

WAC 250-85-010 What is the Washington award for vocational excellence (WAVE) program? The Washington award for vocational excellence program, also known as WAVE, recognizes the outstanding achievements of vocational or technical students graduating from high school, or attending a community college or technical college, while in the state of Washington.

To the extent that funds are appropriated by the legislature, the WAVE program provides a scholarship to help pay the costs of undergraduate level coursework at participating in-state public or private colleges and universities, or at in-state private career colleges and schools licensed by the workforce training and education coordinating board.
