A full-time employee will be given sections normally staffed by part-time employees before being offered other alternatives to reduction in force. Such alternatives may include, but not be limited to, those in article 6.00 of the negotiated agreement.

An academic employee's agreement to one or any combination of the above-referenced alternatives, or any other alternative agreed to, will be submitted in writing to the college president.

(4) Basis for reduction: If the number of full-time contracted academic employees is to be reduced, the college president, with advice from the appropriate supervising administrators and department chairmen shall determine in the case of each affected department or program what courses and services are most necessary to maintain quality education and services at Tacoma Community College. (d) Information concerning faculty and administrative vacancies occurring through retirement, resignation, and professional and other leave.

Before arriving at proposed reduction in force decisions, the president will confer with representatives of the designated faculty organization and the student government regarding proposed reduction plans and will consider their opinions in the matter.

(5) Order of reduction: If a reduction is determined to be necessary within a layoff unit, the employment needs of the department or program shall be the primary basis for identifying the order of reduction in force. First consideration will also be given to seniority as defined in article 9.00 of the negotiated agreement, provided that such consideration results in the retention of qualified academic employees to replace and perform the necessary duties of the personnel reduced. In determining what duties an academic employee is qualified to perform, the president will consider, but not be limited to:

(a) General professional experience;

(b) Actual work experience in the area under consideration; and

(c) Educational background.

(6) Right to recall: A full-time faculty member whose contract is not renewed as a result of this reduction in force procedure shall have the right to recall to any faculty position, either a newly created position or a vacancy: Provided, That the individual is determined to be qualified for such position by the president of the college following recommendations by the supervising dean, department chairman and/or program director. The right of recall shall extend two years from date of layoff.

(7) Reduction in force review committee: A reduction in force review committee shall be composed of three members of the faculty who shall be selected by a majority of the faculty and faculty department heads acting in a body, one administrator who shall be appointed by the college president, and one student representative who shall be chosen by the student association of the college in such a manner as the members thereof shall determine.

(8) Preliminary procedure for reduction in force: When reason arises to dismiss an academic employee as a result of reduction in force, the initial step shall be for the appropriate administrative officer to discuss the matter with him/her in personal conference. At this conference, the academic employee may request the presence of a union representative. The matter may be terminated by mutual consent at this point; but if an adjustment does not result, the case shall be referred to the president of the college. If the president of the college still deems dismissal to be necessary, the dismissal process shall be governed by the following procedure:

(a) At least thirty calendar days prior to the convening of the dismissal review committee, the union and the academic employee who is threatened with dismissal by the appointing authority shall be furnished with written notice which shall include grounds for dismissal, a statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction of the president's notice, and information of the employee's right of appeal. The notification shall be furnished directly to the employee during working hours, or if this is not possible because of the absence of the employee, it shall be mailed by certified return receipt mail to the academic employee's last known address.

(b) A reduction in force review committee will be established. The reduction in force review committee shall be the same as the tenure review committee. If the tenure review committee is no longer available, the reduction in force review committee shall have the same membership as required for a tenure review committee for a probationary academic employee. The members representing academic employees shall be selected by a majority of the academic employees and department chairmen acting as a body. The president shall deliver to the reduction in force review committee the statement of charges provided to the employee.

(c) In the event of a reduction in force, the reduction in force review committee shall conduct a hearing. At the hearing, the academic employee affected shall have the opportunity to be represented by counsel, to respond to and present evidence and arguments on all issues involved, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. At the hearing, the academic employee shall have the opportunity for his counsel to protect his due process rights to respond to and present evidence and arguments on all issues involved and to examine and cross-examine witnesses.

(d) Subsequent steps in the procedure for reduction in force are specified in WAC 132V-22-200 of these rules.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13) and 28B.50.852. 81-08-002 (Order 6-81, Resolution No. 81-6), § 132V-22-100, filed 3/19/81; Order 16, § 132V-22-100, filed 12/28/73; Order 14, § 132V-22-100, filed 6/29/73.]

WAC 132V-22-200 Hearing procedure relating to dismissal for cause and reduction in force. (1) The required notice of dismissal for cause or reduction in force to the affected academic employee(s) shall include notice of the right of a hearing before the review committee and that if the affected employee does not request such a hearing, from the president of the college within ten days after the effective date of separation from the payroll. Management will request a written determination from the employee as to whether he/she wishes to avail themselves of the right to a hearing. If after five additional days the academic employee fails to respond, this failure to request a hearing shall constitute acceptance of dismissal and waiver of any right to a hearing under the provisions of this negotiated agreement.

