WAC 132M-300-001 Statement of policy. Lower Columbia College is covered by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibiting sex discrimination in education and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 prohibiting discrimination on the basis of handicap. It is the policy of Lower Columbia College to provide equal opportunity in all areas of admission, education, application for employment, and employment regardless of sex or handicap status.

It is also the policy of Lower Columbia College to provide an environment in which members of the college community can work or study free from sexual harassment or sexual intimidation. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination. As such, it is a violation of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments.

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

(1) Submission to such conduct is made, either explicitly or implicitly, a term or condition of an individual's employment or academic advancement or standing; and/or

(2) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or academic decisions affecting such individual; and/or

(3) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or academic environment.

WAC 132M-300-010 Grievance procedure. (1) Any applicant for admission, enrolled student, applicant for employment, or employee of Lower Columbia College who believes he/she has been discriminated against on the basis of sex or on the basis of a handicap may lodge a formal institutional grievance according to the following procedure:

(a) Step 1: Informal meeting. In an attempt to informally resolve the concern, the complainant may request a meeting with the individual believed to have committed the discriminatory act or with the appropriate supervisor as determined by the affirmative action officer. The time period in which attempts to informally resolve the concern are made shall not exceed thirty days from the time the complaint is lodged.

(b) Step 2: Official hearing. If not satisfied by the results of the informal meeting or if the informal meeting has been waived, the complainant may request a meeting with the college affirmative action officer.

(i) The request for an official hearing must be made in writing and must set forth the specific grievance(s) raised by the complainant.

(ii) Within thirty calendar days of receiving the written request, the college affirmative action officer shall arrange a meeting to hear the complaint. It shall be at the discretion of the complainant to determine whether the affirmative action officer will meet with the complainant and the person to whom the complaint has been directed separately or in a single meeting. If the complainant requests a single meeting, the meeting shall be attended by the complainant, the person to whom the complaint is directed, and the affirmative action officer, who shall chair the meeting.

(iii) Following the hearing and within thirty calendar days of receiving the written request, the affirmative action officer will report his/her findings in writing to both the complainant and the person to whom the complaint has been directed.

(c) Step 3: Presidential appeal. If the complaint is not resolved as a result of the hearing conducted by the affirmative action officer, either the complainant or the person to whom the complaint has been directed may request an appeal to the college president.

(i) The request must be made in writing within ten days after receipt of the written results of the official hearing.

(ii) Within fifteen days after receiving the request, the college president or the president's designee will conduct the presidential appeal hearing and report the findings in writing to both the complainant and the person to whom the complaint is directed.

(iii) Attendance at the presidential appeal hearing shall be limited to the college president or his/her designee, the affirmative action officer, the complainant, and the person to whom the complaint is directed unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties. The college president or his/her designee shall preside.

(iv) Either the complainant or the person to whom the complaint is directed may call witnesses at the discretion of the person presiding.

(v) The written findings of the presidential appeal will be considered final. No further intrainstitutional appeal exists.
