

WAC 132J-164-050 Students waiving right to review records. (1)

A student may waive his/her right to review his/her record and confidential statements. This waiver would normally be given for records such as those involving, but not limited to, confidential recommendations, admissions to other institutions, honorary recognition, application for employment, etc.

(2) Written waivers shall state which record may be examined and for what purposes.

[Order 77-3, § 132J-164-050, filed 8/30/77.]