(b) The maximum period for repayment shall be ten years, with payments of principal and interest accruing quarterly, commencing the first quarter following the completion of recipient's grace period or loan deferral period, whichever date is later.

(11) Collection of repayments:
(a) The board is responsible for collection of repayments made and shall exercise due diligence in such collection, maintaining all necessary records to ensure that maximum repayments are made.
(b) The board is responsible to forgive all or parts of such repayments under the criteria established by the board and shall maintain all necessary records of forgiven payments.

(12) Establishment of loan account. All appropriations, receipts from the payment of the principal or interest, and any other subsidies to which the board as administrator is entitled which are paid by or on behalf of recipients under this section, shall be deposited with the board in the account authorized by RCW 28B.102.060. It shall be used to cover the costs of granting the conditional scholarships, maintaining necessary records and making collections. The board shall maintain accurate records of these costs, and all receipts beyond those necessary to pay such costs shall be used to grant conditional scholarships to eligible students.

APPEALS

WAC
251-12-600 Remedial action.

WAC 251-12-600 Remedial action. (1) The director may take remedial action when it is determined that the following conditions exist.

(a) The hiring institution has made an appointment that does not comply with higher education personnel rules.
(b) The employee has worked in one or more positions for more than one thousand fifty hours in any twelve consecutive month period since the original hire date or October 1, 1989, whichever is later. (These hours do not include overtime or work time as described in WAC 251-04-040(3)).
(c) The position or positions are subject to civil service.
(d) The employee has not taken part in any willful failure to comply with these rules.

(2) Remedial action includes the power to confer permanent status, set salary, establish seniority, and determine benefits accrued from the seniority date. Remedial action also includes other actions the director may require to meet the highest personnel standards.

(3) If the institution has complied with WAC 251-19-122, the employee must:
(a) Submit any request for remedial action in writing; and
(b) File the request within thirty calendar days after the effective date of the alleged violation of the conditions of employment which are to be specified in the written notification of temporary appointment.

(4) The director's order for remedial action shall be final and binding unless exceptions are filed with the personnel appeals board within thirty calendar days of the date of service of the order. Exceptions must state the specific items of the order to which exception is taken. The personnel appeals board will review the exceptions and may hold a hearing prior to modifying or affirming the director's order.

262-01-130 Tax credit program.

WAC 262-01-110 Contents of the qualified allocation plan. (1) The commission shall adopt a qualified allocation plan as required under section 42 of the code (the "plan"), which shall:

(a) Set forth selection criteria to be used to determine housing priorities of the commission which are appropriate to local conditions;
(b) Give preference in allocating housing credit dollar amounts among projects that:
   (i) Serve the lowest income tenants;
   (ii) Are obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest periods; and
   (iii) Are located in qualified census tracts and the development of which will contribute to a concerted community revitalization plan; and
(c) Provide a procedure which the commission shall follow in monitoring projects for noncompliance and for notifying the Internal Revenue Service of such noncompliance and in monitoring for noncompliance with habitability standards through regular site visits.

(2) The plan shall include the following selection criteria among others, for allocating housing credit dollar amounts:
   Project location, housing needs characteristics, project characteristics (including whether the project includes the use of existing housing as part of a community revitalization plan), sponsor characteristics, tenant populations with special needs, use of public housing waiting lists, tenant populations of individuals with children, projects intended for eventual tenant ownership, project feasibility, and viability as a low-income housing project.

WAC 262-01-130 Tax credit program. (1) Applicants for tax credit shall submit a completed application in the form prescribed by the commission and the required application fee by the deadline set by the commission each year. The commission will not accept additional information or material changes to an application except as allowed during a prescribed correction period.

(2) As part of its application, each applicant shall submit, among other things:
