

WAC 388-03-164 What happens if I do not meet the requirements for maintaining my certification or authorization status? If you do not meet the requirements as specified under WAC 388-03-160, your certification or authorization status will expire after the expiration date on your certificate or authorization letter. Your name will be removed from the list of certified or authorized interpreters/translators. Once your certification or authorization status has expired, you must meet all requirements specified under WAC 388-03-112 before it can be renewed.
