

WAC 182-503-0060 Washington apple health—Application processing times. (1) We process applications for Washington apple health (medicaid) within forty-five calendar days, with the following exceptions:

(a) If you are pregnant, we process your application within fifteen calendar days;

(b) If you are applying for a program that requires a disability decision, we process your application within sixty calendar days; or

(c) The modified adjusted gross income (MAGI)-based apple health application process using Washington Healthplanfinder may provide faster or real-time determination of eligibility for medicaid.

(2) For calculating time limits, "day one" is the day we get an application from you that includes at least the information described in WAC 182-503-0005 (8). If you give us your paper application during business hours, "day one" is the day you give us your application. If you give us your paper application outside of business hours, "day one" is the next business day. If you experience technical difficulties while attempting to give us your application in Washington Healthplanfinder, "day one" is the day we are able to determine, based on the evidence available, that you first tried to submit an application that included at least the information described in WAC 182-503-0005 (8).

(3) We determine eligibility as quickly as possible and respond promptly to applications and information received. We do not delay a decision by using the time limits in this section as a waiting period.

(4) If we need more information to decide if you can get apple health coverage, we will send you a letter within twenty calendar days of your initial application that:

(a) Follows the rules in chapter 182-518 WAC;

(b) States the additional information we need; and

(c) Allows at least ten calendar days to provide it. We will allow you more time if you ask for more time or need an accommodation due to disability or limited-English proficiency.

(5) Good cause for a delay in processing the application exists when we acted as promptly as possible but:

(a) The delay was the result of an emergency beyond our control;

(b) The delay was the result of needing more information or documents that could not be readily obtained;

(c) You did not give us the information within the time frame specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(6) Good cause for a delay in processing the application does NOT exist when:

(a) We caused the delay in processing by:

(i) Failing to ask you for information timely; or

(ii) Failing to act promptly on requested information when you provided it timely; or

(b) We did not document the good cause reason before missing a time frame specified in subsection (1) of this section.
