

WAC 391-55-350 Responsibility of parties after fact-finding.

The parties are entitled to consider the fact finder's recommendations privately, before they are made public.

(1) For cases under chapter 41.59 RCW, within five days after the findings and recommendations have been issued, the parties shall notify the commission and each other whether they accept the recommendations of the fact finder.

(2) For cases under chapter 41.80 RCW, within ten working days after the findings and recommendations have been issued, the parties shall notify the commission and each other whether they accept the recommendations of the fact finder.

(3) If the recommendations of the fact finder are rejected by one or both parties and their further efforts do not result in an agreement, either party may ask the agency to provide further mediation and, upon the concurrence of the other party, the agency shall assign a mediator.
