DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

[Filed November 4, 2014, 1:16 p.m.]

INTERPRETIVE STATEMENT ISSUED

The department of revenue has issued the following excise tax advisory (ETA):

ETA 3054.2014 - Sales to residents of states or possessions of the US, and territories or provinces of Canada, that do not impose a tax of at least three percent

This ETA explains the retail sales tax exemption provided by RCW 82.08.0273 to qualified nonresidents of Washington when purchasing tangible personal property, digital goods, and digital codes, for use outside of Washington. The department has updated the ETA to recognize provisions of SB 6505, chapter 140, Laws of 2014. This legislation specifically excludes sales of marijuana from the exemption. Marijuana is any product with a THC concentration greater than .03 percent.

In 2011, this ETA was previously updated to explain that the exemption is available only to residents of states other than Washington, United States possessions, or Canadian territories or provinces that do not impose or have imposed on its behalf, a generally applicable retail sales tax, use tax, value added tax, gross receipts tax on retailing activities, or similar generally applicable tax of three percent or more.

POLICY STATEMENT DEPARTMENT OF ECOLOGY

[Filed November 5, 2014, 11:39 a.m.]

Purpose: In accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, RCW 34.05.230, the department of ecology submits the following:

Document Title: Evaluation of Changes or Transfers to Water Rights.

Subject: To describe generally the applicable procedures that the department of ecology will use in consideration of applications for change to water right certificates, permits and claims.

Document Description: This policy is an update to the 1999 version of the same policy to reflect recent court decisions related to ecology's authority when reviewing applications for change to surface water rights under the applicable sections of the state water code (chapter 90.03 RCW). The policy describes how the department of ecology intends to apply the various sections of the law related to approving applications for change or transfer to existing water rights.

This revised policy supersedes the previous policy adopted on January 8, 1999. Specifically, it addresses the 2002 Washington Supreme Court decision in Public Utility District No. 1 of Pend Oreille County v. Department of Ecology, 146 Wn.2d 778, 795-798, 51 P.3d 744 (2002), which held that a public interest test is not a proper consideration when ecology acts on a change application under RCW 90.03.380.

To receive a copy of the policy, contact Mike Dixel, Water Resources Program, Department of Ecology, P.O. Box 47600, Olympia, WA 98504-7600, phone (360) 407-7679, e-mail mdex461@ecy.wa.gov, web site <http://www.ecy.wa.gov/programs/wr/rules/images/pdf/pol1200.pdf>.

POLICY STATEMENT DEPARTMENT OF ECOLOGY

[Filed November 5, 2014, 11:48 a.m.]

Purpose: In accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, RCW 34.05.230, the department of ecology submits the following:

Document Title: Development Schedules for Water Right Changes and Transfers.

Subject: To describe generally the applicable procedures that the department of ecology will use in consideration of development schedules for authorizations of change to water right certificates, permits and claims.

Document Description: This policy is an update to the 2009 version of the same policy to reflect ecology's authority when considering development schedules for approved applications for change or transfer to surface water rights under the applicable sections of the state water code (chapter 90.03 RCW). The policy describes how the department of ecology intends to apply the various sections of the law related to development schedules when approving applications for change or transfer to existing water rights.

This revised policy supersedes the previous policy adopted on August 10, 2009. Specifically, it addresses the statutory language in RCW 90.03.380(1), which states that "... the department shall issue to the applicant a certificate in duplicate granting the right for such transfer or for such change." The updated policy clarifies that the applicant of an approved surface water right change or transfer may request that a superseding certificate issue right away, in accordance with the state water code (chapter 90.03 RCW).

To receive a copy of the policy, contact Mike Dexel, Water Resources Program, Department of Ecology, P.O. Box 47600, Olympia, WA 98504-7600, phone (360) 407-7679, e-mail mdex461@ecy.wa.gov, web site <http://www.ecy.wa.gov/programs/wr/rules/images/pdf/pol1280.pdf>.
