However, nothing in these rules shall be deemed to prohibit the handicapped who are otherwise qualified.

[Order, § 132V-12-057, filed 10/28/68.]

WAC 132V-12-060 Authority. The specifications for any class as interpreted herein shall constitute the basis and source of authority for the tests to be included in an examination for the class and for the evaluation of the qualifications of applicants.

(3) Declination of appointment under such conditions as the eligible previously indicated he would accept.

(4) Failure to report for duty within the time prescribed by the appointing authority.

(5) Failure to maintain a record of his current address at the office of the director. For this purpose the return of a letter by the postal authorities, if properly addressed to the last address on record, shall be deemed sufficient grounds for such removal of the name from the eligible list.

This requisition shall state the class title, the number of positions to be filled, and other appropriate information. In addition, desirable or necessary special or outstanding qualifications for the position under consideration may be indicated and the reasons thereof. Eligibles shall be certified in strict order of standing on the appropriate list except in the cases where the director has determined that he should certify eligibles with special qualifications. In the latter case, eligibles meeting the special qualifications shall be certified in the order of their standing on the list. Any permanent employee who is adversely affected by such certification may appeal the action to the committee.

[Order, § 132V-12-270, filed 10/28/68.]

If more than one vacancy in the same class is to be filled by an organizational unit, he shall submit two more names of eligibles than there are vacancies. If there are not sufficient names on any single list to provide the proper number for certification, additional names may be certified from the list of next lower priority.

[Order, § 132V-12-276, filed 10/28/68.]

WAC 132V-12-279 Related lists. [Order, § 132V-12-279, filed 10/28/68.]

WAC 132V-12-281 Selection. The appointing authority shall return the list of names certified indicating his action on the certification, within a time limit set by the director from the date of certification.

When an appointing authority certifies to the director that there is urgent need to fill a position and no qualified eligibles exist, the director may authorize him to fill the position by provisionally appointing any person who meets the minimum requirements for the class of work. Such an appointment shall be terminated within six months or upon certification and appointment from an eligible list, whichever occurs first. No person shall receive more than one provisional appointment. No seniority shall be gained as the result of a provisional appointment except for continuance of seniority in a lower class upon provisional promotion to a higher class. During the time a position is filled by a provisional appointment, the director shall conduct a wide and continuous search for applicants for the position and conduct examinations for the same. If no other person applies within six months, the provisional appointee may be examined and appointed.

In situations wherein qualified eligibles are available but less than three required for certification, a provisional appointment of an eligible may be made. If the director is unable within thirty days of the effective date of the provisional appointment to attract the number of candidates necessary for full certification, the person holding the provisional appointment may be given a probationary appointment providing he passed the examination for the class.

[Order, § 132V-12-287, filed 10/28/68.]

At any time during the trial period the appointing authority may remove an employee whose performance does not meet the required standards, provided that he shall report the removal and the reasons thereof in writing before the effective date of separation to the director and to the employee concerned. Notice of two weeks will normally be given an employee who is removed. If more than three employees are removed successively from the same position during their trial service period, the director shall immediately investigate and determine whether the removals were because the employees did not meet the required standards and submit a report of his investigations together with his conclusions to the committee. If the employees were removed for reasons other than their performance did not meet the required standards, the board shall order their reinstatement. Dismissal during the probationary period is not, however, appealable by the employee.

[Order, § 132V-12-302, filed 10/28/68.]

At any time during the probationary period when an employee is about to be laid off because of reduction in force, the appointing authority, with the consent of the employee, may demote such employee in lieu of layoff if he is otherwise eligible and work is available in a lower class. The name of such an employee shall be restored to the lists from which it was removed at the time of appointment. The probationary period of an employee demoted in lieu of layoff during that period shall include the period of probation in the higher class. No demotion of this kind shall be made if it will result in the separation of any other employee with greater length of service.

An employee, serving as a result of appointment from a promotional list, who is removed from the new position for reasons other than misconduct or delinquency and who has [was] a permanent employee in another position in the classified staff service immediately prior to his promotional appointment, shall be reinstated in his former position or in one of like status and pay.

Seniority shall be measured by the period of unbroken service in the class and organizational unit, including authorized leaves of absence. Where two or more employees in the same class have equal seniority, layoff will be in alphabetical order of the last names of the employees affected.

