

WAC 132G-140-070 Withholding of transcripts and registration privileges. The college may withhold transcripts and deny registration privileges to any student who has failed to fulfill a financial obligation to the college. Such obligations include, but are not limited to, the payment of the following fees and fines:

- (1) Application fees;
- (2) General tuition and fees;
- (3) Charges for credit hour changes;
- (4) Transcript fees;
- (5) Laboratory fees;
- (6) Parking fines;
- (7) Library fines;
- (8) Short-term loans;
- (9) Nursing loans;
- (10) National direct student loans.

In addition, transcripts may be withheld and/or registration privileges denied based upon failure to complete required exit interviews with the office of financial aid and failure to return borrowed college property, including college library books.
