WAC 112-10-010 Purpose. The office of the family and children's ombudsman (OFCO) was established to promote public awareness and understanding of family and children's services, to identify systems issues, to monitor and ensure compliance with administrative acts, statutes, rules, and policies pertaining to family and children's services and to those pertaining to the placement, supervision, and treatment of children in the state's care, in state-licensed facilities or residences, or in state operated facilities.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 43.06A.030(6), 97-21-066, § 112-10-010, filed 10/14/97, effective 11/14/97.]

WAC 112-10-020 Definitions. For purposes of these rules the following terms have the meanings indicated:

(1) "Administrative Act" means an action, decision, or omission made by a governmental agency or a contracting or state-licensed agency that affects: (a) a child who is in need of state protection due to child abuse or neglect; (b) a family who is under state supervision due to allegations or findings of child abuse or neglect; or (c) a child who is in state custody.

(2) "Family and children's services" are services provided by or through the department of social and health services (DSHS), or state-licensed agencies, to families who are: (a) at risk of child abuse or neglect; (b) are under state supervision due to allegations or findings of child abuse or neglect; or (c) to children who are in state custody. These services include those provided by or through the department of social and health services, children's administration, juvenile rehabilitation administration, and health and rehabilitative services administration.

(3) "Confidential" and "confidentiality" refer to information that OFCO deems to be protected by federal and state law from public disclosure or further dissemination.

(4) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(5) "Investigative records" refers to all records obtained, held, or generated by OFCO in the performance of its duties.