(2) Transfer or voluntary demotion. In the event of a reduction in force, a permanent employee shall not be laid off while any probationary, provisional, or temporary employee is continued in a position of the same class. An employee in a higher class of a series of related classes with greater seniority shall be offered voluntary demotion to a lower class, provided he qualifies for the class and has greater seniority than the occupant of the position in the lower class.

(3) Laid off employees on layoff registers. The names of permanent and probationary employees who have been laid off shall be placed on the appropriate layoff list in accordance with these rules.

A written statement of the specified charges for any such action shall be furnished to the employee by certified mail and a copy filed with the director at least fifteen calendar days prior to the effective date of the action. No demotion shall be made as a disciplinary action unless the employee to be demoted is eligible for employment in the lower class, and shall not be made if any permanent employee in the lower class will be laid off by reason of the action. A permanent employee who is demoted shall have the right to appeal to the committee not later than thirty calendar days after the effective date of dismissal.

Hearings on such appeals shall be open to the public, except for cases in which the (committee) determines there is substantial reason for not having an open hearing, or in cases where the employee so requests, and shall be informal with technical rules of evidence not applying to the proceedings except the rules of privilege recognized by law. Both the employee and his appointing agency shall be notified reasonably in advance of the hearing and may select representatives of their choosing, present and cross-examine witnesses and give evidence before the (committee). Members of the (committee) may, and shall at the request of either party, issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum. All testimony shall be on oath administered by a member of the (committee). The board shall certify to the superior court the facts of any refusal to obey a subpoena, take the oath, or testify. The court shall summarily hear the evidence on such refusal and if the evidence warrants punish such refusal in the same manner and to the same extent as for contempt committed before, or in connection with the proceedings of, the hearing, including all testimony, recorded manually or by mechanical device, and exhibits; but it shall not be required to transcribe such record unless requested by the employee who shall be furnished thereof. Payment of the cost of a transcript used on appeal shall await determination of the appeal and shall be made by the employing agency if the employee prevails.

Section 19. Within thirty days after the conclusion of the hearing the (committee) shall make and fully record in its permanent records, findings of facts, conclusions of law when the construction of a rule, regulation or statute is in question, reasons for the action taken and its order based thereon, which shall be final subject to action by the court on appeal as hereinafter provided at the same time sending a copy of the findings, conclusions and order by registered mail to the employing agency and to the employee at his address as given at the hearing or to a representative designated by him to receive the same.

Section 20. (1) Within thirty days after the recording of the order and mailing thereof, the employee may appeal to the superior court of Thurston County, or, in the case of an employee of an institution of higher learning, to the superior court of the county in which such institution is located, on one or more of the grounds that the order was:

(b) Contrary to a preponderance of the evidence as disclosed by the entire record with respect to any specified finding or findings of facts;

(c) Materially affected by unlawful procedures;

(d) Based on violation of any constitutional provision, or

(e) Arbitrary or capricious.

(2) Such grounds shall be stated in a written notice of appeal filed with the court, with copies thereof served on the director of personnel or a member of his staff or a member of the (committee) and on the employing agency, all within the time stated.

(3) Within thirty days after service of such notice or within such further time as the court may allow, the (committee) shall transmit to the court a certified transcript, with exhibits, of the hearing; but by stipulation between the employing agency and the employee the transcript may be shortened, and either party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to such limitation may be ordered by the court to pay the additional cost involved. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the transcript.

Section 21. (1) The court shall review the hearing without a jury on the basis of the transcript and exhibits, except that in the case of alleged irregularities in procedure before the (committee) not shown by the transcript the court may order testimony to be given thereon. The court shall upon request by either party hear oral argument and receive written briefs.

(2) The court may affirm the order of the (committee), remand the matter for further proceedings before the (committee), or reverse or modify the order if it finds that the employee's objection thereto is well taken on any of the grounds stated. Appeal shall be available to the employee to the supreme court from the order of the superior court as in other civil cases.

Section 22. (1) An employee who is terminated from state service may request the (committee) to place his name on an appropriate reemployment list, and the (committee) shall grant this request where the circumstances are found to warrant reemployment.

