Securities Act Interpretive Statement 06

RE: Employee Benefit Plan Securities Exemption at RCW 21.20.310(10)

On February 11, 2022, the securities administrator adopted amendments to Securities Act Interpretive Statement 06. The interpretive statement concerns the employee benefit plan securities exemption at RCW 21.20.310(10). The amendments to the interpretive statement address inquiries the securities division has received regarding whether the securities division interprets the exemption consistent with federal Rule 701 under the Securities Act of 1933, whether the exemption covers omnibus plans, and whether a new notice filing is required for amended plans. In addition, the amendments update the interpretive statement to reflect changes in federal law and to remove outdated information.

Interested persons may obtain a copy of Securities Act Interpretive Statement 06 by contacting Jill Vallely, Securities Division, Department of Financial Institutions, P.O. Box 9033, Olympia, WA 98507, 360-902-8801, jill.vallely@dfi.wa.gov.

	388-97-0120, 388-97-0140	The department is amending to waive and suspend the requirement for nursing homes to suspend transfers and discharges pending the outcome of a resident appeal of the nursing home transfer or discharge decision. The COVID-19 pandemic continues to require more rapid transfers and discharges than the rule permits. This emergency rule waives the requirement for nursing homes to suspend transfers and discharges pending the outcome of a resident appeal hearing, and improves resident safety by allowing faster grouping of COVID-19 positive residents in one facility, or grouping asymptomatic residents together. This helps expedite infection control processes, and maximizes the availability of nursing home beds.			WSR 22-01-072 Filed 12/10/2021 WSR 21-24-069 Filed 11/30/2021

	388-78A-2521, 388-78A-2525, 388-78A-2526	The department is extending the amendment of the rules listed below and making the suspension retroactive to August 13, 2021, to assure [ensure] assisted living facilities are not significantly impeded during the hiring process due to an administrator's inability to obtain a certificate of completion of a recognized administrator training as referenced in WAC 388-78A-2521. This will help to increase the number of long-term care administrators necessary to provide essential services to some of Washington's most vulnerable adults during the outbreak of COVID-19 and will address the gap in suspended requirements from the expiration of the last emergency rules filed under WSR 21-09-046. The current rules require administrator training prior to assuming administrator duties or within six months of beginning duties for administrators meeting additional educational requirements. currently, applicants for assisted living facility administrator positions are unable to obtain the required training. This rule making is necessary to establish a time frame when the portions of the rules were suspended during the COVID-19 pandemic, and assisted living facilities were not required to comply with the suspended portions of the rules. Virtual trainings have been developed and implemented for the assisted living facility administrators. Although the available capacity for these trainings has increased, they are limited to semi-annual offerings. Additional time is needed to facilitate additional courses to serve the backlog of applicants requesting this training.			WSR 22-05-026 Filed 2/7/2022
