

WAC 230-06-004 Defining "consecutively numbered," "consecutive," and "consecutively." (1) "Consecutively numbered" means a numbering system normally beginning with the number one, increased by one for each unit added to the group, and ending with a number equal to the total number of units in the group.

(2) "Consecutive" and "consecutively" mean one after the other without gaps.
