

WAC 132B-125-310 Groups and organizations. Recognized student groups and organizations may be charged with violations of this code. Such a group or organization and its officers may be held collectively or individually responsible when violations of this code by those associated with the group or organization have received the tacit or overt consent or encouragement of the organization, its leaders, officers or spokespersons.

Sanctions for group or organization misconduct may include, but are not limited to, loss of recognition, as well as other appropriate sanctions permitted under this code. Sanctions of groups or organizations are subject to the appeal process upon request.
