WAC 132L-276-080 Requests for public records. In accordance with requirements of chapter 42.17 RCW that agencies prevent unreasonable invasions of privacy, protect public records from damage or disorganization, and prevent excessive interference with essential functions of the agency, public records may be inspected or copied or copies of such records may be obtained, by members of the public, upon compliance with the following procedures:

All fees must be paid by money order, cashier's check, or cash in advance.

(2) Copies shall be made at Centralia College. If copying facilities are not available at the college, the college will arrange to have copies made commercially according to the provisions of WAC 132L-276-090. The public records officer or designee of Centralia College shall make the copies.

The college also reserves the right not to disclose records consistent with specific exemptions identified in chapter 42.17 RCW. The public records officer and/or his designee will fully justify such deletion in writing.

(3) All denials of requests for public records must be accompanied by a written statement specifying the reason for the denial, including a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

WAC 132L-276-110 Review of denials of public records requests. (1) Any person who objects to the denial of a request for a public record may petition for prompt review of such decision by tendering a written request for review. The written request shall specifically refer to the written statement by the public records officer and/or his or her designee which constituted or accompanied the denial.

(2) Immediately after receiving a written request for review of a decision denying a public record, the public records officer and/or his designee denying the request shall refer it to the district president. The college president or his or her designee shall immediately consider the matter and either affirm or reverse such denial or consult with the attorney general to review the denial. In any case, the request shall be returned with a final decision, within five business days following the original denial.

Chapter 132L-300 WAC

DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINT PROCESS

WAC 132L-300-010 General policy. It is the policy of Centralia College to assure equal opportunity and nondiscrimination on the basis of race or ethnicity, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status, sexual orientation, age, religion, the presence of any sensory, mental or physical disability, and status as a disabled veteran or Vietnam-era veteran or veteran of a uniformed service.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 34.05 RCW. 04-19-062, § 132L-300-010, filed 9/15/04, effective 10/16/04.]

WAC 132L-300-020 Applicability. This policy applies to any member of the Centralia College community. The Centralia College community is defined to include, but not be limited to: Students and any other individuals enrolled or seeking enrollment at the college; employees and any other individuals seeking employment at the college; vendors and other providers of service to the college; and other users of college services.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 34.05 RCW. 04-19-062, § 132L-300-020, filed 9/15/04, effective 10/16/04.]

WAC 132L-300-030 Right to complain. Any member of the college community has the right to make a complaint against the college that alleges violation of the general policy described in WAC 132L-300-010 or that alleges violations of any federal, state, municipal, or college law, regulation, policy, order, or directive that prohibits discrimination. This complaint process covers sexual harassment, as a form of illegal discrimination. Copies of Centralia College's sexual harassment policy are available from the offices of either the equal opportunity officer or the chief student judicial affairs officer. Complaints may be informal or formal. In addition, any member of the Centralia College community has the right to file a complaint of discrimination with the appropriate state or federal agency. A complainant has the right of professional assistance at his or her own expense.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 34.05 RCW. 04-19-062, § 132L-300-030, filed 9/15/04, effective 10/16/04.]

WAC 132L-300-040 Protection from retaliation. No individual shall be penalized or retaliated against in any way by a member of the college community for initiating a complaint.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 34.05 RCW. 04-19-062, § 132L-300-040, filed 9/15/04, effective 10/16/04.]

WAC 132L-300-050 Informal complaint procedure. An informal complaint may be initiated in one of two ways:

(1) All persons covered by this policy are encouraged to discuss the matter with the appropriate administrator. The complaint may be concluded by mutual consent at this point. The administrator must submit a brief description of the facts to the equal opportunity officer of the college for maintaining a confidential record.

(2) As an alternative to subsection (1) of this section or, if subsection (1) of this section fails, the complainant may consult informally with the equal opportunity officer, if the complaint is about an employee, or with the chief student judicial affairs officer, if the complaint is about a student. The equal opportunity officer or chief student judicial affairs officer will provide advice and intervention in confidence, where appropriate.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 34.05 RCW. 04-19-062, § 132L-300-050, filed 9/15/04, effective 10/16/04.]

WAC 132L-300-060 Outcomes of the informal complaint process. Informal complaints may have several outcomes. The person raising the issue may only want to discuss the matter with a neutral party in order to clarify whether discrimination may be occurring and to determine his or her options, including the pursuit of more formal options. In such a situation the equal opportunity officer or chief student judicial affairs officer will give assistance and offer suggestions as to how the issue might be resolved, without drawing a conclusion as to whether illegal discrimination has occurred. In other cases the equal opportunity officer or chief student judicial affairs officer may be asked to act as a mediator, to talk to the alleged offending person to see whether an informal resolution of the issue can be reached. In the case of an employee, the supervisor of the alleged offending person may be notified that an informal complaint has been received, but that no investigation has taken place. If this process reaches resolution, no further actions will be taken and the matter will be closed. Issues not resolved may require that further inquiries be made and/or that the appropriate administrator take a more active role in finding a solution to the problem.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 34.05 RCW. 04-19-062, § 132L-300-060, filed 9/15/04, effective 10/16/04.]

WAC 132L-300-070 Time limit for formal complaint procedures. Formal complaints must be submitted within six months of the most recent alleged discriminatory act, preferably within thirty days, in order to help ensure effective investigation and corrective action.

A copy of this code is available from the chief student judicial affairs officer. The president will provide a written copy of the complaint to the individual against whom the complaint is lodged.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 34.05 RCW. 04-19-062, § 132L-300-085, filed 9/15/04, effective 10/16/04.]

WAC 132L-300-090 Outcomes of the formal complaint process. (1) Within fifteen days after receipt of a complaint, the equal opportunity officer will consult with the complainant, the appropriate administrator, the person against whom the complaint is made and/or other appropriate persons, in an attempt to resolve the matter and/or to determine whether further investigation is warranted. Every effort will be made to report the findings within sixty days of receipt of the written complaint. If for any reason, an extension is necessary, the complainant will be informed in writing of the reasons for the extension, the status of the investigation, and the probable date of completion.

(2) If the investigating officer determines that corrective action is needed, that officer will initiate discussions with the appropriate administrator to resolve the complaint. A formal investigation can be terminated at any time should a satisfactory resolution be reached before a written finding is made.

(3) Upon completion of the investigation, the investigating officer will notify in writing the complainant and the appropriate administrator of the findings and recommendations.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 34.05 RCW. 04-19-062, § 132L-300-090, filed 9/15/04, effective 10/16/04.]

WAC 132L-300-100 Complainant appeal process. If the complainant disputes the findings or is dissatisfied with the recommendations, he or she may appeal such findings by filing a complaint with an outside agency within its established time limits.