(2) In the event the president receives a request for a hearing, all parties shall be afforded an opportunity for a hearing after not less than twenty days' notice. The notice shall include:

(a) A statement of the time, place, and nature of the proceeding;

(b) A statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held;

(c) A reference to the particular rules of the colleges that are involved;

(d) A short and plain statement [of] [to] the matters asserted.

(3) Prior to the time of the hearing, the board and the union shall request an impartial hearing officer from the public employment relations commission to sit as a nonvoting member of the committee. It shall be his/her responsibility to:

(a) Make all rulings regarding the evidentiary and procedural issues presented during the course of the dismissal review committee hearings;

(b) Meet and confer with the members of the dismissal review committee and advise them in regard to procedural and evidentiary issues considered during the course of the committee's deliberations;

(c) Appoint a court reporter, who shall operate at the direction of the presiding officer and shall record all testimony, receive all documents and other evidence introduced during the course of [the] hearings, and record any other matters [related] [relating] to the hearing as directed by the presiding officer;

(d) Prepare the record if requested under subsection (6) herein.

(4) Opportunity shall be afforded all parties to respond and present evidence and argument on all [issues] [issued] involved, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses.

(5) Oral proceedings shall be transcribed, if necessary, for the purposes of rehearing or court reviews. A copy of the record or any part thereof shall be transcribed and furnished to any party to the hearing upon request [therefor] [thereof] and payment of the costs thereof.

[(6)] The record in a contested case shall include:

(a) All documents, motions, and intermediate rulings;

(b) Evidence received or considered;

(c) A statement of matters officially noticed;

(d) Questions and offers of proof, objections, and rulings thereon;

(e) Proposed findings and exceptions; and
 (f) Any decision[s], opinion, or report by the officer or committee chairman presiding at the hearing.

(7) Findings of fact shall be based exclusively on the evidence and on matters officially noticed.

[(8)] The college or its authorized hearing officer or committee may:

(a) Administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence. No person shall be compelled to divulge information which he/she could not be compelled to divulge in a court of common law;

(b) Issue subpoenas;

(c) Take or cause depositions to be taken pursuant to rules promulgated by the college. No person shall be compelled to divulge information which he/she could not be compelled to divulge by deposition in connection with a court proceeding;

(d) Regulate the course of the hearing;

(e) Hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of the issues by consent of the parties.

(9) Within twenty days following the review hearing, the review committee shall prepare recommendations on the action they propose be taken and submit such recommendations to the appointing authority. A copy of the recommendations shall be given [to] the academic employee involved and the president.

(10) The board shall meet within thirty days after receipt of the dismissal review committee recommendations to consider those recommendations. The academic employee affected by the review committee recommendations may request a hearing before the board within ten days after receipt of the said recommendations. If board action affects academic employees other than the academic employee against whom dismissal action was originally taken, those academic employees shall be guaranteed protection of the entire dismissal for cause hearing procedure provided for herein. Within thirty days after the hearing before the board, the appointing authority shall inform the affected academic employee of their decision by letter.

College District No. 22 establishes the following rules to strengthen methods of administering employer-employee relations through the establishment of orderly methods of

[Order 7, § 132V-112-003, filed 6/27/72.]

Any other organization of academic employees desiring to be designated as the majority organization representing such employees shall, within seven days after publication of such notice by the board of trustees of Community College District No. 22, file with the board of trustees a request in writing that its name be included on the ballot in the election to be held together with written proof of at least ten percent representation of the academic employees of the district. No organization shall be permitted to have its name placed on the ballot used in the election unless such a request has been received within seven days after the publication of the notice that an election will be held.

[Order 7, § 132V-112-009, filed 6/27/72.]

WAC 132V-112-012 Contents of notice of election—Designation of chief election officer—Duties. Such lists shall be posted at least 24 hours before the election. Such lists shall be for informational purposes and shall not be conclusive as to the right of an academic employee to vote in the election.

[Order 7, § 132V-112-015, filed 6/27/72.]

