Prevailing Rate of Wage Emergency Corrections

As per RCW 39.12.015, 39.12.020 and WAC 296-127-011 and as was published on the internet on February 1, 2010, the industrial statistician has determined the statewide prevailing rates of wage. These prevailing rates of wage are effective for public works projects bid on or after March 3, 2010. On March 2, 2010, the industrial statistician and director of labor and industries made an emergency correction to these rates. The corrected rates became effective immediately on March 3, 2010, per WAC 296-127-011. Here is a summary of the trades and counties affected by this correction.

The department may fine contractors $500 for failure to file these forms.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETINGS
WASHINGTON STATE
REHABILITATION COUNCIL

[Filed March 16, 2010, 12:58 p.m.]

The members of the Washington state rehabilitation council want to learn from you!

We invite you to join us:
Thursday April 15, 2010
2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

We are providing American Sign Language interpretation and light refreshments.

You are receiving this invitation because you may be working with a counselor from the division of vocational rehabilitation (DVR) to find a job, or you may be a provider of services who partners with DVR in assisting people to go to work.

The Washington state rehabilitation council is a group of volunteers who the governor has asked to make sure that DVR is providing good services that help people get and keep jobs they like.

We want to hear whether you think the services DVR provides are effective or not. Do you have ideas about how the system might work better? We are coming to King County to listen and learn. You don't have to attend if you don't want to. Your access to DVR services won't be affected by your attendance.

We welcome whatever you want to say. Here are some examples of questions we would like to learn more about:

- If you call DVR does someone call you back within 24 hours?
- What do you think every customer needs to know about working with DVR?
- DVR is here to help its customers go to work. Do you think the services you are receiving will help you get and keep a job you like?
- What have you liked about working with DVR and what have you not liked?

If you want to participate but can't attend in person we still want to hear from you. There are two ways to participate without actually coming to the meeting. You can e-mail comments to langjk@dshs.wa.gov or you can participate in the meeting by phone. To participate in the meeting by phone dial 1-866-699-3239.

For more information or to request reasonable accommodation or a spoken language interpretation, contact JoAnne at 1-866-252-2939 or e-mail langjk@dshs.wa.gov.

Announcing the Draft Upland Fin-Fish Hatching and Rearing NPDES General Permit for Review and Comment

The Draft Upland Fin-Fish Hatching and Rearing NPDES General Permit: The upland fin-fish hatching and rearing NPDES general permit, issued by the Washington state department of ecology (ecology) will expire on June 1, 2010.

The draft upland fin-fish hatching and rearing NPDES general permit and fact sheet are available for review and public comment from April 1, 2010, through June 14, 2010. Ecology will host an informational workshop and a public hearing on the draft permit on May 13, 2010, in Lacey. Ecology will accept written comments on the draft permit, fact sheet, and application or oral comments can be given at the public hearing.

Purpose of the Permit: The proposed permit implements the Federal Clean Water Act; the State Water Pollution Control Act; and chapter 173-221A WAC, Wastewater discharge standards and effluent limitations. The purpose of the upland fin-fish hatching and rearing general permit is to regulate the discharge of pollutants from upland fin-fish hatching and rearing facilities into waters of the state. Dischargers who require coverage under this permit include all state and private hatcheries that produce more than 20,000 pounds of fish per year or feed more than 5,000 pounds per month. The permit contains best management practices and effluent limitations and monitoring requirements necessary to protect state water quality.

Copies of the Draft Permit: You may download a copy of the permit and fact sheet at http://www/programs/wq/permits/fin_fish/index.html.

Or you may request a copy of the permit or fact sheet from Tricia Miller at (425) 649-7201 or by e-mail at tmil461@ecy.wa.gov.

Hearing and Workshop: The public hearing and workshop on the permit is scheduled to be held in Lacey, Washington. At the workshop ecology will explain the draft permit and answer questions. A hearing will immediately follow the workshop. The hearing will provide the opportunity for formal oral testimony and comments on the proposed permit.

Workshop and Hearing: On May 13, 2010, at 2 p.m., at the Ecology Headquarters, 300 Desmond Drive S.E., Lacey, WA 98503, (360) 407-6000. Driving directions http://www.ecy.wa.gov/images/offices/map_hq_swro.pdf.

Issuing the Permits: After ecology receives and considers all public comments, it will issue the final permit. If public comments cause a substantial change in the permit conditions from the original permit, another public notice of draft and comment period will occur. Ecology expects to issue the general permit in June of 2010, effective August 1, 2010.

INTERPRETIVE AND POLICY STATEMENT

DEPARTMENT OF

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

[Filed March 24, 2010, 10:12 a.m.]

Purpose: Pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, RCW 34.05.230, the department of general administration (GA) submits the following: Competitive contracting interim guidance and interpretive and policy statement.

Subject: Guidance for state agency staff during the interim from the September 15, 2009, Court of Appeals Division II court decision which invalidated three sections of GA's 2004 competitive contracting rules (chapter 236-51 WAC), and the adoption of conforming rules.

Background: In 2004, GA adopted chapter 236-51 WAC on competitive contracting under the authority granted by RCW 41.06.142 (1)(d) "to ensure that bids are submitted and evaluated in a fair and objective manner ..."

In 2007, the Washington Federation of State Employees filed suit challenging three sections of chapter 236-51 WAC:

1. WAC 236-51-006: "If state employees will not be displaced, agencies shall comply with RCW 41.06.142 (1)(a), (d) and (e), and applicable laws and rules governing the purchase of such services."

2. WAC 236-51-010(11): "'Displaced employee' means a classified employee whose position or work would be eliminated, resulting in the employee being laid off or assigned to a different job classification, as a result of an award via the competitive contracting process."

3. WAC 236-51-225: "An employee business unit (EBU) awarded a contract by an agency shall not perform or bid on solicitations for services not contained in its contract unless their agency approves in writing."

On September 15, 2009, the Court of Appeals Division II ruled that GA exceeded its rule-making authority in interpreting the meaning of the word "displaced" in the phrase "employees in the classified service whose positions or work would be displaced by the contract" (RCW 41.06.142 (1)(b)). The court did not rule on the meaning of the statutory language, but said that interpreting this term is not within the scope of crafting a bid process. The court also used this reasoning to invalidate WAC 236-51-006.

The court affirmed GA's authority to draft WAC 236-51-225, but deemed it inconsistent with the law. The court held that an EBU may bid on a new contract only if their current work would be displaced by the new contract.

Interim Guidance: WAC 236-51-006 and 236-51-010(11) are not in force or effect. Agencies must apply the text of RCW 41.06.142 (1)(b) to their specific situation to determine if they have "employees in the classified service whose positions or work would be displaced by the contract." If so, agencies must follow the competitive contracting requirements.

WAC 236-51-225 is not in force or effect. The court held that an EBU may bid on a new contract only if their current work would be displaced by the new contract.

This is interim guidance because GA intends to commence an expedited rule-making process to conform the rules to the Court of Appeals decision. This guidance applies until the rule-making process is completed.

Contact: To receive information on GA's expedited rule-making process, please contact Jack Zeigler, Rules Coordinator, Department of General Administration, P.O. Box 41000, Olympia, WA 98504-1000, phone (360) 902-0970, e-mail jzeigle@ga.wa.gov, web site www.ga.wa.gov.
