(2) If board staff determine that a complaint alleges conduct which may violate a criminal statute, the staff may refer the complaint to the appropriate prosecuting attorney or the Washington State Patrol and if referred, will suspend their investigation until the prosecuting attorney or the Washington State Patrol responds as to whether criminal charges will be filed. If the prosecuting attorney elects to file criminal charges, no further action will be taken while the criminal case is pending. If the prosecuting attorney elects not to file criminal charges, board staff shall complete their investigation and follow the procedures set forth in these rules.

(3) During the course of the preliminary investigation, the board staff will give the respondent(s) a copy of the complaint and an opportunity to present such information as the respondent may desire, provided that if a complainant has requested confidentiality under chapter 42.17 RCW, the complainant's name and identifying information will be deleted from the complaint.

(5) The board staff may refer a complaint to the employing agency for investigation and recommendation of resolution. WAC 292-100-050 Determination on reasonable cause. (1) Following the preliminary investigation, the board staff shall prepare a written investigation report and make a recommendation to the board on whether to find reasonable cause, including a recommendation as to whether the penalty may be greater than $500.

(2) Upon receipt of the board staff's investigation report and recommendation, the board shall determine whether or not there is reasonable cause to believe that a violation of chapter 42.52 RCW has occurred.

(3) The board's reasonable cause determination shall be done in closed session.

(4) If the board finds reasonable cause, the board shall consider whether the penalty for the alleged violation may be greater than $500. If the board concludes that the potential penalty and costs may be greater than $500, the respondent shall be given the option to have an administrative law judge conduct the hearing and rule on procedural and evidentiary matters. If the respondent is not given that option, the board may not impose a penalty or costs greater than $500. The board may, on its own initiative, choose to retain an administrative law judge to conduct any hearing.

(5) Upon receipt of an investigation report and recommendation on a complaint referred to the employing agency for investigation, the board shall either:

(a) Reject the report and recommendation and initiate its own investigation; or

(b) Concur with the report and recommendation and either initiate a hearing if the recommended penalty is a monetary fine or refer the matter to the employing agency for implementation of the recommendation if the recommendation is within the agency's authority to implement. The agency shall report implementation to the board and the board shall dismiss the complaint; or

(c) Concur with the report and recommendation, enter a finding of no reasonable cause and dismiss the complaint; or

(1) Following the board's determination on reasonable cause, the board shall provide the complainant, the respondent and the employing agency with a copy of the written determination on reasonable cause, a copy of the board staff's written investigation report, and a copy of the complaint. If a complainant has requested confidentiality under chapter 42.17 RCW, the complainant's name and identifying information will be deleted. If reasonable cause is found, the determination of reasonable cause shall include a statement of the alleged violations. Prior to scheduling a public hearing, the board shall provide the respondent with an explanation of the option to request that the hearing be conducted by an administrative law judge if the penalty and costs for the alleged violation may be greater than $500.

(2) Within 30 days of service of the written determination on reasonable cause, the respondent shall file an answer to the written determination on reasonable cause which shall state his/her response to the alleged violations.

(3) Failure to file an answer to the written determination on reasonable cause within 30 days of service constitutes a default, and the board may proceed to resolve the case without further notice to, or hearing for the benefit of, the respondent.

(4) Within 10 days after service of a default order under subsection (3) of this section, the respondent may file a written motion requesting that the order be vacated, and stating the grounds relied upon. During the time within which a party may file a written motion under this subsection, the board chair or a designated board member may adjourn further proceedings or conduct them without the participation of the respondent.

(5) Within 30 days of service of the written determination on reasonable cause, the respondent shall file a request for hearing. The request shall include either a request for or a waiver of the right to request an administrative law judge if the penalty and costs for the alleged violation may be greater than $500.

(6) The respondent shall be notified of the date of the hearing no later than 30 days before the hearing date.

WAC 292-100-070 Investigation materials not disclosable during investigation. (1) It is the policy of the board during the course of any investigation that all records generated or collected as a result of that investigation are exempt from public inspection and copying under RCW 42.17.310 (1)(d). The investigation is not considered complete until a case is resolved either by a stipulation and settlement that is signed by all parties; or, when the board enters a final order after a public hearing. If a public records request is made following a signed stipulation and settlement or a final order for any such record which implicates the privacy of an individual, written notice of the records request will be provided to the individual in order that such individual may request a protective order from a court under RCW 42.17.330.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b). 99-06-073, § 292-100-070, filed 3/2/99, effective 4/2/99. Statutory Authority: Chapter 42.52 RCW and RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b). 96-22-028, § 292-100-070, filed 10/30/96, effective 11/30/96.]

WAC 292-100-080 Investigation procedures—Subpoenas. (1) During the course of an investigation, the board, or any board member, may issue a subpoena directed to any person who is likely to possess information which is relevant and material to the investigation. The subpoena shall:

(a) Specifically describe the information which is sought, and

(b) Require the production of information at a reasonable place and time, but no later than ten days from the date it is served, and

(c) Notify the person that if the information is not produced, the board will apply to the superior court for an appropriate order or other remedy. The subpoena may be personally delivered or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested.

(2) The board may issue a subpoena under RCW 42.52.390 to compel persons to appear and give testimony and may require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memorandums or other documents which the board deems relevant and material.

WAC 292-100-090 Informal settlement—Cases resolvable by stipulation. (1) RCW 34.05.060 authorizes agencies to establish by rule specific procedures for attempting and executing informal settlement of matters. The following procedures are available for informal dispute resolution that may make more elaborate proceedings under the Administrative Procedure Act unnecessary.

(a) Any respondent may request settlement by notifying board staff in writing.