WAC 132V-112-018 Election inspectors—Duties—Right to challenge voter—Improper conduct. The election officer shall designate at least one inspector for each polling place to observe the conduct of the election. Any organization whose name shall appear on the ballot in the election shall also be entitled to have one inspector present at each polling place to observe the conduct of the election. Each organization shall also be entitled to have an inspector present at the college district office for the counting of the ballots cast. Such inspectors must refrain from electioneering during the election. They may challenge the eligibility of any person to vote in the election, and, upon such challenge, the ballot of that person shall be treated as provided in WAC 132V-112-024 and 132V-112-036 through 132V-112-048. At the time of the election the name of each employee voting shall be recorded by his signature written beside his name on the voting list for the polling place at which he votes. Each academic employee may cast only one ballot in any election held pursuant to these rules, and the presence of a signature beside the name of an employee desiring to vote shall automatically constitute grounds for challenge to his right to cast a ballot in an election.

WAC 132V-120-290 Grievance procedures. Internal review and consultative processes have proven to be a desirable means of resolving problems. If a student believes he or she has been unfairly treated by a faculty member, member of the college staff, or administrator, the student is encouraged to resolve the complaint with the individual toward whom the grievance is directed. The student shall take this action within five instructional days. If the complaint is not resolved, the student may lodge a formal grievance according to the following procedures:

Step 1: The student may, within ten instructional days following the incident, present his/her complaint in writing to the appropriate division manager. The student shall present a written, signed statement of the nature of the grievance, a summary of actions taken by the student to resolve the grievance up to that point, and any proposed solution to the problem the grievant may wish to offer.

Step 2: Within ten instructional days of receiving the grievance, the appropriate division manager shall hold a meeting to hear the complaint. It shall be at the discretion of the division manager to determine whether he/she will meet with the grievant and the person to whom the complaint has been directed separately or in a joint meeting.

At this step and all subsequent steps in the grievance procedure, the grievant may elect to be represented by an attorney in preparing and presenting the grievance. The grievant shall notify the appropriate division manager at least five instructional days in advance of such action. In such cases, the college may choose to be assisted by an assistant attorney general.

Following the meeting or meetings, and within ten instructional days, the division manager will report his/her findings and the actions, where appropriate, to be implemented to resolve the grievance in writing to the grievant and the person to whom the complaint is directed.

Step 3: If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved in Step 2, either the grievant or the person to whom the complaint is directed has the right to request a hearing conducted by the appropriate vice-president/dean.

The vice-president/dean will convene a hearing committee no later than ten instructional days from the time of the request. The committee will be chosen and appointed no later than October 15 of each year. The committee shall consist of the following membership: Three student representatives, chosen by the senate of the associated students; two faculty or staff representatives (dependent upon the nature of the grievance), appointed by the vice-president/dean; two administrators, appointed by the president.

A quorum shall consist of no less than three members, provided that such quorum include at least one student, one faculty or staff member, and one administrator.

The committee shall elect its own chairperson for each case brought before it. The committee shall hear testimony regarding the grievance, deliberate, and decide the issue by majority vote. The hearing may be recessed and reconvened at a time convenient to all parties for the purpose of presenting witnesses, depositions, affidavits or other materials which the division manager/vice-president/dean deems vital to a fair resolution of the grievance.

Step 4: Within three instructional days after concluding the hearing process, the committee will render a decision by majority vote and so inform all parties to the grievance of that decision. Findings of fact will be included when informing all parties.

Step 5: Should any of the parties to the grievance find the hearing committee's solution to the grievance to be unsatisfactory, the decision may be appealed to the president of the college, provided that any such appeal be presented in writing within five instructional days following notification of the committee's decision. Such an appeal shall clearly and specifically set forth the reasons upon which the appeal is based.

Within five instructional days of receiving the appeal request, the college president will review the record of the hearing and the appeal and will provide his/her final decision in writing to both the grievant and the person to whom the complaint is directed. Evidence not in the record will not be considered by the president.

WAC 132V-120-300 Final decision regarding student grievances. The written findings of the presidential appeal will be considered final. No further intra-institutional appeal exists.

If the findings indicate that the person against whom the complaint is lodged engaged in sexual harassment or other discriminatory acts, disciplinary proceedings may be commenced against the person pursuant to appropriate procedures, depending on whether the person is a member of the classified staff, administrative exempt, or faculty.

WAC 132V-120-320 Withdrawal of grievance. (1) At any time during the grievance procedure, the grievant may officially withdraw the grievance in writing.

