Chapter 359-09 WAC

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION (Effective January 1, 1996)

WAC

359-09-010	Purpose.
359-09-012	Guidelines.
359-09-015	Governor's affirmative action policy committee.
359-09-020	Required submissions.
359-09-030	Reasonable accommodation.
359-09-040	Department of personnel.
359-09-050	Testing—Supplemental certification.

WAC 359-09-010 Purpose. (Effective January 1, 1996.) The purpose of this chapter is to provide guidance to state agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards to comply with the provisions of chapters 41.06, 49.60, and 49.74 RCW, and executive orders, which provide for affirmative action and equal employment opportunity. Equal employment opportunity is equal opportunity for all in employment matters; affirmative action is good faith efforts designed to correct the effects of past discrimination. Agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards will take measures to remove barriers to equal employment opportunity, to provide for affirmative action where underutilization exists, and to monitor progress toward achieving affirmative action goals through internal affirmative action programs.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW and RCW 41.06.150. 94-23-136, § 359-09-010, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-06-063, § 359-09-010, filed 3/2/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-09-012 Guidelines. (Effective January 1, 1996.) State agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards shall use the applicable guidelines in the development, implementation, and monitoring of affirmative action programs. References to affirmative action guidelines in this chapter, unless noted differently, shall mean state guidelines for state agencies, state guidelines for higher education institutions, or the regional standard affirmative action format.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW and RCW 41.06.150. 94-23-136, § 359-09-012, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-06-063, § 359-09-012, filed 3/2/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-09-015 Governor's affirmative action policy committee. (Effective January 1, 1996.) The governor's affirmative action policy committee shall have jurisdiction for the development and oversight of affirmative action plans, including approving affirmative action plans for state agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards for implementation strategies and goal progress.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW and RCW 41.06.150. 94-23-136, § 359-09-015, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-06-063, § 359-09-015, filed 3/2/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-09-020 Required submissions. (Effective January 1, 1996.) State agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards shall submit to the department of personnel policy statements, workforce profiles, and/or affirmative action plans and updates. The content and submission requirements shall be in accordance with the applicable guidelines. Policy statements will include statements on equal employment opportunity, affirmative action, sexual harassment, and reasonable accommodation.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW and RCW 41.06.150. 94-23-136, § 359-09-020, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-06-063, § 359-09-020, filed 3/2/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-09-030 Reasonable accommodation. (Effective January 1, 1996.) State agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards will provide reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities as required by state and federal law. Reasonable accommodation may include, but is not limited to, accommodation in application procedures, testing, and modifications or adjustments to a job, work method, or work environment that make it possible for a qualified person with a disability to perform the essential functions of a position.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW and RCW 41.06.150. 94-23-136, § 359-09-030, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-06-063, § 359-09-030, filed 3/2/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-09-040 Department of personnel. (Effective January 1, 1996.) The department of personnel is responsible for administering the state's affirmative action program. It provides technical assistance in the development and implementation of affirmative action plans and programs to state agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards. In keeping with these responsibilities, and per applicable guidelines and state and federal laws, the department of personnel shall:

(1) Establish guidelines to assist in developing and implementing affirmative action plans.

(2) Provide the data essential in conducting required availability analysis.

(3) Provide technical review and approval of policy statements and affirmative action plans and updates. Submit technically approved plans and updates to the governor's affirmative action policy committee.

(4) Monitor the department's recruitment, testing, and training and career development programs for adverse impact, as necessary.

(5) Upon request of state agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards, assist in the recruitment of protected group members, including target recruitment when the representation of protected group members is less than their availability.

(6) Review the progress of state agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards, in meeting goals and addressing problems identified in affirmative action plans and programs.

(7) Review state-wide employment trends such as appointment, promotion, transfer, terminations, and formal disciplinary actions for adverse impact, as necessary.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW and RCW 41.06.150. 94-23-136, § 359-09-040, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-06-063, § 359-09-040, filed 3/2/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-09-050 Testing—Supplemental certification. (Effective January 1, 1996.) (1) The department of personnel will make reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities during test procedures.

(2) When a state agency, higher education institution, or related board has established affirmative action goals for classified employees in accordance with the applicable guidelines:

(a) Members of underutilized groups may be added anytime to registers and eligible lists as provided in chapter 359-26 WAC.

(b) When available, additional names of eligibles who meet applicable affirmative action criteria shall be certified in accordance with chapter 359-26 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW and RCW 41.06.150. 94-23-136, § 359-09-050, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-06-063, § 359-09-050, filed 3/2/94, effective 1/1/95.]

Chapter 359-39 WAC

HUMAN RESOURCES TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

(Effective January 1, 1996)

WAC 359-39-010 Purpose. (Effective January 1, 1996.) The purpose of this chapter is to establish rules and assign responsibilities for providing training and development to employees of state agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards. The objective of these rules is to provide opportunity for development of occupational or professional skills of employees to ensure the full utilization of the state's human resources.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 41.06.150 and chapter 41.06 RCW. 94-23-136, § 359-39-010, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-13-091, § 359-39-010, filed 6/14/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-39-020 Definitions. (Effective January 1, 1996.) (1) Career development. The progressive development of employee capabilities to facilitate productivity, job satisfaction, and upward mobility through work assignments as well as education and training that are both state-sponsored and are achieved by individual employee efforts, all of which shall be consistent with the needs and obligations of the state and its agencies, higher education institutions and related boards.

(2) Career planning. A process designed to provide opportunities for employee career growth through job experience, training and/or continuing education.

(3) Human resource training and development plan. Each organization's written methods or design that specifies opportunities for training and development of occupational or professional skills of employees to ensure the full utilization of the state's human resources.

(4) Training. Activities designed to develop job-related knowledge and skills of employees.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 41.06.150 and chapter 41.06 RCW. 94-23-136, § 359-39-020, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-13-091, § 359-39-020, filed 6/14/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-39-030 Assignment of responsibilities. (Effective January 1, 1996.) The responsibility for human resource training and development is shared by the department of personnel, other agencies, higher education institutions, related boards, and employees.

(1) Each agency, higher education institution, and related board is responsible for:

(a) Developing a human resource training and development plan;

(b) Submitting a summary of the human resource training and development plan, including estimated costs, to the director or director's designee of the department of personnel; and

(c) Providing employee orientation, required job-related training, and assistance with career planning.

(2) Each employee is responsible for participating in training associated with maintenance of required licenses and certifications, required training, and, if desired, personal career planning.

(3) The director or director's designee of the department of personnel shall support human resource training and development by:

(a) Providing training which is interagency and/or intrasystem in scope;

(b) Consulting with agencies and higher education institutions and related boards in their human resource training and development activities, upon request;

(c) Providing guidelines for human resource training and development planning and evaluation; and

(d) Reviewing human resource training and development plans to promote intrasystem sharing of resources for training and career development.

(e) Providing for the evaluation of training and career development programs and plans based on the minimum standards established in WAC 359-39-050.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 41.06.150 and chapter 41.06 RCW. 94-23-136, § 359-39-030, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-13-091, § 359-39-030, filed 6/14/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-39-040 Assignments for career development purposes. (Effective January 1, 1996.) (1) Agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards may make the following planned training assignments for employee career development without incurring reallocation or compensation obligations:

(a) Performance of responsibilities outside the current job classification on a time-limited basis.

(b) Rotational or special project assignments.

(2) The employee and the employer(s) shall mutually agree in writing, including time limits, to assignments identified in (1)(a) and (b) of this section.

(3) Assignments of responsibilities outside of the current job classification for purposes other than identified in (1) of this section are subject to classification and compensation provisions elsewhere in these rules.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 41.06.150 and chapter 41.06 RCW. 94-23-136, § 359-39-040, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-13-091, § 359-39-040, filed 6/14/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-39-050 Human resource training and development plan—Criteria—Availability. (Effective January 1, 1996.) (1) Each agency, higher education institution, and related board shall prepare a human resource training and development plan, with revision as needed. The plan shall be based on an assessment of the organization's human resource training and development needs. The plan shall state the policies and objectives for human resource training and development and the policies shall address, at a minimum, the following:

(a) Identification of the position(s) responsible for employee training and development.

(b) Criteria for employee eligibility.

(c) Criteria for employees' leave, release time, or compensation while participating in human resource training and development activities.

(d) Criteria for educational leave.

(e) Tuition reimbursement or fee waiver policy.

(f) Mandated training in accordance with state and federal regulations.

(g) Provisions for entry-level management/supervisory training.

(h) Provisions for the assessment of employee training and development needs.

(i) Provisions for the involvement of employees in the development of training policies and plans.

(j) Provisions for the evaluation of the training and development programs.

(k) Provisions for assignments for career development as described in WAC 359-39-040(1) and approval of such assignments by the immediate supervisor and the organization's designee(s). The designee(s) shall be identified in the plan.

(2) Copies of the human resource training and development plan shall be made available to employees upon request.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 41.06.150 and chapter 41.06 RCW. 94-23-136, § 359-39-050, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-13-091, § 359-39-050, filed 6/14/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-39-090 Required entry-level management/supervisory training—Agency. (Effective January 1, 1996.) (1) Each agency shall require employees appointed to a supervisory or management position to successfully complete an entry-level supervisory or management training course as approved by the director of the department of personnel. Employees shall be enrolled in this training within nine months of the date of their appointment, or if training is not available, as soon thereafter as it becomes available. When training opportunities are available, the agency may suspend the entry-level training requirement, for up to a maximum of an additional six months.

(2) The director or director's designee of the department of personnel shall establish criteria by which such training is approved or considered equivalent.

(3) An agency may waive the requirement for entry-level training in cases where an employee has occupied a designated supervisory or management position for at least one year, prior to the present appointment, and has demonstrated experience and competence as a substitute for training.

(a) The agency shall advise an affected employee in writing of waiver to this training.

(b) The record of such waiver shall be placed in the employee's personnel file and shall be reported following procedures outlined by the department of personnel.

(4) Each agency shall designate individual positions, or groups of positions, as being supervisory or entry-level management positions. Criteria for such designations shall be published by the department of personnel.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 41.06.150 and chapter 41.06 RCW. 94-23-136, § 359-39-090, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-13-091, § 359-39-090, filed 6/14/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-39-140 Employee attendance at training. (Effective January 1, 1996.) (1) Agencies, higher education institutions, and related boards may require employees to attend training which is job related or meets an identified employer need. Such required attendance during and/or outside of working hours shall be considered time worked and compensated in accordance with these rules.

(2) Employee attendance, either on approved leave or outside of working hours, at training that is not required shall be voluntary and not considered time worked.

(3) Employers may provide release time for non-required training.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 41.06.150 and chapter 41.06 RCW. 94-23-136, § 359-39-140, filed 11/23/94, effective 1/1/96; 94-13-091, § 359-39-140, filed 6/14/94, effective 1/1/95.]

WAC 359-48-040 State internship program—Eligibility—Duration of internship. (Effective January 1, 1996.) The state internship program shall consist of two individual internship programs:

(1) An undergraduate internship program for students working toward an undergraduate degree. In addition, any state employee, whether working toward a degree or not, shall be eligible to participate in the program upon the written recommendation of the head of the employee's agency or head of the employee's department at institutions of higher education. Persons selected to participate in the undergraduate internship program shall serve internships of three to six months.

(2) An executive fellows program for students who have successfully completed at least one year of graduate-level work and have demonstrated a substantial interest in public sector management. In addition, any state employee, whether working toward an advanced degree or not, shall be eligible to participate in the program upon the written recommendation of the head of the employee's agency or head of the employee's department at an institution of higher education. Positions in this program shall be as assistants or analysts at the mid-management level or higher. Persons selected to participate in the executive fellows program shall serve internships for one to two years.