(2) Any employee, when fully reinstated after appeal, shall be guaranteed all employee rights and benefits, including back pay, sick leave, vacation accrual, retirement and OASDI credits.

At this conference, the academic employee may request the presence of a union representative. The matter may be terminated by mutual consent at this point; but if an adjustment does not result, the case shall be referred to the president of the college. If the president of the college deems that the case warrants dismissal, the dismissal process shall be governed by the following procedure:

The notification shall be furnished directly to the employee during working hours, or shall be mailed by certified return receipt mail to the academic employee's last known address.

[(2)] A dismissal review committee will be established. The dismissal review committee shall be the same [as the] tenure review committee. If the tenure review committee is no longer available the dismissal review committee shall have the same membership as required for a tenure review committee for a probationary academic employee. The members representing the academic employees shall be selected by a majority of the academic employees and department chairmen acting as a body. The president shall deliver to the review committee the statement of charges provided to the employee.

WAC 132V-22-100 Procedure relating to reduction in force. (1) Definition: A reduction in force is a dismissal of faculty members without prejudice and for adequate cause which shall include lack of funds and necessary curtailment of work.

(2) Layoff units and procedure for assignment:

(a) A full-time academic employee's assignment to a layoff unit will be that within which his/her job responsibility is classified.

(b) For the duration of this agreement, the layoff units and assignments thereto, as agreed to in the union-management meeting of February 3, 1974, or the most recent updating of those layoff units and assignments thereto, shall be used as the basis of reduction in force. A person may be assigned to only one layoff unit even though he/she is teaching in more than one unit.

(c) The institutional seniority list, which is to be published annually by November 1st of each year, under article 9 of the negotiated agreement, will also include the layoff unit to which an academic employee is currently assigned.

(3) Alternatives to reduction in force: Alternatives to reduction in force shall be implemented by management prior to the initiation of reduction in force procedures. The application of these alternatives will be handled through the appropriate division and department. A full-time employee will be given sections normally staffed by part-time employees before being offered other alternatives to reduction in force. Such alternatives may include, but not be limited to, those in article 6.00 of the negotiated agreement.

An academic employee's agreement to one or any combination of the above-referenced alternatives, or any other alternative agreed to, will be submitted in writing to the college president.

(4) Basis for reduction: If the number of full-time contracted academic employees is to be reduced, the college president, with advice from the appropriate supervising administrators and department chairmen shall determine in the case of each affected department or program what courses and services are most necessary to maintain quality education and services at Tacoma Community College. In making his determination on reductions, the college president shall consider the following factors:

(a) Budget limitations, lack of funds, change in instructional or service programs, or lack of students participating in particular programs or services.

(b) The enrollment, the trends in enrollment, and their effect upon the department or program.

(c) The present and anticipated service needs of the college and its students and prospective students.

(d) Information concerning faculty and administrative vacancies occurring through retirement, resignation, and professional and other leave.

Before arriving at proposed reduction in force decisions, the president will confer with representatives of the designated faculty organization and the student government regarding proposed reduction plans and will consider their opinions in the matter.

(5) Order of reduction: If a reduction is determined to be necessary within a layoff unit, the employment needs of the department or program shall be the primary basis for identifying the order of reduction in force. First consideration will also be given to seniority as defined in article 9.00 of the negotiated agreement, provided that such consideration results in the retention of qualified academic employees to replace and perform the necessary duties of the personnel reduced. In determining what duties an academic employee is qualified to perform, the president will consider, but not be limited to:

(a) General professional experience;

(b) Actual work experience in the area under consideration; and

(c) Educational background.

(6) Right to recall: A full-time faculty member whose contract is not renewed as a result of this reduction in force procedure shall have the right to recall to any faculty position, either a newly created position or a vacancy: Provided, That the individual is determined to be qualified for such position by the president of the college following recommendations by the supervising dean, department chairman and/or program director. The right of recall shall extend two years from date of layoff.

(7) Reduction in force review committee: A reduction in force review committee shall be composed of three members of the faculty who shall be selected by a majority of the faculty and faculty department heads acting in a body, one administrator who shall be appointed by the college president, and one student representative who shall be chosen by the student association of the college in such a manner as the members thereof shall determine.

