

WAC 434-230-035 Office format. (1) The name of each office must be printed on the ballot.

(2) The description "partisan office" must be printed either for each partisan office or as a heading above a group of partisan offices. The description "nonpartisan office" must be printed either for each office or as a heading above a group of nonpartisan offices.

(3) If the term of office is not a full term, a description of the term (e.g., short/full term, two-year unexpired term) must be printed with the office name.

(4) Following each list of candidates shall be a response position and a space for writing in the name of a candidate.

(5) Each office or position must be separated by a bold line.

(6) On a general election ballot in a year that president and vice president are elected, each political party's candidates for president and vice president shall be provided one vote response position for that party.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 29A.04.611. WSR 08-15-052, § 434-230-035, filed 7/11/08, effective 8/11/08.]