

WAC 284-24D-080 When is a claim considered closed? A claim is closed on the date the reporting entity takes final administrative action to close the claim. Final administrative action occurs after the reporting entity:

(1) Issues the final payment to the claimant in the form of a check or draft;

(2) Pays all outstanding bills for allocated loss adjustment expenses; and

(3) If applicable, receives all indemnity and allocated loss adjustment expense claim payment data needed for reporting under this chapter from a facility, provider or excess insuring entity.
