committee (or its representatives) shall visit the instructor's classes or observe his techniques through appropriate media.

(10) The evaluation committee's judgment and recommendations shall be made available only to the faculty member for purposes of self-improvement, the president, and the review committee for the purpose of making recommendations regarding tenure to the president and the board of trustees.

(11) Ordinarily, probation shall be three years in length. A recommendation regarding tenure shall be submitted by the end of the fall term of the third year.

[Order 4, § 132A-136-005, filed 8/31/77.]

WAC 132A-136-010 Student publications. Publications covered by this policy shall be those providing laboratory experiences for instructional programs. The purpose of such publications shall be consistent with the purposes of Peninsula College as stated in the Community College Act. The primary purpose of student publications shall be to provide a learning experience for students. In addition,

- (1) The college newspaper shall
 - (a) Provide a source of information about current events, people, and other subjects of interest to the campus community.
 - (b) Provide a forum for the exchange of opinions through clearly identified editorial columns and letters to the editor.
 - (c) Provide opportunities for journalism students to gain experience under instructional supervision in reporting, writing, editing, page design, photography, and other skills involved in newspaper operations.
- (2) The literary magazine shall
 - (a) Provide a forum for students of Peninsula College to publish their creative efforts, both verbal and visual.
 - (b) Provide a magazine in which the school community and the public can read and view such creative efforts.
 - (c) Provide opportunities for members of the magazine's staff in soliciting material, choosing material, and editing and assembling a magazine.

The Peninsula College board of trustees, represented by the president of Peninsula College, is the publisher of all college-sponsored student publications. The president may appoint a faculty member to serve as the publisher's representative and advisor for each student publication in order to assure that such publications function according to policy requirements. The advisor's primary duty will be to counsel the student editors regarding ethical responsibility, content, and coverage, and technical and managerial aspects of composition and publication. Publications shall contain a statement that editorial opinions are not necessarily those of the institution or its members.

Except for the position of editor, students will not be paid for work on the college newspaper or magazine.

The trustees support the freedom of student publications to report news and to express opinion without fear of reprisal. At the same time, the trustees reserve the right, as publishers, to require that student publications observe the restraints imposed by journalistic ethics and the responsibility to avoid the printing of libelous statements and materials. The trustees, as publishers, also reserve the right to require that all publications include fair comment; observe high standards of writing, accuracy, and good taste; and that student publications avoid discrimination, obscenity, and invasion of privacy. Such rights shall be exercised by the trustees through their designated representative.

Publications committee membership: The college president shall appoint three faculty members and one administrator to the committee. The president of the associated students shall be invited to appoint three students, each of whom must be enrolled in a minimum of ten credit hours. Committee members shall serve through one college year, with terms beginning at the start of the fall quarter. They may be reappointed. Preference for one position shall be given to a college newspaper or literary magazine staff member.

Duties of the publications committee: Duties shall be advising on recommendations from the associated students for establishing or dissolving publications, reviewing decisions of the faculty advisors involving selection or dismissal of editors, and hearing disputes which require due process consideration.

Students who wish to edit the college newspaper or magazine will make written application through the advisor, preferably in the quarter before their duties begin. The advisor shall bring the applications for editor to the committee. Any applicant may attend in person. The advisor shall make a recommendation to the committee. If the committee agrees on that candidate, he/she will be appointed as editor. If the committee selects another candidate, that person shall be editor unless the advisor wishes to appeal the decision through the president. In such instance, the decision of the president shall be final.

If the committee receives a recommendation for the suspension or dismissal of an editor, the recommendation must be accompanied by written reasons. The committee must conduct a hearing confined to the issues contained in the written reasons accompanying the recommendation. This hearing must take place within two weeks after the notice of intent to suspend or dismiss the editor has been presented to the editor by the advisor. The hearing will be open to the public unless the editor charged with suspension and/or dismissal requests a closed hearing. Within three days of the hearing, the committee shall vote to determine whether the recommendation shall be followed. Appeals following such committee action shall be heard by the president. In such instances, the decision of the president shall be final.

