

WAC 173-22-055 Conflicts between designations and criteria. In the event that any of the shoreland designations in a shoreline master program conflict with the criteria set forth in this chapter the criteria shall control. The boundary of the designated shoreland areas shall be governed by the criteria set forth in WAC 173-22-040 except that the local government must amend the local master program to reflect the new designation within three years of the discovery of the discrepancy.
