

WAC 463-58-060 Costs for potential site studies. Ten thousand dollars shall accompany the study request and be a condition precedent to any action by the council. In the event that the council determines that the initial fee of ten thousand dollars is insufficient to adequately fund the potential site study, the council shall so advise the potential applicant and shall furnish an estimate of the supplemental funds needed to complete the study. In no event shall the study be allowed to continue if the potential applicant has not agreed to pay the cost.