(b) If settlement may be accomplished by negotiation, negotiations shall be commenced at the earliest possible time. When board staff and the respondent agree that some or all of the facts are uncontested and a stipulation of the facts is reached, board staff is responsible for providing a written description of the recommended resolution or stipulation to the person(s) involved.

(c) If settlement of a hearing may be accomplished by informal negotiation, negotiations may be concluded by:

(i) Stipulation of facts by the parties; or

(ii) Stipulation of facts, conclusions and penalty by the parties.

(iii) A stipulated order agreed to by the parties.

(d) Board staff shall only present proposed stipulations and settlements to the board which it recommends the board adopt.

(2) Any proposed stipulation shall be in writing and signed by each party to the stipulation and his or her attorney, if represented. The stipulation may be recited on the record at the hearing. The board has the option of accepting, rejecting, or modifying the proposed stipulation or asking for additional facts to be presented. If the board accepts the stipulation or modifies the stipulation with the agreement of the respondent, the board shall enter an order in conformity with the terms of the stipulation. If the board rejects the stipulation or the respondent does not agree to the board's proposed modifications to the stipulation, the normal process will continue. The proposed stipulation and information obtained during formal settlement discussions shall not be admitted into evidence at a subsequent public hearing. If the board requests additional facts be presented, the matter shall be referred to the board staff for further investigation.

(a) Simplification of issues;

(b) The necessity of amendments to the hearing notice;

(c) The possibility of obtaining stipulations, admissions of facts and of documents;

(e) Authorizing discovery by any party; and

(f) Procedural and such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the proceeding.

(2) Prehearing conferences may be held by telephone conference call or at a time and place specified by the presiding officer.

(3) Following the prehearing conference, the presiding officer shall issue an order reciting the action taken and decisions made at the conference. If no objection to the order is filed with the presiding officer within seven days after the date the order is mailed, the order shall control the subsequent course of the proceeding unless modified for good cause by subsequent order.

WAC 292-100-105 Discovery—Authority of presiding officer. After a finding of reasonable cause, no discovery is permitted by a party pursuant to WAC 292-100-110 through 292-100-150 unless authorized by the presiding officer. In deciding whether to authorize discovery and the extent of discovery to be allowed, the presiding officer shall consider the party's need for discovery while ensuring that discovery does not unduly delay the hearing. If the determination of reasonable cause includes an allegation that the respondent has violated RCW 42.52.180, the presiding officer shall permit discovery by the parties. Prior to the appointment of a presiding officer, the chair or other member designated by the board may authorize discovery if the party can demonstrate a compelling reason why discovery must be conducted prior to the appointment of a presiding officer.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b). 99-06-073, § 292-100-105, filed 3/2/99, effective 4/2/99.]

WAC 292-100-110 Hearings—Discovery—Subpoenas. (1) The board, a board member, or the executive secretary may issue subpoenas for discovery, subpoenas to persons to appear and give testimony, and may require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material and the board or presiding officer may issue protective orders as appropriate. Any party may issue subpoenas. All subpoenas for hearings must be filed with the board, together with proof of proper service, at least five days prior to the date of the hearing for which they are issued. All subpoenas will be issued and may be enforced in the form and manner set forth in RCW 34.05.446 and WAC 10-08-120.

(2) The board, upon motion and before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may:

(a) Quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive; or

(b) Condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.

(3) The attendance of witnesses and such production of evidence may be required from any place within the state of Washington to any location where a hearing is being conducted.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b). 99-06-073, § 292-100-110, filed 3/2/99, effective 4/2/99. Statutory Authority: Chapter 42.52 RCW and RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b). 96-22-028, § 292-100-110, filed 10/30/96, effective 11/30/96.]

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b). 99-06-073, § 292-100-120, filed 3/2/99, effective 4/2/99. Statutory Authority: Chapter 42.52 RCW and RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b). 96-22-028, § 292-100-120, filed 10/30/96, effective 11/30/96.]

WAC 292-100-130 Hearings—Discovery—Depositions and interrogatories—Notice. A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice of not less than five business days in writing to all parties. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined. On motion of a party to whom the notice is served, the presiding officer may for cause shown, enlarge or shorten the time. If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used as other depositions.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b). 99-06-073, § 292-100-130, filed 3/2/99, effective 4/2/99. Statutory Authority: Chapter 42.52 RCW and RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b). 96-22-028, § 292-100-130, filed 10/30/96, effective 11/30/96.]

or upon motion reasonably made by any party or by the person to be examined and upon notice and for good cause shown, the presiding officer may order that the deposition shall not be taken, or that it may be taken only at some designated place other than that stated in the notice, or that it may be taken only on written interrogatories, or that certain matters shall not be inquired into, or that the scope of the examination shall be limited to certain matters, or that the examination shall be held with no one present except the parties to the action and their officers or counsel, or the board may make any other order which justice requires to protect the party or witness from annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression.

At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of any party or the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the presiding officer may order the party conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as above provided. If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed only upon the order of the board. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order.

(2) When documents are to be offered into evidence at the hearing, the one offering the exhibit shall provide a minimum of ten copies, for the opposing party, members of the board, the board's legal counsel, and board staff.

(3) If documentary evidence has not been exchanged prior to the hearing, the parties shall arrive at the hearing location in sufficient time before the time scheduled for the hearing for the purpose of exchanging copies of exhibits to be introduced.

WAC 292-100-160 Conduct of hearings. (1) A hearing shall be conducted pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (chapter 34.05 RCW) and its supporting regulations (chapter 10-08 WAC), shall be followed unless modified by chapter 292-100 WAC.

(2) A hearing shall be conducted either by the board or by an administrative law judge. If an administrative law judge participates, either by request of a respondent or by request of the board, the board may choose to sit with the administrative law judge to hear the matter and to enter a final order at the conclusions of the proceedings; or to have the administrative law judge hear the matter alone and prepare an initial order for review by the board. If an administrative law judge sits with the board, he or she shall rule on procedural and evidentiary matters.

(3) After the hearing the board may find that:

(a) The respondent(s) did not violate the act, as alleged, and dismiss the case; or

(b) The respondent(s) has (have) violated chapter 42.52 RCW; or

(c) The respondent(s) is(are) in violation of chapter 42.52 RCW, the board's remedy would be inadequate and the matter should be referred to the appropriate law enforcement agency as provided in RCW 42.52.470.

(4) Following a hearing in which the board participates, the board:

(a) Shall set forth in writing its findings of fact, conclusions of law and decision on the merits of the case; and

(b) Shall serve each party, the complainant and the employing agency, a copy of the findings of fact, conclusions of law and decision.

(5) Following a hearing in which the board does not participate, the administrative law judge shall:

(a) Set forth written findings of fact, conclusions of law and decision on the merits of the case in an initial order;

(b) Shall serve each party and board staff a copy of the findings of fact, conclusions of law and decision, including a statement of the right to request review of the initial order by the board.

WAC 292-100-170 Review of initial orders by an administrative law judge. (1) An initial order by an administrative law judge shall become the final order of the board within twenty days of the initial order unless:

(a) The board, upon its own motion, determines that the initial order should be reviewed;

(b) A party files a petition for review of the initial order within twenty days of the entry of the initial order.

(2) The petition for review will specify the portions of the initial order to which exception is taken and will refer to the evidence of record relied upon to support the petition.

(3) Petitions for review shall be filed with the executive secretary and served on all other parties. The party not filing the petition for review shall have twenty days to reply to the petition for review. The reply shall be filed with the executive secretary and copies of the reply shall be served on all other parties or their counsel at the time the reply is filed, and may cross-petition for review. If the reply contains a cross-petition, it shall specify portions of the initial order to which exception is taken by the replying party, and shall refer to the evidence of the record relied upon to support the reply.

(4) The board shall personally consider the whole record or such portions of it as may be cited by the parties.

(a) The board shall afford each party an opportunity to present written argument and may afford each party an opportunity to present oral argument.

(2001 Ed.)

(b) The board shall enter a final order disposing of the proceeding.

(c) The board shall serve copies of the final order on all parties, the complainant, and the employing agency.

WAC 292-100-180 Brief enforcement hearing—Authority. The board may provide a brief enforcement hearing for violations of provisions in chapter 42.52 RCW in which the facts are undisputed, the violations appear to be relatively minor in nature, and a penalty no greater than $500 will be assessed for the violations.

WAC 292-100-190 Brief enforcement hearing—Procedure. (1) A brief enforcement hearing may be presided over by the chair, or a member of the board designated by the chair.

(2) When a violation is alleged, before taking action, the executive secretary shall send the alleged violator notice, which shall include:

(a) Alleged violation;

(b) The maximum amount of the penalty and costs which can be imposed at the hearing and the amount of any proposed fine; and

(c) Person's right to respond, within ten days, either in writing or in person to explain his/her view of the matter.

(3) At the time of the hearing if the presiding officer believes alleged violations are of such magnitude as to merit penalties and costs greater than $500, the presiding officer shall immediately adjourn the hearing and direct the matter to be scheduled for an enforcement hearing by the full board or an administrative law judge.

(4) At the time any unfavorable action is taken, the presiding officer shall serve upon each party a written statement describing the violation, the reasons for the decision, the penalty and costs imposed and their right to request review by the board at the next scheduled board meeting.

(5) The written decision of the presiding officer is an initial order. If no review is taken of the initial order, the initial order shall be the final order.

WAC 292-100-200 Brief enforcement hearing—Administrative review procedures. (1) The board will conduct a review of the initial order upon the written or oral request of a party if the board receives the request within twenty-one days after the service of the initial order.

(2) If the parties have not requested review, the board may conduct a review of the initial order upon its own motion and without notice to the parties, but it may not take any action on review less favorable to any party than the original order without giving that party notice and an opportunity to explain that party's view of the matter.

(3) The order on review shall be in writing stating the findings made, and the reasons for the decision, and notice that judicial review is available. The order on review shall be entered within twenty-one days after the date of the initial order or of the request for review, whichever is later.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b), 99-06-073, § 292-100-200, filed 3/2/99, effective 4/2/99. Statutory Authority: Chapter 42.52 RCW and RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b), 96-22-028, § 292-100-200, filed 10/30/96, effective 11/30/96.]

WAC 292-100-210 Reconsideration and review of decisions. (1) For purposes of this rule, "decision" means any findings, conclusions, order, or other action by the board which is reviewable by a court.

(2) A decision may be reconsidered only upon:

(a) The written request of a party; or

(b) The motion or written request of a board member who voted on the prevailing side when that decision was made.

(3) Such a request for reconsideration shall be served at the office of the board and on all parties, or motion made, no later than ten days after service of the decision of which reconsideration is sought.

(4) A request or motion for reconsideration shall specify the grounds therefor.

(5) When a request for reconsideration is served, or motion made, enforcement of the decision of which reconsideration is sought shall be stayed and the decision shall not be final until the board has acted on the reconsideration. Any party may respond to a request or motion for reconsideration. The response is due no later than ten days after the party is served with the request of motion.

(6) The board shall act on the reconsideration, at the next meeting at which it practicably may do so by:

(a) Deciding whether to reconsider its decision; and

(b) If it decides to do so, either affirming or amending its decision. A copy of the board's decision on reconsideration shall be served on all parties, the complainant, and the employing agency.

(7) Upon being served with a decision, the respondent may treat that decision as final for the purpose of petitioning for judicial review. The board may not reconsider any decision after being served with a petition for judicial review.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b), 99-06-073, § 292-100-210, filed 3/2/99, effective 4/2/99.]

Chapter 292-110 WAC AGENCY SUBSTANTIVE RULES

WAC

292-110-010	Use of state resources.
292-110-020	Working hours.
292-110-030	Measurable expenditure.
292-110-050	Advisory opinions.
292-110-060	Compensation for outside activities and contracting with state agencies.

WAC 292-110-010 Use of state resources. (1) State officers and state employees are obligated to conserve and protect state resources for the benefit of the public interest, rather than their private interests. When use of state resources supports organizational effectiveness, is reasonable and of negligible cost, and does not violate an ethics law or this rule, such use would not undermine public trust and confidence. Responsibility and accountability for the appropriate use of state resources ultimately rests with the individual state officer and state employee, or with the state officer or state employee who authorizes such use.

[Title 292 WAC—p. 12]

(2) State officers or state employees may not use state resources including any person, money, or property under the officer's or employee's official control or direction or in his or her custody for private benefit or gain of the officer or employee or any other person. This prohibition does not apply to the use of public resources to benefit another person as part of the officer's or employee's official duties.

(3) Notwithstanding the prohibition in subsection (2) of this section, a state officer or employee may make occasional but limited use of state resources only if:

(a) There is no cost to the state; and

(b) The use of state resources does not interfere with the performance of the officer's or employee's official duties;

(c) The use is brief in duration and does not disrupt or distract from the conduct of state business due to volume or frequency; and

(d) The use does not compromise the security or integrity of state information or software;

(e) An agency may authorize a use that promotes organizational effectiveness or enhances the job-related skills of a state officer or state employee.

Example 1: An employee makes a local telephone call or sends an e-mail communication to his home to make sure his children have arrived home safely from school. This is not an ethical violation. There is no cost to the state, and because either the call or the e-mail is brief in duration, it does not interfere with the performance of official duties.

Example 2: An employee uses her agency computer to send electronic mail to another employee regarding the agenda for an agency meeting that both will attend. She also wishes the other employee a happy birthday. This is not an ethical violation. The personal message is de minimis and improves organizational effectiveness by allowing informal communication among employees.

Example 3: Every spring a group of employees meets during lunch to organize an agency softball team. The meeting is held in a conference room that is not needed for agency business during the lunch hour. This is not an ethical violation. There is no cost to the state and the meeting does not interfere with the performance of official duties because it is during a lunch hour.

Example 4: An agency determines that an evening class will enhance the job skills of an employee, and allows the employee to use her office computer to do homework. The employee prints her homework using the office printer and her own paper. This is not an ethical violation. The use of the office computer and printer will result in some cost to the state, but the cost is negligible and the employee is using her own paper. Because the class will enhance the employee's job skills, the effectiveness of the organization is improved. Since the activity takes place after working hours, it will not interfere with the performance of the employee's official duties.

(4) Occasional and limited use of state resources does not include the following private uses of state resources:

(a) Any use for the purpose of conducting an outside business;

(b) A use for the purpose of supporting, promoting, or soliciting for an outside organization or group unless provided for by law or authorized by an agency head or designee;

(c) Any campaign or political use;

(d) Commercial uses such as advertising or selling; or

(e) An illegal activity.

Example 5: An employee operates an outside business. Everyday she makes or receives five to ten business calls on her state telephone. All of the calls are local calls. This is an ethical violation. The employee is conducting a private business on state time, which is a cost to the state.

Example 6: After working hours, an employee uses the office computer and printer to prepare client billings for a private business using his own paper. This is an ethical violation. Although use of the office computer and printer may result in a negligible cost to the state, conducting a private business is an inappropriate use of state resources.

Example 7: An employee is active in a local PTA organization that holds fund-raising events to send children to the nation's capital. Although a parental contribution is expected, the more a parent raises, the less his or her contribution. An employee uses agency e-mail to solicit contributions for her child. This is an ethical violation. The employee is using state resources to further a private interest and to promote an outside organization.

(5) Use of state resources pursuant to subsections (3) and (4) of this section is subject to the following qualifications and limitations:

(a) A state officer or employee may not use state resources for the purpose of assisting a campaign for election of a person to an office or for the promotion of or opposition to a ballot proposition. Such a use of state resources is not authorized by this rule and is specifically prohibited by RCW 42.52.180, subject to the exceptions in RCW 42.52.180(2).

(b) A state officer or employee may not make private use of any state property which has been removed from state facilities or other official duty stations, even if there is no cost to the state.

(c) A state officer or employee may not make private use of any state property which is consumable such as paper, envelopes or spare parts, even if the actual cost to the state is de minimis.

(d) A state officer or employee may use computers and electronic mail provided such use conforms to ethical standards under section three of this rule, and the prohibitions contained in section four.

(e) A state officer or employee may not make private use of state computers or other equipment to access computer networks or other data bases including, but not limited to, electronic mail and electronic bulletin boards for personal use unrelated to an official business purpose.

Example 8: Agency equipment includes a video tape player. One night an employee takes the machine home to watch videos of her family vacation. This is an ethical violation. Although there is no cost to the state an employee may not make private use of state equipment removed from state facilities or other official duty station.

Example 9: An employee is assigned to do temporary work in another city away from his or her usual duty station. To perform official duties the employee takes an agency laptop computer. While away, the employee uses the computer to do tax work for a private client. This is an ethical violation. Although it is permissible for an employee to use the laptop at a temporary duty station, it is not permissible for the employee to perform work related to his or her outside business on the laptop.

Example 10: An employee routinely uses the Internet to manage her personal investment portfolio and communicate information to her broker. This is an ethical violation. Use of the Internet is limited to official state business, and there is a cost to the state for the employee's time while he or she conducts personal business.

(6) In general, a state officer or employee may not make private use of state resources and then reimburse the agency so there is no actual cost to the state. However, the board recognizes that in some limited situations, such as officers or employees working at remote locations, a system of reimbursement may be appropriate. Any system of reimbursement must be established by the agency in advance and must result in no cost to the state. To be valid under this rule a reimbursement system must be approved by the board.

(7) Electronic mail, facsimile transmissions, and voice mail are technologies that may create an electronic record. This is what separates these from other forms of communication such as a telephone conversation. An electronic record is reproducible and is therefore not private. Such records may be subject to disclosure under the public disclosure law, or may be disclosed for audit or legitimate state operational or management purposes.

(8) State agencies are encouraged to adopt policies applying these principles to their unique circumstances. Nothing in this rule is intended to limit the ability of an agency to adopt policies that are more restrictive. However, violation of a more restrictive agency policy by itself will not constitute a violation of RCW 42.52.160, it would constitute a violation of agency policy.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b) and 42.52.160(3). 98-08-054, § 292-110-010, filed 3/27/98, effective 4/27/98. Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.160(3), 96-01-036, § 292-110-010, filed 12/13/95, effective 1/13/96.]

WAC 292-110-020 Working hours. (1) RCW 42.52.180(1) provides that no state officer or state employee may use or authorize the use of facilities of an agency, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of assisting a campaign for election of a person to an office or for the promotion of or opposition to a ballot proposition. Facilities of an agency includes use of state officers or state employees during working hours. The purpose of the rule is to define the term "working hours" for officers and employees of the executive branch of state government. The prohibition in RCW 42.52.180(1) only applies during working hours. Nothing in RCW 42.52.180(1) or this rule prohibits a state officer or state employee from assisting in a campaign during non-working hours. An officer or employee who assists in a campaign during non-working hours may not use any facilities of an agency.

(2) Some state officers and state employees occupy positions that have fixed schedules with the same beginning and ending times. For officers and employees with fixed schedules, working hours are the hours between the starting and ending times of their positions. Officers and employees with fixed schedules may not assist in a campaign during these fixed working hours, unless they are on a lunch break under section four of this rule or on annual leave under section five of this rule.

Example 1: An employee works for an agency open to the public during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The employee is in a position with a fixed schedule of Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The employee's working hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The employee may not assist in a campaign during these hours unless the employee is on a lunch break or on annual leave. The employee may assist in a campaign before 8:00 a.m. or after 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday or on Saturday or Sunday.

Example 2: An employee works for an agency open to the public during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Although the agency is open during the hours 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., the employee is in a position with a fixed schedule of Monday through Thursday 3:00 p.m. through 12:00 a.m. The employee's working hours are 3:00 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. Monday through Thursday. The employee may not assist in a campaign during these hours unless the employee is on a lunch break or on annual leave. The employee may assist in a campaign before 3:00 p.m. or after 12:00 a.m. Monday through Thursday or anytime on Friday, Saturday or Sunday.

(3) Some state officers and state employees occupy positions that do not have fixed schedules with the same starting and ending times. For officers and employees who do not have fixed schedules, working hours are defined as either:

(a) The hours set forth in any policy on working hours adopted by an agency. Agencies have flexibility in determining working hours for the officers and employees to meet their unique needs so long as the time considered to be working hours is clearly established. If an agency does not adopt a working hours policy, working hours shall be 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday when state agencies are generally open to the public; or

(b) The work schedule for an officer or employee approved by the agency, if it is different from the agency policy or, if the agency has not adopted a policy, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Example 3: An employee works for an agency that is open to the public 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Although the agency is open to the public at these times, the work of the agency goes on twenty-four hours a day. The agency has adopted a working hours policy that divides working hours into three shifts: the day shift (8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.); swing shift (3:00 p.m. to 12:00 a.m.) and midnight shift (12:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m.). An employee without a fixed schedule is assigned to the swing shift (3:00 p.m. to 12:00 a.m.) Monday through Friday. Since the employee does not have a fixed schedule, the employee sometimes comes to work before 3:00 p.m. and sometimes after 3:00 p.m. Similarly, the employee may leave work before or after 12:00 a.m. This employee's working hours are 3:00 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. Monday through Friday. The employee may not assist in a campaign during these hours unless the employee is on a lunch break or on annual leave. The employee may assist in a campaign before 3:00 p.m. or after 12:00 a.m. Monday through Friday or on Saturday or Sunday.

Example 4: An employee works for an agency that is open to the public 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The agency has not adopted a policy on working hours. An employee without a fixed schedule usually works 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Since the employee does not have a fixed schedule, the employee sometimes comes to work before 8:00 a.m. and sometimes after 8:00 a.m. Similarly, the employee may leave work before or after 5:00 p.m. Since the agency has not adopted a policy on working hours, this employee's working hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The employee may not assist in a campaign during these hours unless the employee is on a lunch break or on annual leave. The employee may assist in a campaign before 8:00 a.m. or after 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, or on Saturday or Sunday.

Example 5: An employee works for an agency that is open to the public 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Although the agency is open to the public at these times, the work of the agency goes on twenty-four hours a day. The agency has adopted a working hours policy that divides working hours into three shifts: the day shift (8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.); swing shift (3:00 p.m. to 12:00 a.m.) and midnight shift (12:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m.). An employee without a fixed schedule is assigned to the day shift (8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.) Monday through Friday. However, the agency has approved a different work schedule for this employee. Instead of the usual day shift of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., the employee works 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Since the employee does not have a fixed schedule the employee, sometimes comes to work before 7:00 a.m. and sometimes after 7:00 a.m. Similarly, the employee may leave work before or after 4:00 p.m. This employee's working hours are 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The employee may not assist in a campaign during these hours unless the employee is on a lunch break or on annual leave. The employee may assist in a campaign before 7:00 a.m. or after 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, or on Saturday or Sunday.

(4) Working hours do not include state legal holidays unless the officer's or employee's work schedule requires the officer or employee to work on a state legal holiday.

(5) Working hours do not include the time approved and designated for an officer's or employee's lunch break. A lunch break is between 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 p.m., unless the agency has designated a different time in a working hours policy or has approved a different lunch break as part of an officer's or employee's work schedule. If an officer or employee engages in campaign activity during the lunch break, the officer or employee may not make use of any of the facilities of the agency.

Example 6: An employee works for an agency that is open to the public 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The agency has not adopted a policy on working hours. An employee without a fixed schedule usually works 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Since the employee does not have a fixed schedule, the employee sometimes comes to work before 8:00 a.m. and sometimes after 8:00 a.m. Similarly, the employee may leave work before or after 5:00 p.m. Since the agency has not adopted a policy on working hours, this employee's working hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday with a lunch break between 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 p.m. The employee may assist in a campaign during the employee's lunch break between 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 p.m.

(6) Working hours do not include the time in official leave status if the leave has received advance documented or written authorization. An officer or employee on leave may assist in a campaign.

Example 7: An employee works for an agency that is open to the public 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The agency has not adopted a policy on working hours. An employee without a fixed schedule usually works 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Since the employee does not have a fixed schedule, the employee sometimes comes to work before 8:00 a.m. and sometimes after 8:00 a.m. Similarly, the employee may leave work before or after 5:00 p.m. Since the agency has not adopted a policy on working hours, this employee's working hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. On Friday the employee receives advance written authorization to be on leave for five days, Monday through Friday of the next week. The employee may assist in a campaign during this leave.

Example 8: An employee works for an agency that is open to the public 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The agency has not adopted a policy on working hours. An employee without a fixed schedule usually works 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Since the employee does not have a fixed schedule the employee sometimes comes to work before 8:00 a.m. and sometimes after 8:00 a.m. Similarly, the employee may leave work before or after 5:00 p.m. Since the agency has not adopted a policy on working hours, this employee's working hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. In this agency employees without fixed schedules take leave during a month and then get written authorization for the leave at the end of the month. An employee takes leave Monday through Friday and assists in a campaign. At the end of the month the employee obtains written authorization for the leave. The employee has assisted in a campaign during working hours since the employee did not obtain written authorization prior to taking leave to assist in a campaign. To assist in a campaign while on leave, the employee must obtain written authorization prior to going on leave.

(7) The definition of working hours also includes any time an officer or employee is actually working. For an officer or employee with a fixed schedule, working hours includes overtime when the officer or employee is working additional hours other than those in the fixed schedule. For an officer or employee without a fixed schedule, working hours include any time the officer or employee is working.

Example 9: An employee works for an agency that is open to the public 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The agency has not adopted a policy on working hours. An employee without a fixed schedule usually works 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Since the employee does not have a fixed schedule, the employee sometimes comes to work before 8:00 a.m. and sometimes after 8:00 a.m. Similarly, the employee may leave work before or after 5:00 p.m. Since the agency has not adopted a policy on working hours, this employee's working hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. On a Monday the employee works from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Even though the employees working hours are 8:00 to 5:00 the time spent working between 5:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. are working hours because the employee is working for the agency during this time.

(8) The governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of public lands, and the insurance commissioner are state officers in the executive branch subject to RCW 42.52.180. These officers are elected to office and hold office for a term of four years and until their successors are elected and qualified. Since these officers are elected to a term of office, they do not have working hours and may assist in a campaign at any time. However, if these officers do assist in a campaign, they may not make use of any facilities of an agency except as provided in RCW 42.52.180(2).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.180(1) and 42.52.360 (2)(b). 96-22-030, § 292-110-020, filed 10/30/96, effective 11/30/96.]

WAC 292-110-030 Measurable expenditure. (1) RCW 42.52.180(1) provides that no state officer or state employee may use or authorize the use of facilities of an agency, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of assisting a campaign for election of a person to an office or for the promotion of or opposition to a ballot proposition. Facilities of an agency include, but are not limited to, use of stationery, postage, machines and equipment, use of state employees during working hours, vehicles, office space, publications of the agency, and clientele lists of persons served by the agency.

(2) RCW 42.52.180(2) sets forth exceptions to the prohibition in RCW 42.52.180(1). The exceptions include a statement by an elected official in support of or in opposition to any ballot proposition at an open press conference or in response to a specific inquiry without an actual measurable expenditure of public funds (RCW 42.52.180 (2)(b)); activities that are part of the normal and regular conduct of the office (RCW 42.52.180 (2)(c)); and de minimis use of public facilities by state-wide elected officials incidental to the preparation or delivery of permissible communications initiated by the official regarding the official's views on a ballot proposition that may foreseeably affect a matter that falls within the official's constitutional or statutory responsibilities (RCW 42.52.180 (2)(d)).

(3) Elected officials regularly expend public funds to respond to inquiries from the media, constituents and other persons on matters unrelated to ballot propositions. RCW 42.52.180 (2)(b) permits elected officials to respond to such inquiries regarding ballot propositions without an actual measurable expenditure of public funds. For purposes of RCW 42.52.180 (2)(b) measurable expenditure means an expenditure or separately identifiable cost or specific portion of a cost incurred by the agency beyond the normal and regular expenditures or costs incurred by the agency in responding to inquiries from the media, constituents and other persons on matters unrelated to ballot propositions.

Example 1: A statewide elected official conducts a press conference in state office space. During the conference the official is asked about a ballot proposition. The subject of the ballot proposition does not fall within the normal and regular conduct of the official's agency nor within the official's constitutional or statutory responsibilities. The official replies to the question explaining his or her opinion on the ballot proposition and the reason for the opinion. It is not an ethical violation to reply to such an inquiry. The use of state office space, during the time the official answers the question about the ballot proposition, does not result in a measurable expenditure of public funds. This is because the expenditure or cost of the office space during this period is not a separately identifiable cost.

Example 2: A statewide elected official receives a letter from a constituent asking for the official's position on a ballot proposition. The subject of the ballot proposition does not fall within the normal and regular conduct of the official's agency nor within the official's constitutional or statutory responsibilities. The official replies by letter explaining his or her opinion on the ballot proposition and the reason for the opinion. In the course of preparing the reply the official has the assistance of staff and uses office space, equipment, stationery and postage. It is not an ethical violation to reply to such an inquiry. There is no measurable expenditure of public funds because the agency has not incurred a cost beyond the normal and regular costs incurred by the agency in responding to inquiries from the media, constituents and other persons on matters unrelated to ballot propositions.

Example 3: A statewide elected official received a letter from a constituent asking for the official's position on a ballot proposition. The subject of the ballot proposition does not fall within the normal and regular conduct of the official's agency nor within the official's constitutional or statutory responsibilities. The official replies by letter explaining his or her opinion on the ballot proposition and the reason for the opinion. In the course of preparing the reply the official has the assistance of staff and uses office space, equipment, stationery and postage. The official sends copies of the reply to other individuals on the agency mailing list. This is an ethical violation. While it is permissible to reply to the constituent who inquired about the official's position (Example 1), it is improper to send copies of the response to others. There is a measurable expenditure of public funds because the cost of the paper and postage for the additional copies is a separate identifiable cost beyond the normal and regular costs incurred by the agency in responding to inquiries from the media, constituents and other persons on matters unrelated to ballot propositions.

Example 4: A statewide elected official writes a letter to the editor of a newspaper stating the official's position on a ballot proposition. The subject of the ballot proposition does not fall within the normal and regular conduct of the official's agency nor within the official's constitutional or statutory responsibilities. In the course of preparing the letter the official has the assistance of staff and uses office space, equipment, stationery and postage. This is an ethical violation. The official has used the facilities of the agency and the exception in RCW 42.52.180 (2)(b) does not apply because the official is not responding to an inquiry.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.180 (2)(b) and 42.52.360 (2)(b). 96-22-029, § 292-110-030, filed 10/30/96, effective 11/30/96.]

WAC 292-110-050 Advisory opinions. State officers and employees are encouraged to seek an advisory opinion whenever they have questions concerning ethical standards or potential conflicts of interest. Advisory opinions are intended to provide guidance to a state officer or state employee in advance of an action or decision and thereby prevent ethics violations.

(1) Whenever requested by a state officer, state employee, or other person, or whenever it deems it in the public interest, the board shall issue advisory opinions. Requests for advisory opinions, if not issued in response to a motion by the board, shall be written and signed, and addressed to either the chair of the board or the board secretary. Requests may be made by electronic mail. Each request should provide sufficient information and circumstances to enable the board to evaluate the request and issue the advisory opinion.

(2) Upon receiving a request for an advisory opinion, the board secretary shall, within fifteen calendar days of receipt, acknowledge the request. Persons requesting advisory opinions shall be notified of the status of the request at thirty day intervals until final action is taken.

(3) The board shall either:

(a) Deny the request and state the reason(s) for the denial; or,

(b) Issue a written advisory opinion.

(4) An advisory opinion is final when it has been approved by the board and is signed by the board secretary.

(5) A person requesting an advisory opinion may, upon receiving the opinion, petition the board for reconsideration within thirty days of the date the opinion is issued if the person believes that the opinion is erroneous in factual detail. A petition for reconsideration shall be written and signed, and shall briefly state the errors of fact. The board may deny the petition if it lacks merit, or if the person who submitted the request provided erroneous information to the board.

(6) If a state officer or state employee receives an advisory opinion and fails to make a good faith effort to follow its guidance, the board shall give this fact weight when considering a complaint alleging a violation based on the advice received.

(7) Informal staff analysis. It is the responsibility of the board secretary to provide ethics advice to any state officer, state employee, or other person; however, a state officer, state employee, or other person may only rely on written ethics advice. In providing such advice, the board secretary may issue a written nonbinding staff analysis. A nonbinding staff analysis is intended to provide ethics guidance and advice in an expeditious manner, but does not substitute for a formal advisory opinion from the board. The board secretary shall provide a disclaimer to the person requesting the nonbinding staff analysis that the advice is solely the opinion of the board secretary and not the opinion of the board or in any respect binding on the board. Only advisory opinions issued by the board and complaints decided by the board may be relied on for determining how the board will interpret a provision of the Ethics in Public Service Act.

(a) In considering a complaint alleging a violation, the board will give weight to the fact that the person charged in the complaint relied in good faith on written advice from the board secretary.

(b) The board may review staff analyses provided under this subsection and may approve or disapprove of any advice so provided. However, any such approval or disapproval is limited to whether staff had reasonable grounds for the advice and should not be interpreted as indicating approval or disapproval of the advice provided.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b) and (c). 98-03-045, § 292-110-050, filed 1/15/98, effective 2/15/98.]

WAC 292-110-060 Compensation for outside activities and contracting with state agencies. (1) The primary purpose of the Ethics in Public Service Act is to prevent conflicts of interest that impair the impartial and independent judgment of state officers and employees. A conflict of interest may occur when a state officer or state employee accepts compensation for outside activities, and acceptance conflicts with the performance of official duties on behalf of the state and the citizens of Washington. Conflicts of interest occur whenever a state officer or state employee has a beneficial interest in a transaction with the state; accepts outside compensation for the performance or non-performance of an official duty; or, accepts or seeks outside compensation relating to a matter in which the officer or employee participated in an official capacity. A conflict of interest extends to those matters in which a state officer or employee exercises responsibility. Potential conflicts of interest relating to the receipt of compensation for outside activities may be resolved by seeking the review and prior approval of the executive ethics board.

2) A state officer or employee may not receive anything of economic value under a contract or grant outside his or her official duties unless each of the following conditions is met:

(a) The contract or grant is legitimate and actually performed;

(b) The contract or grant is not within the state officer's or employee's official duties, is not under his or her supervision; is not created or authorized by the state officer or employee in an official capacity, and is not within an area of his or her official responsibility;

(c) The contract or grant is not performed for nor compensated by a person from whom the state officer or employee would not be able to accept a gift; and,

(d) The contract or grant would not require the disclosure of confidential or nonpublic information.

(3) A state officer or employee may not engage in a business or transaction or professional activity, or incur an obligation of any nature if such activities may conflict with the proper discharge of official duties.

(4) A state officer or employee may not enter into a contract or receive a grant, or have a beneficial interest in a contract or grant with a state agency unless all conditions in section two are met, and one of the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The contract bid or grant application is awarded through an open and competitive bidding process and more than one bid or grant application is received; or

(b) If only one bid or application is received, or the process for awarding the contract or grant was not open and competitive, and the executive ethics board has advised that the employee's interest in the contract or grant is not in conflict with the proper discharge of the employee's official duties.

(5) Provided that the conditions in sections two and three are met, the following contracts are approved by the executive ethics board:

(a) A contract or grant whereby the state officer or state employee receives assistance through state programs or federal programs administered by the state when they are entitled to receive such assistance by law and on the same basis as similarly situated citizens, and when the officer or employee does not exercise discretionary judgement with regard to an assistance program for which he or she is otherwise eligible;

(b) A contract to perform teaching duties at a bona fide community college, vocational-technical school, or institution of higher learning, provided no state resources are used to perform the duties; there is no conflict with the performance of official duties; and the state officer or state employee did not use his or her official position to influence the contract of employment; and,

(c) A contract held by a spouse, in which the officer or employee has a beneficial interest, with a state agency, provided that the officer or employee did not participate in the contract.

(d) An employee who has a contract or grant or a beneficial interest therein which is approved by the board under section (5)(a)-(c) of this rule is not required to file a separate application for approval of the contract under section (6). However, the employee is responsible for determining that the criteria in sections (2) and (3) are satisfied.

(e) An employee who is awarded a contract or grant under section (5)(a)-(c) of this rule shall file a copy of the contract with the board. However, if the employee's only interest is a beneficial interest, the contract need not be filed with the board.

(6) State officers and employees seeking the approval of the board for a contract, grant application, or outside employment shall provide the following information to the board secretary no later than thirty days prior to the commencement of the contract:

(a) A description of current official duties and responsibilities;

(b) A statement of the work to be performed and, a copy of the contract;

(c) The duration and dollar value of the contract, if applicable;

(d) A statement that no state resources will be used to perform the outside employment or to fulfill the contract or grant; and,

(e) A description of how the work will be performed without the use of state resources.

(7) The board secretary shall review the contract or grant application terms and related documents and may determine whether there could be a potential conflict. If the board secretary determines:

(a) There would be no potential conflict under sections two and three of this rule, the board secretary shall approve the contract or grant application.

(b) There could be a potential conflict under sections two and three of this rule, the board secretary shall refer the contract or grant application to the board for approval or disapproval.

(8) If a contract has been amended or the scope of work altered, and the effect of the amendment or alteration may create a potential conflict of interest under sections two and three of this rule, the employee must resubmit the contract to the board at least fifteen days prior to commencement of work under the amended or altered contract.

(9) If a series of substantially identical contracts or grants with a state agency is anticipated, the state officer or employee may request that the board preapprove such contracts or grants. Preapproval shall be effective for the period of one calendar year, after which the state officer or employee shall resubmit the request.

(10) The board secretary shall provide written notice of any action on a contract bid, grant application or request for outside employment within fifteen working days of the board's action.

(11) Final contracts reviewed under this rule shall be filed with the board secretary within thirty days of execution.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.52.360 (2)(b), 98-04-001, § 292-110-060, filed 1/21/98, effective 2/21/98.]

WAC 292-130-020 Function—Organization—Office. The executive ethics board was created by chapter 42.52 RCW to enforce the state's ethics law and rules adopted under it with respect to state-wide elected officers and all other officers and employees in the executive branch, boards and commissions, and institutions of higher education.

The executive ethics board consists of five members, appointed by the governor as follows: One member shall be a classified service employee; one member shall be a state officer or state employee in an exempt position; one member shall be a citizen selected from a list of three names submitted by the attorney general; one member shall be a citizen selected from a list of three names submitted by the state auditor; and, one member shall be a citizen at large selected by the governor.

The board's administrative office is located at 1125 Washington Street SE, 6th Floor, P.O. Box 40100, Olympia, Washington, 98504-0100. The office hours are 8:00 a.m. to noon and 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday except legal holidays and during regularly scheduled board meetings.

- (1) Complaints received by the board are indexed by year, number, name of the respondent and agency.
- (2) Whistleblower referrals from the state auditor are indexed by whistleblower case number.
- (3) Contract approvals are filed by year and name of the state employee.
- (4) Agency ethics policies are filed by agency name.
