

WAC 192-180-020 Monitoring job search activities—RCW 50.20.240.

(1) Will my job search activities be monitored? Every week that you file a claim for benefits, you must certify whether you met the job search requirements. The department may review your job search activities at any time. Once you have been paid benefits for five or more weeks in any benefit year, you must provide the department with a copy of your job search log upon request.

(2) Will the department verify the information on my job search log? Employer contacts and other job search activities on your log may be verified by the department.
