WAC 357-46-012 governs layoff actions resulting from the competitive contracting process as described in Title 236 WAC.

WAC 357-43-008 What happens if an employee chooses to not be a part of the employee business unit?
When an employee chooses to not be a part of the employee business unit, the following applies:

1. If the employee chooses to not be a part of the employee business unit before the employer's notification of the intent to award the contract to the employee business unit (as described in WAC 236-51-600), the employee has layoff rights in accordance with WAC 357-46-012.

2. If the employee chooses to not be a part of the employee business unit after the employer's notification of the intent to award the contract to the employee business unit (as described in WAC 236-51-600), the employee has no layoff rights under chapter 357-46 WAC and is considered to have resigned when his/her position is eliminated.

WAC 357-46-012 Following the award of a contract under the competitive contracting process (as described in Title 236 WAC), how does an employer lay off employees whose positions are being eliminated due to the awarded contract? (1) If an employee business unit as defined by WAC 357-43-001 is not awarded the contract, all employees whose positions are being eliminated are subject to the employer's layoff procedure when the positions are eliminated or reduced.

2. Employees whose positions are being eliminated who are not part of the employee business unit awarded the contract are subject to the employer's layoff procedure when the employees' positions are eliminated or reduced. (See WAC 357-43-008 for what happens if an employee chooses to not be a part of the employee business unit.)

WAC 357-46-020 What must be included in the employer's layoff procedure? The employer's layoff procedure must:

8. Describe how employment retention ratings will be calculated, including options for factoring performance into ratings; and

9. Specify how the employer will break ties when more than one employee has the same employment retention rating.