(8) Preliminary procedure for reduction in force: When reason arises to dismiss an academic employee as a result of reduction in force, the initial step shall be for the appropriate administrative officer to discuss the matter with him/her in personal conference. At this conference, the academic employee may request the presence of a union representative. The matter may be terminated by mutual consent at this point; but if an adjustment does not result, the case shall be referred to the president of the college. If the president of the college still deems dismissal to be necessary, the dismissal process shall be governed by the following procedure:

(a) At least thirty calendar days prior to the convening of the dismissal review committee, the union and the academic employee who is threatened with dismissal by the appointing authority shall be furnished with written notice which shall include grounds for dismissal, a statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction of the president's notice, and information of the employee's right of appeal. The notification shall be furnished directly to the employee during working hours, or if this is not possible because of the absence of the employee, it shall be mailed by certified return receipt mail to the academic employee's last known address.

(b) A reduction in force review committee will be established. The reduction in force review committee shall be the same as the tenure review committee. If the tenure review committee is no longer available, the reduction in force review committee shall have the same membership as required for a tenure review committee for a probationary academic employee. The members representing academic employees shall be selected by a majority of the academic employees and department chairmen acting as a body. The president shall deliver to the reduction in force review committee the statement of charges provided to the employee.

(c) In the event of a reduction in force, the reduction in force review committee shall conduct a hearing. At the hearing, the academic employee affected shall have the opportunity to be represented by counsel, to respond to and present evidence and arguments on all issues involved, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. At the hearing, the academic employee shall have the opportunity for his counsel to protect his due process rights to respond to and present evidence and arguments on all issues involved and to examine and cross-examine witnesses.

(d) Subsequent steps in the procedure for reduction in force are specified in WAC 132V-22-200 of these rules.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13) and 28B.50.852. 81-08-002 (Order 6-81, Resolution No. 81-6), § 132V-22-100, filed 3/19/81; Order 16, § 132V-22-100, filed 12/28/73; Order 14, § 132V-22-100, filed 6/29/73.]

WAC 132V-22-200 Hearing procedure relating to dismissal for cause and reduction in force. (1) The required notice of dismissal for cause or reduction in force to the affected academic employee(s) shall include notice of the right of a hearing before the review committee and that if the affected employee does not request such a hearing, from the president of the college within ten days after the effective date of separation from the payroll. Management will request a written determination from the employee as to whether he/she wishes to avail themselves of the right to a hearing. If after five additional days the academic employee fails to respond, this failure to request a hearing shall constitute acceptance of dismissal and waiver of any right to a hearing under the provisions of this negotiated agreement.

(2) In the event the president receives a request for a hearing, all parties shall be afforded an opportunity for a hearing after not less than twenty days' notice. The notice shall include:

(a) A statement of the time, place, and nature of the proceeding;

(b) A statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held;

(a) Make all rulings regarding the evidentiary and procedural issues presented during the course of the dismissal review committee hearings;

(b) Meet and confer with the members of the dismissal review committee and advise them in regard to procedural and evidentiary issues considered during the course of the committee's deliberations;

(4) Opportunity shall be afforded all parties to respond and present evidence and argument on all [issues] [issued] involved, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses.

(5) Oral proceedings shall be transcribed, if necessary, for the purposes of rehearing or court reviews. A copy of the record or any part thereof shall be transcribed and furnished to any party to the hearing upon request [therefor] [thereof] and payment of the costs thereof.

[(6)] The record in a contested case shall include:

(a) All documents, motions, and intermediate rulings;

(b) Evidence received or considered;

(c) A statement of matters officially noticed;

WAC 132V-112-012 Contents of notice of election—Designation of chief election officer—Duties. Any organization whose name shall appear on the ballot in the election shall also be entitled to have one inspector present at each polling place to observe the conduct of the election. Each organization shall also be entitled to have an inspector present at the college district office for the counting of the ballots cast. Such inspectors must refrain from electioneering during the election. They may challenge the eligibility of any person to vote in the election, and, upon such challenge, the ballot of that person shall be treated as provided in WAC 132V-112-024 and 132V-112-036 through 132V-112-048. Each academic employee may cast only one ballot in any election held pursuant to these rules, and the presence of a signature beside the name of an employee desiring to vote shall automatically constitute grounds for challenge to his right to cast a ballot in an election.

[Order 7, § 132V-112-024, filed 6/27/72.]

WAC 132V-112-027 Incorrectly marked ballot. Any voter who incorrectly marks his ballot may obtain a new ballot by returning the incorrectly marked ballot to the chief election officer's inspector. WAC 132V-112-036 Challenged ballot—Procedure. A challenged ballot shall be placed in an envelope bearing no identifying marks. It shall then be placed in another envelope upon which shall be written the name of the employee desiring to cast the ballot, the reasons for which the ballot was challenged, by whom it was challenged, and the polling place at which it was challenged, and the envelope shall be sealed and initialed by the election inspectors.

[Order 7, § 132V-112-036, filed 6/27/72.]

WAC 132V-112-039 Employees present entitled to vote—Sealing ballot box—Unused ballots. At the time for closing the polls, all academic employees present and waiting at the polling place shall be entitled to vote. The ballot box shall then be sealed. All unused ballots shall then be counted in the presence of election inspectors.

[Order 7, § 132V-112-039, filed 6/27/72.]

WAC 132V-112-042 Election inspectors duties after voting has terminated. When all voting has terminated at a polling place, the election inspectors will bring to the chief election officer at the community college district office the following: 1) Signed voting list of eligible academic employees, 2) all unused ballots, 3) all challenged ballots, and 4) the sealed ballot box containing all ballots cast.

[Order 7, § 132V-112-042, filed 6/27/72.]

The challenged ballots previously placed in separate envelopes shall be placed in a sealed envelope marked "challenged ballots" and sent along with the tally sheet to the chief election officer. The challenged ballots shall not be opened or counted unless the counting of such ballots might affect the results of the election. If the challenged ballots might affect the results of the election, the chief election officer shall conduct an investigation into, or if necessary a formal hearing on, the validity of the challenges made. If he concludes that the challenge was properly made, that ballot shall be excluded from the count. Otherwise, such ballot shall be counted as cast.

[Order 7, § 132V-112-045, filed 6/27/72.]

WAC 132V-112-048 Counting of ballots—Procedure—Certification of results of election—Retention of ballots—Signed voting lists. When ballot boxes from all voting places have been received by the chief election officer's inspector, he shall open them and thoroughly mix all ballots cast so that it is impossible to identify the polling place from which any particular ballot came. The ballots cast shall be separated into the categories as they have been cast for organizations participating in the election, for no organization, and void ballots which are unintelligible or for an organization not participating in the election. The ballots in these categories shall be counted by the chief election officer with the assistance of such of his election inspectors as shall be necessary in the presence of the inspectors for the organizations participating in the election. After the ballots have been so counted each inspector designated by the organizations to serve at the community college district office shall indicate by his signature upon the tally sheet that he agrees with the count made, or in case of disagreement, he shall write a short statement of his grounds for disagreement with the count. The chief election officer shall certify to the board of trustees the results of the election within forty-eight hours after the polls have been closed. The used ballots, the unused ballots, the challenged ballots, and the signed voting lists of eligible academic employees shall be kept by the chief election officer or some person designated by him for one year after the election.

WAC 132V-112-051 Electioneering within the polls forbidden. No election signs, banners, or buttons shall be permitted in the room in which the balloting takes place, nor shall any person in that room discuss the advantages or disadvantages of representation by an organization whether on the ballot or otherwise, nor shall any person in that room engage in any other form of electioneering.

[Order 7, § 132V-112-051, filed 6/27/72.]

WAC 132V-112-054 Contest of election—Time for filing objections—Investigation of objections. Any organization, the name of which appears on the ballot, or any academic employee may within five days after the certification of the results of an election under the provisions of WAC 132V-112-048, file objections to the conduct of the election with the chief election officer designated by the Board of Trustees pursuant to WAC 132V-112-012. The election officer shall investigate such objections and, if necessary, hold formal hearings thereon. He shall report thereon to the board of trustees. If the Board of Trustees shall conclude that the conduct objected to may have improperly affected the results of the election, it shall order a new election. Otherwise, it shall overrule the objections and the results of the election shall be considered final. Objections to the conduct of the election which are not filed in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be waived and of no effect.