Proposed name change of student publication: If the editor or staff of a college-sponsored publication wishes to change the name of the publication, he/she shall request a hearing from the publications committee. After the hearing is held, the committee shall vote to approve or deny the name change request. If approval is granted, the staff or editor will inform the associated student council and publicize the proposed titles in the college newspaper. One full week after publicizing, the associated student council shall hold a referendum election to make or deny the necessary bylaw change. The referendum may include more than one proposed name. A referendum for a name change for the literary magazine must be held in the fall quarter of the year the magazine is published.

Meetings: The committee shall elect a faculty or administrative representative to chair the committee and another to serve as secretary. The committee shall meet at least once during each quarter and additionally as deemed necessary by the chair.

Minutes: All minutes of publications committee sessions shall be provided to publications committee members, faculty advisors, and the college president, and shall be open to public inspection.

Grievance procedures: When a student feels that his/her rights relating to student publications have been violated, he/she shall provide the advisor with a written copy of his/her complaint. If there is no resolution to the student's satisfaction, the student may file a grievance with the publications committee in writing through the chairperson. The committee will meet within five school days and recommend a course of action. If there is no resolution to the student's satisfaction, the student may file his/her complaint with the president for a hearing. The complaint shall be filed within five days of the committee's decision. If there is still no resolution to the student's satisfaction, the student may appeal to the board of trustees at its next regularly scheduled meeting. The decision of the board is final.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 28B.50 RCW. 84-14-019 (Order 8, Resolution No. 84-09-031), § 132A-136-010, filed 6/26/84; Order 4, § 132A-136-010, filed 8/31/77.]

WAC 132A-136-015 Distribution of material on campus. (1) The administration has the responsibility to control and regulate the distribution of materials which might tend to injure, obstruct, or threaten the achievement of the institution's educational goal.

(2) Off-campus and nonstudent groups are asked to register with the dean of students before distributing of handbills, leaflets, or similar materials. The purpose of this would be to assure the group of facilities for distribution.

(a) Such materials must bear identification as to publishing agency and distributing organization or individual.

(b) The dean of students shall designate the area in the PUB that will be used for distribution.

(c) In some cases the nature of the materials is such that they will be placed at a central distribution center and not simply handed out, the problem here being one of litter.

(d) Failure to follow rules may resolve in arrest for trespass.

[Order 4, § 132A-136-015, filed 8/31/77.]

WAC 132A-136-020 Speakers policy. (1) Any faculty member or recognized student group may invite any speaker to the campus they wish to hear. The appearance of a speaker (invited) does not mean that the college, its staff or students endorse the speaker or his topic. Peninsula College is not required to take a stand either pro or con on the ideas forwarded by the speaker. A reasonable honorarium may be paid depending on the resources of the club or school. The college assumes no obligations to provide an audience. It is assumed that all invited speakers will observe the laws of the United States, the state of Washington, and the rules of Peninsula College. It is our hope that through the course of time controversial speakers will appear on our campus. Every effort will be made to provide both points of view.

(2) A faculty member, a faculty group, or a student group will inform the dean of students in writing, at least seven days prior to the proposed scheduled event, concerning the subject to be discussed and the names of all guest speakers who will be invited to the event. In order to assure that various aspects of an issue will be critically examined, invited speakers shall submit to questions from the audience immediately following their presentations.

[Order 4, § 132A-136-020, filed 8/31/77.]

(4) Activities of a commercial or partisan political nature will not be approved if they involve the use of promotional signs or posters on buildings, trees, walls, or bulletin boards or the distribution of samples outside rooms or facilities to which access may be granted.

(5) The facilities of the college are available to recognized student groups subject to these general policies.

(a) The board hereby delegates to the chief administrative officer of the district the authority to set up administrative procedures for proper review of the use of district facilities; to establish, within the framework of these policies, regulations governing such use; and to establish rental schedules where appropriate.

(b) Individuals who are not students or members of the faculty or staff and who violate these regulations will be advised of the specific nature of the violation, and, if they persist in the violation, will be requested to leave college property. Failure to comply with such a request will subject such individuals to arrest under provisions of RCW 9.83.060, trespass on another's land: "Every person who shall go upon the land of another or shall willfully go or remain upon his land after having been warned by the owner or occupant not to trespass thereon, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor." Members of the college community (students, faculty, and staff) who do not comply with these regulations will be reported to the appropriate college office or agency for action in accord with established district policies.

