

WAC 388-891A-0265 What is a prehearing meeting? After you submit a request for a fair hearing, DVR offers you a prehearing meeting. The prehearing meeting may be conducted in person, by telephone, or by another method agreeable to all parties. The purpose of the prehearing meeting is to:

- (1) Clarify the decision with which you disagree;
- (2) Exchange copies of laws, rules, or other information to be presented in the fair hearing;
- (3) Explain how the fair hearing is conducted; and
- (4) Settle the disagreement, if possible.
