

WAC 388-825-625 What happens if an individual receives a dis-qualifying background check result? (1) If an individual has a dis-qualifying background check result:

(a) The individual must not have access to clients or their personal information; and

(b) The department must not pay for services provided by the individual.

(2) If a provider or anyone the provider employs is required to complete a background check under WAC 388-825-610 and receives a dis-qualifying background check result, the department may deny, suspend, or revoke the provider's license, contract, or certification.

(3) If a provider or anyone the provider employs is required to complete a background check under WAC 388-825-610 and receives a dis-qualifying background check result, the provider must immediately notify DDA of the result.
