

WAC 246-840-581 Early remediation program purpose. WAC 246-840-582 and 246-840-583 establish the early remediation program and its eligibility criteria and procedures. The intent of this program is to effectively and efficiently protect patients by resolving allegations of practice deficiencies of a less serious nature through a plan of remedial education, training, and supervision. Such allegations may not include substance abuse or drug diversions. The nursing care quality assurance commission may resolve allegations of practice deficiencies through early remediation during an investigation.