(2) In the event the grievant fails to appear for any scheduled hearing without prior notification or evidence of extenuating circumstances, this shall be considered to constitute withdrawal of the grievance.

(1) A student in the radiologic technology program who has reason to believe she may be pregnant shall report this belief immediately to the head of the radiologic technology program. Upon verification of pregnancy, the student will not be permitted to continue to participate in the clinical education and didactic courses utilizing ionizing radiation of the radiologic technology program. 132V-300-020	Jurisdiction.
132V-300-030	Grievance procedure.

WAC 132V-300-010 Statement of policy. Tacoma Community College is covered by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibiting sex discrimination in education and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 prohibiting discrimination on the basis of disability. The college is committed to protecting the rights and dignity of each individual in the campus community and so will not tolerate discrimination of any kind, at any level.

Further, it is the policy of Tacoma Community College to provide an environment in which employees can work free from sexual harassment or sexual intimidation. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination. As such it is a violation of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments.

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when:

(1) Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or academic standing; or

(2) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or academic decision affecting such individual; or

(3) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or educational environment.

WAC 132V-300-020 Jurisdiction. This chapter shall serve as a Title IX/Section 504 grievance for all employees of Tacoma Community College including classified staff, faculty, and administrators, applicants for employment; and enrolled students and applicants for admission.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). 93-03-078, § 132V-300-020, filed 1/19/93, effective 2/19/93.]

WAC 132V-300-030 Grievance procedure. Internal review and consultative processes have proven to be a desirable means of resolving problems. Any employee, applicant for employment, enrolled student, or applicant for admission to Tacoma Community College who believes he/she has been discriminated against on the basis of sex or on the basis of a disability is encouraged to resolve the complaint with the individual believed to have committed the discriminatory act. If the complaint is not resolved, the individual may lodge a formal institutional grievance according to the following procedures:

(a) Step 1: Official hearing.

(i) Sexual discrimination/harassment complaints shall be lodged with the Title IX officer or the affirmative action officer. Disability discrimination complaints shall be lodged with the 504 officer or the affirmative action officer. The complainant shall request a meeting with the designated college officer as the first step in the grievance process.

(ii) To request an official hearing, the complainant shall file a written complaint with the designated college officer describing the specific grievance(s), including dates, times, places, circumstances, and any witnesses. A copy of the written complaint will be provided to the person to whom the grievance is directed.

(iii) Within ten instructional days of receiving the written request, the designated college officer shall arrange a meeting to hear the complaint. It shall be at the discretion of the complainant to determine whether the officer will meet with the complainant and the person to whom the complaint has been directed separately or in a single meeting. If the complainant requests a single meeting, unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties, attendance shall be limited to the complainant, the person to whom the complaint is directed, and the college officer, who shall chair the meeting. Either the complainant or the person to whom the complaint is directed may call witnesses at the discretion of the person presiding.

At this step and all subsequent steps in the grievance procedure, the complainant may elect to be represented by an attorney in preparing and presenting the grievance. The complainant shall notify the appropriate college officer at least five instructional days in advance of such action. In such cases, the college may choose to be assisted by an assistant attorney general.

(iv) Following the hearing and within thirty calendar days of receiving the written request, the college officer will report his/her findings in writing to both the complainant and the person to whom the complaint has been directed. This decision is final absent appeal to the college president.

(v) The affirmative action officer and Title IX office are to be informed of any sex discrimination/harassment complaint or 504 complaint lodged, as well as the resolutions of such complaints.

(b) Step 2: Presidential appeal.

(i) Either the complainant or the person to whom the complaint is directed has a right to present a statement to the college president appealing the findings of the designated college officer.

(ii) The request must be made in writing within ten days of written notification of the results of the official hearing.

(iii) Within ten instructional days of receiving the appeal request, the college president or the president's designee will review the record of the hearing and the appeal and report the findings in writing to both the complainant and the person to whom the complaint is directed.

(iv) The written findings of the presidential appeal will be considered final. No further intra-institutional appeal exists.

(v) If the findings indicate that the person against whom the complaint is lodged engaged in sexual harassment or other discriminatory acts, disciplinary proceedings may be commenced against the person pursuant to appropriate procedures, depending on whether the person is a student, a member of classified staff, administrative exempt, or faculty.