(c) Inquiries concerning the use of college facilities may be directed to the college administrative office.

(d) The use of exterior audio-amplifying equipment is permitted only in locations and at times that will not interfere with the normal conduct of district and college affairs.

(6) Permission to an off-campus organization for use of district and college facilities will be granted only under the express understanding and condition that such off-campus organization assumes full responsibility for any loss or damage resulting from such use and agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the district for any loss or damage or claims arising out of such use.

[Order 4, § 132A-136-025, filed 8/31/77.]

Complaints of violations of this regulation shall be made to any college administrator or other persons having control over any room, building, or other place where smoking is prohibited by these regulations. Complaints of violations of this regulation shall also be made by the complainant to the State Board of Health, P.O. Box 1788, Mail Stop 1-2, Olympia, Washington 98504.

No individual or other entity is permitted to display or sell products in the store unless net proceeds accrue to the store, and such display or sale has been approved by the manager; provided, however, that certain items may be displayed and sold through the bookstore for the associated student body or student clubs with proceeds accruing to the seller. A handling fee may be charged for service provided by the store.

(c) In the interest of equity to all students, special pricing and discounts shall not be available to any class of student or other consumer.

(d) Handling fees will be charged for special handling of books and other materials when normal markup does not cover bookstore expenses or provide normal margin of profit. Such fees may be reflected as a part of the purchase price or invoiced separately.

(3) During the first ten academic days of each quarter, the full purchase price less handling and/or defacing charge will be refunded on textbooks if a cash register receipt and drop slip or proof of withdrawal is presented. From the eleventh day through the end of the quarter, used textbook prices will be paid for all repurchased books. If the student does not complete 10 credits with a grade-point average of 2.00 or above during the probationary quarter, he/she is dismissed from the college. To apply to readmission to the college, the student must meet with an adviser or with a counselor to draft a letter of petition for readmission to submit to the scholastic standing committee. The committee, if necessary, will schedule a hearing with the student, review the records, and make a decision regarding readmission. It is understood that readmission to the college does not guarantee admission to all courses or any specific vocational program.

A course in which a grade of less than C is received may be repeated one time. Only the grade earned in a repeated course is used in computing the grade-point average. The student should initiate the request for a grade-point recomputation by a written request to the registrar. A person who has not been enrolled for a period of two or more years at Peninsula College may petition to have previously earned Peninsula College grades disregarded in computing a grade-point average.

WAC 132A-165-065 Transfer policies. Peninsula College has set its general education requirements for the associate of arts degree to conform with guidelines of the Washington intercollege relations council for direct transfer of AA degree credits. Senior colleges and universities also accept these guidelines or have separate agreements with Peninsula College to grant junior status. They consider their general education requirements fulfilled for students entering with the AA degree.

In general, Peninsula College routinely grants credit for baccalaureate-oriented courses completed at accredited institutions of higher education.

Regardless of institutional accreditation, Peninsula College does not grant credit for religion or theology courses that are sectarian in nature.

WAC 132A-180-005 General statement. (1) The college recognizes as part of the institutional educational mission the publication of certain kinds of materials which may be germane to educational processes or that may be classified as scholarly work. The college recognizes and encourages also the right of faculty, staff, and students to exercise individual initiative in creating materials which meet copyright specifications and which may generate royalty income for the creator when marketed.

(2) The generation of materials which may be copyrighted often extends beyond the initiative of individuals and may include the use of institutional equipment and facilities and financial support either from the institution or from outside sources. Accordingly, the college will maintain a policy which clarifies and protects the respective rights of faculty, staff, or student employees and the college by defining the types of materials which should be designated as "college-supported" or "college-sponsored" by establishing procedures for administering policy concerning these materials and by stating policy governing their ownership and use and the rights to income produced therefrom.

(3) It should be emphasized that this policy does not affect the personal ownership rights of faculty, staff, or student employees to books or other materials not specifically commissioned by the college or the preparation of which were not assisted in any significant way by a third party sponsor or the college. The creator is free to contract for publication, copyright his products in his own name, and receive royalties resulting from sales, providing the initiative for the work came from him and the college—including grants or contracts administered by the college—did not provide a significant portion of the resources utilized in production of materials.

[Order 2, § 132A-180-005, filed 12/8/76.]

WAC 132A-180-010 Scope of policy. This statement of policy shall apply to all faculty, staff, and student employees of the college and any group or groups of faculty or staff or student employees of the college or any combination thereof. Definitions: Wherever used herein, the term "individual" means any faculty, staff, or student employee or employees of the college or any group or groups of faculty, staff, or student employees of the college; "creator" means the author or producer of a creative work. Wherever used herein, the term "college copyright administrator" shall mean the college president.

[Order 2, § 132A-180-010, filed 12/8/76.]

WAC 132A-180-015 Materials subject to copyright.

(1) The following original creations, among others, ordinarily are classed as copyrightable:

(a) Books, journal articles, texts, glossaries, bibliographies, study guides, laboratory manuals, syllabi, tests, and proposals.

(b) Lectures, musical or dramatic compositions, and unpublished scripts.

(c) Films, film strips, charts, transparencies, and other visual aids.

(d) Video and audio tapes and cassettes.

(e) Live video or audio broadcasts.

(f) Programmed instruction materials.

(g) Computer programs.

(2) This policy does not apply to the following types of materials:

(a) Articles submitted to or published by scholarly and professional journals.

(b) Class notes produced in connection with a regularly-scheduled course of instruction.

WAC 132A-180-020 Rights to copyrightable materials.

(1) Individual effort: Any individual who produces copyright-eligible material as the result of individual initiative and without the significant assistance, support or sponsorship of the college shall retain full right of ownership, control, use, and disposition over the material. The individual shall be solely responsible under such circumstances for determining whether to copyright the material.

(2) College-supported individual effort: If the college provides significant support or assistance for an individual in producing materials eligible for copyright such as, but not limited to, the creator's use of college funds, equipment, facilities, materials, staff services, or other resources without personal charge to the individual, ownership of rights in the material shall be vested in the college subject to the conditions set forth in this policy. The college may copyright such materials when it appears that copyrighting will be in the best interest of the college and the individual.

Any individual who is preparing, or is planning to prepare copyright-eligible material under circumstances which may be considered college-supported, assisted, or sponsored, shall initiate an inquiry as to their status. A descriptive statement of the relevant facts shall be forwarded to the college copyright administrator. Thereafter, the college copyright administrator shall advise the individual as promptly as possible as to whether the materials should be regarded as college-supported or college-sponsored within the meaning of this policy. The college copyright administrator's decision in such cases will be considered as an advisory opinion subject to clarification and final decision when the work is completed. The final decision will be rendered in accordance with WAC 132A-180-025.

(3) College-sponsored effort: Ownership rights in college-sponsored materials shall be vested in the college subject to the conditions set forth in this statement of policy. Materials are college-sponsored if the individual has been commissioned in writing by the college or otherwise assigned to develop the materials and, in their production, has been authorized released time for which the individual will receive compensation from the college funds, including grant and contract funds administered by the college, the college copyright administrator may, in his sole discretion, elect to share with the individual, royalties resulting from sales of such materials: Provided, That the individual shall have no right to the sharing of such royalties in the absence of an express written agreement with the college copyright administrator.

(4) Efforts supported by outside agencies: Copyright-eligible materials produced under the sponsorship of agencies outside the college must contain specific provisions regarding the disposition of any royalties or materials generated through grants or contracts furnished by such agencies. Any individual accepting support from outside agencies should understand clearly their rights and obligations under these conditions. The college will not enter any performance contract with an outside agency which required an individual's participation unless royalty rights and the disposition of copyright-eligible materials are specified clearly, unless such disposition is acceptable to the college copyright administrator, and unless the conditions are compatible with college policies covering such activities.

Where the college is a party to sponsored projects resulting in production of copyrightable materials, the following conditions will apply:

- (a) Title to all materials will remain with the college.
- (b) The sponsor of the project may retain rights to royalty-exempt use of materials.
- (c) With college concurrence, parties to a sponsored grant or contract may agree to assignment of rights which may vary from (a) and (b).
- (d) The sharing of any royalty income other than under the terms of condition (a), will be specified under the terms of the original contract with the sponsoring agency and will be determined solely at the discretion of the college copyright administrator.
- (e) Individual participation in royalty income generated from copyrighted materials emanating from sponsored projects may be subject to sponsor regulations, but must be specified by contract between the college and the individual if different from condition (a) above.
- (f) As copyright administrator, the president of the college will retain final responsibility and authority for all decisions on royalty sharing and other copyright matters involving the college.

[Order 2, § 132A-180-020, filed 12/8/76.]

WAC 132A-180-025 Procedures. (1) In any instance where copyrightable materials are generated other than by individual initiative, i.e., partially or fully supported or sponsored by the college; or sponsored by an outside agency but involving college participation, the college copyright administrator will confer with the individual creator and other concerned parties to reach a copyright agreement which is acceptable to all parties and consistent with the college copyright policy.

(2) The college copyright administrator may appoint a copyright committee of up to three persons to advise him concerning matters related to ownership, disposition, and royalty distribution from copyrightable materials.

(3) All programs expected to generate copyrightable materials by other than individual effort must undergo prior review by the copyright administrator in accordance with WAC 132A-180-030(2) in order that a preliminary determination can be made regarding rights, disposition of materials, and distribution of income.

(4) Advance arrangements must be part of all project files; similarly, copies of all agreements will be maintained as a matter of record by the college copyright administrator.

(5) Any agreement made with individual creators may be reviewed and revised subsequently at the option of the college contract administrator.

(6) All contracts or agreements made with individuals or sponsoring agencies must contain reference to the college copyright policy as a basis for the agreement.

(7) In all instances, copyright agreements and decisions affecting those agreements will be formulated on the assumption that protection of the rights of individuals is of importance and that agreements should be designated to stimulate individual initiative.

(8) All agreements made under the college copyright policy and these procedures should be so designed to assure adequate controls and to fulfill college accountability for allocated public resources and the reimbursement of those resources where appropriate.

[Order 2, § 132A-180-025, filed 12/8/76.]

WAC 132A-180-030 Use of materials. (1) Two categories of use are differentiated for purposes of this policy:

(a) Internal use: Or, use by any unit of the college for instruction or other educational purposes.

(b) External use: Or, use by educational institutions other than the college, government, and other nonprofit institutions, and use resulting from lease or other contractual arrangements for commercial distribution of the materials.

(2) Use of college-supported or college-sponsored materials under this policy shall be subject to the following conditions:

(a) Internal use: 1) Use within the college does not require the approval of either the individual creator or the college unless advance approval is required by a prior written agreement; 2) as long as the individual creator of college-supported or college-sponsored materials remains employed by the college: a) He may request reasonable revisions of the materials prior to any instance of internal use, b) he may ask that the materials be withdrawn from internal use if necessary revisions are not feasible. The final decision regarding appropriate revision or withdrawal of materials will be made by the college copyright administrator. 3) If the individual creator terminates employment with the college, then the college retains the right to continue internal use of the college-supported or college-sponsored materials unless the individual and the college agree in writing on special conditions for subsequent internal use of the materials and the procedures for their revision.

(b) External use: Licensing or sale of college-supported or college-sponsored materials for external use shall be preceded by written agreement between the college and the individual creator specifying the conditions of use, and including provisions concerning the right of the individual creator to revise materials periodically or to withdraw them from use, subject to existing agreements, in the event revisions are not feasible.

[Order 2, § 132A-180-030, filed 12/8/76.]

WAC 132A-180-035 Payments to the individual creator. (1) Compensation for production activity: In general, the regular assignments of the individual should be adjusted to take into account the extra time required to develop or produce college-supported or college-sponsored materials. In these circumstances, additive compensation would not be paid to the individual creator. If recorded material is reused, it may be appropriate to adjust the regular assignments of the individual where he makes some continuing input or contribution to the repeated program.

(2) Income from sales or rentals:

(a) Both the college and the individual are entitled to a share of income from the licensing or sale of college-supported or college-sponsored materials: The college on the basis of salary, facilities, administrative support, or other resources devoted to the project; and the individual for creative activity which contributes to an enriched educational program. Where sponsored grant or contract funds are involved, the division of income will be subject to approval by the sponsoring agency. In some cases, the sponsor may require that all income be credited to the project account.

(b) Where college-supported or college-sponsored materials are to be sold or rented, the [and] subject to any limitations specified by granting agencies, the following guidelines pertaining to financial arrangements should be observed: 1) All incremental expenses related to the production and distribution of additional copies will be recovered from each sale or rental. 2) An appropriate fraction of the college's original production costs, as agreed upon between the individual and the college copyright administrator, should also be recovered from each sale or rental. 3) Subject to any limitations specified by outside granting agencies, a royalty of not more than ten percent of items 1) and 2) may be included in the sale or rental price. After production costs are fully recovered and after required distribution to a sponsoring agency, if any, the resultant royalty income will be divided equally between the individual and the college.

WAC 132A-180-040 Protection and liability. (1) The college copyright administrator shall investigate allegations of unauthorized use or copyright infringement of college-supported or college-sponsored materials and shall recommend appropriate action. If such action is started by the college, all costs of such action shall be borne by the college. All proceeds in excess of such costs shall be shared equally by the college and the individual creator, subject to sponsoring agency limitations, if any, when a grant or contract is involved.

(2) Before any use is made of college-supported or college-sponsored materials, the individual creator shall certify in writing to the college copyright administrator that, to the best of the individual creator's knowledge, the materials do not infringe on any existing copyright or other legal right. When there are allegations of violations of personal or property rights by the college or by the individual creator of college-supported or college-sponsored materials copyrighted by the college, the college shall assume responsibility for the defense of any action. However, the individual creator shall indemnify the college against any damages, charges, costs, expenses (including counsel fees), judgments, penalties, liabilities, or losses of any other kind or nature whatsoever, which are sustained or suffered by or secured against or imposed on the college as a result of the finding of any court or [of] law or any other decision-making tribunal that publication or use of the college-supported or college-sponsored material infringed on or violated any statutory or common law right or any other right of any character of any party whomsoever.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 28B.50, 28B.15 and 28B.10 RCW. 83-14-068 (Order 7, Resolution No. 83-09-041), § 132A-280-010, filed 7/5/83. Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 28B.50 RCW. 80-06-098 (Order 5, Resolution No. 80-04-016), § 132A-280-010, filed 5/30/80.]

WAC 132A-280-015 Definition of official records. Official records shall be defined as transcripts of Peninsula College credits attempted or completed; transcripts of credits from high schools and other collegiate institutions; the records of standard test scores; degree check lists; student interest inventories; academic advising documents; registration forms, and all personal information such as student addresses, telephone numbers, Social Security numbers, and other information ordinarily furnished by students to the college for administrative purposes.

Permanent official records shall be defined as transcripts of Peninsula College credits attempted or completed, together with all personal information normally a part of those transcripts. Subsequent to the last quarter of a student's registration at Peninsula College, all information other than Peninsula College transcripts shall be maintained in a separate file for a period of three years. At the end of the three-year period, such information shall be destroyed under the supervision of the college registrar. Official Peninsula College transcripts shall remain on file permanently in the college vault. Transcript information also shall be retained permanently in the computer file of the college student information system.

WAC 132A-280-020 Administrative safeguards. The college shall maintain reasonable administrative safeguards to ensure that confidential information as defined above is not disclosed to those who do not have an official right or who do not have written permission of the appropriate student to review such information.

(a) Any student who desires to review his or her official records shall be given reasonable access to those records under the supervision of the college registrar or the registrar's designee. The registrar shall have the responsibility for determining records access, under the terms of this policy, for any individual or agency requesting such information. Requests for information shall be made directly to the registrar.

(b) Other than those students to whom the official records pertain, no individual or agency allowed access to student records shall be authorized to release or convey information retrieved from such records to any other individual or agency not authorized by terms of this policy to possess such information by right of written authorization from the appropriate student or students. All written authorization shall be retained as part of the permanent student documentary record file.

(c) Official records shall not include information on any period of employment at Peninsula College of individuals who have been registered also as students. Access to student employment records and information shall be governed by the Peninsula College essential records protection policy, contained in chapter VI of the Peninsula College general policy and procedure manual.

(d) In addition to providing written consent to the registrar for individuals or agencies to review official records or to extract information from those records, a student may provide by written consent the right of individuals or agencies, including Peninsula College, to reveal confidential information for public or private use. Such consent may include admission to another educational institution; application for employment; scholarship and financial aid application; honorary recognition; or public information uses.
