Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.41.408. WSR 84-14-038 (Order 84-21), § 392-162-005, filed 6/28/84.]

WAC 392-162-010 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to set forth policies and procedures for the administration of and to ensure district compliance with state requirements for a program designed to assist underachieving students in grades kindergarten through twelve who score below standard in reading, writing, and mathematics for his or her grade level.

The learning assistance program requirements in this chapter are designed to:

(1) Direct districts as they implement a learning assistance program that learning assistance program funds must first be used to address the needs of students in grades kindergarten through four who are deficient in reading or reading readiness skills to improve reading literacy;

(2) Promote the use of data when developing programs to assist underachieving students and reduce disruptive behaviors in the classroom;

(3) Guide school districts in providing the most effective and efficient practices when implementing supplemental instruction and services to assist underachieving students and reduce disruptive behaviors in the classroom; and

(4) Guide school districts in providing extended learning opportunities to assist underachieving students and students in grades eleven and twelve who are at risk of not meeting state and local graduation requirements.

WAC 392-162-015 Definition—Basic skills. As used in this chapter, the term "basic skills" means reading, writing, and mathematics, as well as readiness associated with these skills.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.300.070. WSR 07-02-015, § 392-162-015, filed 12/21/06, effective 1/21/07. Statutory Authority: 1987 c 478. WSR 87-22-001 (Order 87-14), § 392-162-015, filed 10/22/87. Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.41.408. WSR 84-14-038 (Order 84-21), § 392-162-015, filed 6/28/84.]

WAC 392-162-020 Definition—Learning assistance program (LAP). As used in this chapter, the term "learning assistance program" means a statewide program designed to enhance educational opportunities for public school students in grades kindergarten through twelve who do not meet state reading, writing, and mathematics standards by providing supplemental instruction and services to those students. School districts implementing a learning assistance program must first focus on addressing the needs of students in grades kindergarten through four who are deficient in reading or reading readiness skills. The learning assistance program may then be used to support underachieving students in grades kindergarten through twelve by providing supplemental reading, writing, or mathematics instruction, by addressing the needs of eleventh and twelfth grade students to assist them in meeting state and district graduation requirements, and to reduce disruptive behaviors in the classroom.

WAC 392-162-033 Definition—Underachieving students. As used in this chapter, the term "underachieving students" means students with the greatest academic deficits in basic skills as identified by statewide, school, or district assessments or other performance tools.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.165.075. WSR 14-08-067, § 392-162-033, filed 3/31/14, effective 5/1/14; WSR 08-21-053, § 392-162-033, filed 10/9/08, effective 11/9/08. Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.300.070. WSR 07-02-015, § 392-162-033, filed 12/21/06, effective 1/21/07.]

WAC 392-162-036 Definition—Extended learning opportunities. As used in this chapter the term "extended learning opportunities" means a program of learning assistance in addition to the required basic education instruction designed to improve the educational performance of underachieving students selected under WAC 392-162-080. The minimum allocation for the learning assistance program shall provide an extended school day and extended school year for each level of school and a per student allocation for maintenance, supplies, and operating costs.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.165.075. WSR 09-24-075, § 392-162-036, filed 11/30/09, effective 12/31/09; WSR 08-21-053, § 392-162-036, filed 10/9/08, effective 11/9/08.]

WAC 392-162-041 Best practices. Best practices as identified by the office of superintendent of public instruction are to be used to provide learning assistance program educational instructional materials and strategies to identified learning assistance students. The practices implemented must be research-based and have demonstrated that the practice has increased student academic success. During the 2013-14 and 2014-15 school years, districts may select from the following:

- (1) Extended learning opportunities occurring:
  - (a) Before or after the regular school day;
  - (b) On Saturday; and
  - (c) Beyond the regular school year.
- (2) Services under RCW 28A.320.190.
- (3) Professional development for certificated and classified staff that focuses on:
  - (a) The needs of a diverse student population;
  - (b) Specific literacy and mathematics content and instructional strategies; and
  - (c) The use of student work to guide effective instruction and appropriate assistance.
- (4) Consultant teachers to assist in implementing effective instructional practices by teachers serving participating students.
- (5) Tutoring support for participating students.
- (6) Outreach activities and support for parents of participating students, including employing parent and family engagement coordinators.

(7) Up to five percent of district's learning assistance program allocation may be used for development of partnerships with community-based organizations, educational service districts, and other local agencies to deliver academic and nonacademic supports to participating students who are significantly at-risk of not being successful in school to reduce barriers to learning, increase student engagement, and enhance students' readiness to learn. The office of the superintendent of public instruction must approve any community-based organization or local agency before learning assistance program funds may be expended.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.165.075. WSR 14-08-067, § 392-162-041, filed 3/31/14, effective 5/1/14.]

