

WAC 192-150-155 Verification requirement for an underlying health condition under RCW 50.20.050 (2) (b) (xii) (C) (II). (1) (a) An individual who asserts they have good cause to voluntarily quit employment because they or another individual living with them have an underlying health condition that is identified as a risk factor for a disease that is the subject of a public health emergency will need to provide certification from a health care provider.

(b) The certification must include:

(i) The name, address, telephone number, and contact information of the health care provider and type of medicine the health provider is licensed to practice; and

(ii) Information from a health care provider sufficient to establish that the individual or another individual living with them have an underlying health condition that is identified as a risk factor for a disease that is the subject of a public health emergency.

(c) The department will deny benefits under WAC 192-140-105 if the individual fails to provide the certification.

(2) For purposes of this section, the term "health care provider" has the same meaning as in WAC 192-500-090.
