

WAC 132I-168A-090 Schedule of fees and charges. The schedule of fines and charges is posted at the library circulation desk and is available through the office of the dean of instructional resources. All patrons are subject to uniform application of this schedule.

(1) Damage charges. Damage charges for all library materials, regardless of type or classification, will reflect the cost of repair but will not exceed the cost of replacement. Damage charges for special collection materials will be determined by the dean of instructional resources.

(2) Replacement charges are levied for lost or nonreturned items, and for damaged items where the cost of repair exceeds the cost of replacement. Replacement charges are based on the current purchase price of the item plus the item-processing fee outlined in the schedule of fees and charges.