WAC 392-162-051 District selection of best practices and strategies for use in the learning assistance program. Beginning in the 2016-17 school year districts must select a practice or strategy that is on the state-approved menu for the learning assistance program. School districts may enter into cooperative agreements with state agencies, local governments, or school districts for administrative or operational costs needed to provide services in accordance with the state menus developed beginning in 2016-17.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.165.075. WSR 14-08-067, § 392-162-051, filed 3/31/14, effective 5/1/14.]

WAC 392-162-054 Definition—District eligibility and distribution of funds. The funds for the learning assistance program shall be appropriated in accordance with the Omnibus Appropriations Act and RCW 28A.150.260. The distribution formula is for school district allocation purposes only, but funds appropriated for the learning assistance program must be expended for the purposes of RCW 28A.165.-005 through 28A.165.065 and for chapter 28A.655 RCW. A school district's funded students for the learning assistance program shall be the sum of the district's full-time equivalent enrollment in grades K-12 for the prior school year multiplied by the district's percentage of October headcount enrollment in grades K-12 eligible for free or reduced price lunch in the prior school year.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.165.075. WSR 14-08-067, § 392-162-054, filed 3/31/14, effective 5/1/14; WSR 09-24-075, § 392-162-054, filed 11/30/09, effective 12/31/09; WSR 08-21-053, § 392-162-054, filed 10/9/08, effective 11/9/08. Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.300.070. WSR 07-02-015, § 392-162-054, filed 12/21/06, effective 1/21/07.]

WAC 392-162-056 Exception to state-approved selection of best practices and strategies for use in the learning assistance program. Beginning in the 2016-17 school year, school districts may use a practice or strategy that is not on the state menu for two years. At the end of the two years, the district must be able to demonstrate improved outcomes for participating learning assistance program students. If the district is able to demonstrate improved outcomes commensurate with the state approved menu for such students, the office of the superintendent of public instruction will approve the use of the alternative practice for one additional year. For each subsequent year, the district must provide data that demonstrates that participating students are meeting or exceeding academic achievement compared to those students who are being served by a state approved best practices and strategy.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.165.075. WSR 14-08-067, § 392-162-056, filed 3/31/14, effective 5/1/14.]

WAC 392-162-080 Program requirement—Selection of students. Students selected to participate in the learning assistance program shall be limited to those who:

- (1) Are enrolled in grades kindergarten through twelve;
- (2) Who score below standard for his or her grade level using multiple measures of performance, including on the statewide student assessments or other assessments and performance measurement tools administered by the school or district and who is identified by the district to receive services; and
- (3) Are in grades eleven or twelve and are at risk of not meeting state or local graduation requirements as defined in RCW 28A.320.190.

9/12/95, effective 10/13/95; WSR 87-22-001 (Order 87-14), § 392-162-080, filed 10/22/87. Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.41.408. WSR 84-14-038 (Order 84-21), § 392-162-080, filed 6/28/84.]

WAC 392-162-100 Program coordination. School districts may coordinate federal, state, and local programs in order to serve the maximum number of students who are below grade level in basic skills. Students receiving assistance in another special needs program may also be served in the learning assistance program if they meet student eligibility and selection requirements as identified in WAC 392-162-032 and 392-162-080.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.300.070. WSR 07-02-015, § 392-162-100, filed 12/21/06, effective 1/21/07. Statutory Authority: 1987 c 478. WSR 87-22-001 (Order 87-14), § 392-162-100, filed 10/22/87. Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.41.408. WSR 84-14-038 (Order 84-21), § 392-162-100, filed 6/28/84.]

WAC 392-162-110 Program requirement—Annual report. Districts shall submit to the superintendent of public instruction by August 1, 2014, and each August 1st thereafter, an annual report on electronic forms provided by the superintendent of public instruction. The report must include the following:

- (1) The amount of academic growth gained by students participating in the learning assistance program;
- (2) The number of students who gain at least one year of academic growth; and
- (3) The specific practices, activities, and programs used by each school building that received learning assistance program funds.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.165.075. WSR 14-08-067, § 392-162-110, filed 3/31/14, effective 5/1/14. Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.300.070. WSR 84-14-038 (Order 84-21), § 392-162-110, filed 6/28/84.]

WAC 392-162-112 Carry over of funds. Districts may carry over from one year to the next up to ten percent of the LAP funds—state or education legacy trust funds allocated under this program; however, carry over funds shall be expended for the learning assistance program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28A.300.070. WSR 07-02-015, § 392-162-112, filed 12/21/06, effective 1/21/07.]

WAC 392-162-115 Monitoring of districts. In order to insure that school districts are meeting the requirements of this chapter, the superintendent of public instruction shall monitor learning assistance programs no less than once every four years by using the state program review process. The primary purpose of the monitoring is to evaluate the effectiveness of a district's allocation and expenditure of resources and to monitor school district fidelity in their implementation of best practices. Individual student records shall be recorded beginning with the 2014-15 school year, in the statewide individual student data system annual entrance and exit performance data for each student participating in the learning assistance program according to specifications established by the office of the superintendent of public instruction.
