

WAC 136-28-050 Determination of accident reporting compliance by the county road administration board. At its second regular meeting of each calendar year, the county road administration board shall determine if any county is unreasonably delinquent in its statutory accident reporting for the preceding calendar year. In determining what is unreasonable, the county road administration board shall consider the following:

(1) Did the county provide prior notification of the possible accident reporting problems in writing to the county road administration board?

(2) How much greater than ten percent is the percentage of the delinquent accident reporting compared to the total county accident reporting for the same period?

(3) Are there extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the county that resulted in the delinquent accident reporting?

(4) What is the past record of the county regarding accident-reporting compliance?