[Order 7, § 132V-112-054, filed 6/27/72.]

An organization of academic employees which receives a majority of the valid votes cast in an election held in accordance with WAC 132V-112-003 through 132V-112-063 shall be recognized as representing the academic employees of Community College District No. 22 pursuant to chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. If more than one organization of academic employees has participated in an election and a majority of the valid votes cast has not been either for representation by one of the organizations or for no representation, a run-off election shall be held. In such a run-off, only those two choices receiving the highest number of valid votes cast in the initial election shall appear on the ballot.

[Order 7, § 132V-112-060, filed 6/27/72.]

In the course of making such a decision, the dean may only consider the affidavits or oral testimony of persons who have alleged that the student charged has committed a violation of WAC 132V-120-050 and the oral testimony and affidavits submitted by the student charged.

WAC 132V-120-290 Grievance procedures. Internal review and consultative processes have proven to be a desirable means of resolving problems. If a student believes he or she has been unfairly treated by a faculty member, member of the college staff, or administrator, the student is encouraged to resolve the complaint with the individual toward whom the grievance is directed. The student shall take this action within five instructional days. If the complaint is not resolved, the student may lodge a formal grievance according to the following procedures:

Step 1: The student may, within ten instructional days following the incident, present his/her complaint in writing to the appropriate division manager. The student shall present a written, signed statement of the nature of the grievance, a summary of actions taken by the student to resolve the grievance up to that point, and any proposed solution to the problem the grievant may wish to offer.

Step 2: Within ten instructional days of receiving the grievance, the appropriate division manager shall hold a meeting to hear the complaint. It shall be at the discretion of the division manager to determine whether he/she will meet with the grievant and the person to whom the complaint has been directed separately or in a joint meeting.

At this step and all subsequent steps in the grievance procedure, the grievant may elect to be represented by an attorney in preparing and presenting the grievance. The grievant shall notify the appropriate division manager at least five instructional days in advance of such action. In such cases, the college may choose to be assisted by an assistant attorney general.

Following the meeting or meetings, and within ten instructional days, the division manager will report his/her findings and the actions, where appropriate, to be implemented to resolve the grievance in writing to the grievant and the person to whom the complaint is directed.

Step 3: If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved in Step 2, either the grievant or the person to whom the complaint is directed has the right to request a hearing conducted by the appropriate vice-president/dean.

The vice-president/dean will convene a hearing committee no later than ten instructional days from the time of the request. The committee will be chosen and appointed no later than October 15 of each year. The committee shall consist of the following membership: Three student representatives, chosen by the senate of the associated students; two faculty or staff representatives (dependent upon the nature of the grievance), appointed by the vice-president/dean; two administrators, appointed by the president.

A quorum shall consist of no less than three members, provided that such quorum include at least one student, one faculty or staff member, and one administrator.

The committee shall elect its own chairperson for each case brought before it. The committee shall hear testimony regarding the grievance, deliberate, and decide the issue by majority vote. The hearing may be recessed and reconvened at a time convenient to all parties for the purpose of presenting witnesses, depositions, affidavits or other materials which the division manager/vice-president/dean deems vital to a fair resolution of the grievance.

Step 4: Within three instructional days after concluding the hearing process, the committee will render a decision by majority vote and so inform all parties to the grievance of that decision. Findings of fact will be included when informing all parties.

Step 5: Should any of the parties to the grievance find the hearing committee's solution to the grievance to be unsatisfactory, the decision may be appealed to the president of the college, provided that any such appeal be presented in writing within five instructional days following notification of the committee's decision. Such an appeal shall clearly and specifically set forth the reasons upon which the appeal is based.

Within five instructional days of receiving the appeal request, the college president will review the record of the hearing and the appeal and will provide his/her final decision in writing to both the grievant and the person to whom the complaint is directed. Evidence not in the record will not be considered by the president.

WAC 132V-120-300 Final decision regarding student grievances. The written findings of the presidential appeal will be considered final. No further intra-institutional appeal exists.

If the findings indicate that the person against whom the complaint is lodged engaged in sexual harassment or other discriminatory acts, disciplinary proceedings may be commenced against the person pursuant to appropriate procedures, depending on whether the person is a member of the classified staff, administrative exempt, or faculty.

