

WAC 308-94-030 Snowmobile registration application—Registration year. (1) How do I register my snowmobile? To register your snowmobile you must submit the following:

(a) An application for original or transfer registration. The application must include:

(i) The name and address of each registered owner; and
(ii) The make, vehicle identification number, model year, and method of propulsion of the snowmobile; and

(iii) The purchase price and year of purchase or declared value and year of declaration; and

(b) A copy of any of the following:

(i) Previously issued registration certificate;

(ii) Certificate of ownership from another state or country;

(iii) Manufacturer's certificate of origin;

(iv) A bill of sale or purchase agreement;

(v) Other department approved ownership documents; and

(c) Applicable fees and taxes.

(2) How are security interests recorded? Please contact the Uniform Commercial Code section for specific instructions/application or visit them on the web site and key "security interest" in the DOL search tool. Security interests are registered with the Uniform Commercial Code section of the department, and will not be recorded on the snowmobile registration.

(3) What is the registration period for snowmobiles? The registration period for snowmobiles is October 1 through September 30 of the following year. Registration fees are not prorated.
