

WAC 388-827-0155 How will DDA send my state supplementary payment? (1) You may choose to have DDA send your state supplementary payment through:

- (a) Electronic funds transfer; or
- (b) The U.S. Postal Service.

(2) If you are under age eighteen, the developmental disabilities administration (DDA) sends your supplementary payment to your representative payee.

(3) If you are age eighteen or older, DDA sends your state supplementary payment to your representative payee if you have one. If you do not have a representative payee, DDA will send your state supplementary payment directly to you.