132V-300-010	Statement of policy.
132V-300-020	Jurisdiction.
132V-300-030	Grievance procedure.

WAC 132V-300-010 Statement of policy. Tacoma Community College is covered by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibiting sex discrimination in education and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 prohibiting discrimination on the basis of disability. The college is committed to protecting the rights and dignity of each individual in the campus community and so will not tolerate discrimination of any kind, at any level.

Further, it is the policy of Tacoma Community College to provide an environment in which employees can work free from sexual harassment or sexual intimidation. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination. As such it is a violation of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments.

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when:

(1) Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or academic standing; or

(2) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or academic decision affecting such individual; or

(3) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or educational environment.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). 93-20-028, § 132V-300-010, filed 9/27/93, effective 10/28/93; 93-03-078, § 132V-300-010, filed 1/19/93, effective 2/19/93.]

WAC 132V-300-020 Jurisdiction. This chapter shall serve as a Title IX/Section 504 grievance for all employees of Tacoma Community College including classified staff, faculty, and administrators, applicants for employment; and enrolled students and applicants for admission.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13), 93-03-078, § 132V-300-020, filed 1/19/93, effective 2/19/93.]

WAC 132V-300-030 Grievance procedure. Internal review and consultative processes have proven to be a desirable means of resolving problems. Any employee, applicant for employment, enrolled student, or applicant for admission to Tacoma Community College who believes he/she has been discriminated against on the basis of sex or on the basis of a disability is encouraged to resolve the complaint with the individual believed to have committed the discriminatory act. If the complaint is not resolved, the individual may lodge a formal institutional grievance according to the following procedures:

(a) Step 1: Official hearing.

(i) Sexual discrimination/harassment complaints shall be lodged with the Title IX officer or the affirmative action officer. Disability discrimination complaints shall be lodged with the 504 officer or the affirmative action officer. The complainant shall request a meeting with the designated college officer as the first step in the grievance process.

(ii) To request an official hearing, the complainant shall file a written complaint with the designated college officer describing the specific grievance(s), including dates, times, places, circumstances, and any witnesses. A copy of the written complaint will be provided to the person to whom the grievance is directed.

(iii) Within ten instructional days of receiving the written request, the designated college officer shall arrange a meeting to hear the complaint. It shall be at the discretion of the complainant to determine whether the officer will meet with the complainant and the person to whom the complaint has been directed separately or in a single meeting. If the complainant requests a single meeting, unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties, attendance shall be limited to the complainant, the person to whom the complaint is directed, and the college officer, who shall chair the meeting. Either the complainant or the person to whom the complaint is directed may call witnesses at the discretion of the person presiding.

At this step and all subsequent steps in the grievance procedure, the complainant may elect to be represented by an attorney in preparing and presenting the grievance. The complainant shall notify the appropriate college officer at least five instructional days in advance of such action. In such cases, the college may choose to be assisted by an assistant attorney general.

(iv) Following the hearing and within thirty calendar days of receiving the written request, the college officer will report his/her findings in writing to both the complainant and the person to whom the complaint has been directed. This decision is final absent appeal to the college president.

(v) The affirmative action officer and Title IX office are to be informed of any sex discrimination/harassment complaint or 504 complaint lodged, as well as the resolutions of such complaints.

(b) Step 2: Presidential appeal.

(i) Either the complainant or the person to whom the complaint is directed has a right to present a statement to the college president appealing the findings of the designated college officer.

(ii) The request must be made in writing within ten days of written notification of the results of the official hearing.

(iii) Within ten instructional days of receiving the appeal request, the college president or the president's designee will review the record of the hearing and the appeal and report the findings in writing to both the complainant and the person to whom the complaint is directed.

(iv) The written findings of the presidential appeal will be considered final. No further intra-institutional appeal exists.

(v) If the findings indicate that the person against whom the complaint is lodged engaged in sexual harassment or other discriminatory acts, disciplinary proceedings may be commenced against the person pursuant to appropriate procedures, depending on whether the person is a student, a member of classified staff, administrative exempt, or faculty.

If desired, inquiries or appeals beyond the institutional level may be directed to:
