WAC 132G-120-010 Student conduct code—Preamble. Admission to the college carries with it the expectation that students will conduct themselves as responsible members of the academic community. This includes the expectation that students will obey the law; comply with the rules and regulations of the college; maintain high standards of integrity and honesty; respect the rights, privileges, and property of other members of the college community; and will not interfere with college operations.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13), 01-13-065, § 132G-120-010, filed 6/18/01, effective 7/19/01. Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.130 and 28B.50.140, 83-07-020 (Order 49:83), § 132G-120-010, filed 3/11/83; Order 1-35:72, § 132G-120-010, filed 11/29/72, effective 1/1/73.]

WAC 132G-120-015 Grounds for discipline. Student activity or behavior which violates any provision of the college conduct code is not acceptable; yet, an individual who enrolls at the college can rightfully expect that the instructors and administrators will exercise with restraint the power of the college to regulate student behavior, and that rules and regulations will be adopted only when the education process clearly and directly requires such legislation. However, restrictive rules and regulations will not be made without showing relevance to those conditions toward which they apply. The enforcement of these rules and regulations shall be fair and shall be pursued in accordance with regulations governing student conduct. Sanctions, up to and including expulsion from the college, may be imposed for failure to satisfy the expectations stated above. These sanctions will determine whether, and under what conditions, the violator may continue at the college.

(1) Upon enrollment, students assume responsibilities that include, but are not limited to:

(c) Complying with the rules, regulations, procedures, policies, standards of conduct, and orders of Shoreline Community College, as outlined in various college publications such as the college catalog, the student guidebook and the college policy manual. Copies of the college catalog, the student guidebook and the college policy manual are available at the college library during normal business hours.

(2) Specific instances of misconduct for which the college will impose sanctions include, but are not limited to:

(a) Acts of dishonesty, including, but not limited to:

(i) Cheating, plagiarism or other forms of academic dishonesty as outlined in college Policy 5033;

(ii) Furnishing false information to any college official, faculty member, or office;

(iii) Forgery, alteration or misuse of any college document, record or instrument of identification;

(iv) Tampering with the election process or outcome of any recognized student organization; and

(v) Violations of copyright laws.

(b) Conduct constituting a sexual offense or sexual harassment as defined by law. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

(i) Such conduct implicitly or explicitly suggests that submission to or rejection of the conduct will be a factor in academic or employment decisions or evaluations or permission to participate in a college activity; or

(ii) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic or work performance or creating an intimidating or hostile academic or work environment.

(c) Malicious damage to or malicious misuse of college property or the property of any person where such property is located on the college campus.

(d) The intentional obstruction or disruption of teaching, learning, research, administration, disciplinary proceedings,
